IBC Needs to Improve its News and Sports Broadcasts

February 11, 2014

IBC needs to improve its production of sports from Viva Sports and news programs in order to be more consistent with the other networks. (Photo courtesy of IBC)

IBC's sports broadcasting from Viva Sports was enhanced by acquiring the broadcast rights for this year's Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia. There are some issues that need to be resolved when it comes to both sports and news coverage. As the recent Viva Sports on IBC broadcasts of the PBA and NBA basketball games, there is a live coverage, and that involves the announcers and court-side reporters of the said network. Typically announcers already speaking are required to wait for the commercials are done and a live shot of the game is shown airing a live sports event.

Viva Sports's vision is to be a leader in sportscasting on IBC, their announcers need to improve in terms of timing and thorough delivery. The broadcast of a live sports event will be well-produced and consistent.

Going to the news aspect, IBC's simulcasts of DZTV Radyo Budyong programs, their perhaps as long as newscast on DZTV Radyo Biudyong and the coverage of many stories.

Perhaps the observation is the title INN News Blast on IBC News Network (INN). The title should only be used during live press conferences and urgent breaking news that happen beyond the top of the hour such as ongoing fires, hostage crises, accidents and shooting incidents. IBC Headliners, is the top-of-the-hour newsbreaks (from 10AM, 11AM, 12NN, 4PM and 10PM).

With some suggestions. On Express Balita, around 30 and 60-second commercial breaks including public service announcements and commercials. And during IBC Headliners's top-of-the-hour newsbreaks, they should limit their stories to just three, and deliver them in an average of 40 to 50 seconds.

The Kapinoy Network definitely has the potential to produce the best sports and news programming. They improve on these aspects, their progression as a media giant.

Congress to review IBC-13, RPN-9 franchises

December 7, 2012

The House of Representatives will review the status of two government television stations to determine whether they violated their franchises.

Rep. Giorgidi Aggabao, principal author of the House Resolution No. 2854 which seeks the probe, said the two networks in question has entered into an agreement with several companies.

Aggabao further noted that Kitchie Benedicto, daughter of Roberto Benedicto an alleged Marcos crony, is the owner of a 34 percent minority share in RPN-9.

Aggabao cited RA 8954 which provides prohibition on the agreements entered into by the networks.

During the administration of then President Cory Aquino, the Presidential Commission on Good Government sequestered both IBC and RPN in favor of the government by virtue of being owned by the Benedicto family.

Even with the existence of joint venture agreements with private enterprises, Aggabao said the government is inclined to privatize both the IBC and RPN and retain the People's Television as the sole-mandated government TV network.

As of now, IBC will not be sole said the privatization is good, when IBC-13 for being the Kapinoy network No.3 behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA.6.

Neighboring provinces have the highest TV reach than any other region in the country. ABS-CBN has a 99% TV households reached in Metro Manila. GMA has 97%, RPN 95%, IBC 92%, TV5 92% and Studio 23 74%. The current peso-to-dollar exchange rate helped to complicate the net's problems. Once the country's top purveyor of Tagalized programs, IBC-13 got the Asian crisis rendered foreign programs too expensive. Advertisers also cut their placements in foreign shows by 40%, local programs that had cheaper rates and higher viewership.

Tagalized programming on free TV meanwhile middle-class and upper-class TV audience, offered by IBC-13 president-CEO Edgar Boots Anson-Roa is to streamline Kapinoy's expenses. Viva-TV on IBC-13 primetime, such foreign cartoons as Winx Club, Totally Spies!, Pop Pixie and Barbie, now has 60% local content that will produce imported

IBC is set to regain and reclaim its place in the broadcast industry as a government station, unless in its new configuration, new investors may find it now a more interesting buy with the opening number with Bryan Termulo, Nadine Lustre, Anja Aguilar and Miguel Aguila with a Street Boys dancers. The new financial muscle to face Channels 2 and 7 head on, Homecoming sa 13 opened with a certified singing champion Ms. Anja Aguilar who is now recognized her home network has successfully defined a part of her career.

Recognizing the mascot of KapinoyLand, not only as an IBC children's programming but as the kids fare that defined local TV series, was the driving force behind Homecoming sa 13. So when IBC characters Mr. Kapinoy with Baby Kapinoy along with Ms. TV, Radiogirl and Newspaperboy started the opening of the musical from singing and dancing, it was all entertainment from there held at the Aliw Theater last Tuesday night from supervisors, directors, managers, talents, and other employees.

Maria and Richard Yap, Jerome Ponce and Janella Salvador, Ella Cruz, Bryan Termulo, Dingdong Avanzado, Kathryn Bernardo and Marvin Agustin, with the girl group M.I.L.K and the Street Boys from face on camera at expense of some homegrown IBC talents.

"Homegrown on IBC," Orly Mercado, the network's chairman, Eric Canoy, a network's new owner and Lito Ocampo Cruz, the network's vice-president, said in a speech. He cited as the classics like Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Pinoy Thriller, Iskul Bukol, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, See-True, Mga Kuwento Ni Lola Basyang, Ula ang Batang Gubat, among others.

What's more important is what the viewers can expect from IBC-13 in the upcoming days. "We will continue with what we have now with our Viva-TV programs on primetime block from 5:00pm-12:00mn where the PBA games are shown. Now the undisputed No.3 TV Network in the Philippines behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA 7, thanks to IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa.

And now IBC-13 have a Viva's local production for the topping ratings. The networks faithfully followed the woes and victories of phenomenal animated series Winx Club which the two giant networks copied because of their success, action-crime fighting Totally Spies! and the most refreshing Pop Pixie which is dubbed the Tagalized. A new anime series like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin. Plus, important Mexican telenovelas Maria Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor as well as the imported Korean dramas My Daughter the Flower, Wife Returns and Pretty Young Woman within a Tagalized Korean reality show 2NE1-TV and K-Pop Star Hunt along with Viva Films for a local blockbuster movies where shown on Channel 13.

IBC leads broadcast network in the Philippines in terms of social media engagement

October 29, 2013

The Kapinoy Network leads in social media engagement

In an era where the TV viewing landscape is significantly transformed by the Internet and the fast-evolving multimedia technologies, government-owned sequestered TV and radio station IBC-13 is definitely on the right track with its efforts to actively engage social media users and tap a growing market of progressive and aggressive viewers. This was the finding of a recent study identifying IBC-13 as the leading broadcast network in the Philippines in terms of the social media engagement.

A leading publication, Adobo Magazine, in an article cited Hong Kong-based research firm Ci-8 Social Media Research whose research showed that IBC-13 was substantially boosted by its high level of Facebook fan engagement, giving the network a social media Share of Voice (SOV) of 50% compared to ABS-CBN's 35% and GMA's 20%. The article credited IBC's high SOV ranking to the network's Facebook mentions which "contributed 30% of mentions on its own page, while ABS-CBN and GMA's share came in at just 10% under on this score." The Ci-8 research results also cited the notable gender balance in IBC-13's social media audience compared to the predominantly ABS-CBN and GMA audiences. To date, IBC-13's Facebook page has a total of almost 1.3 M fans, a feat for the network which started its Facebook page in 2009.

Media observers have noted a significant relationship between online audiences and a TV network's popularity. According to a separate Nielsen Pinoy Netizen Study (based on National Urban data from Q3 2012), there has been a 30% growth in the number of potential 3-screen users since the last quarter of 2010, driven by increased Internet usage among IBC-13 households, Teens and 20-29 year olds. The same study also discovered that 10M Filipinos now go online to share or consume media content, a fact that is most favorable to The Kapinoy Network in line with the network's dedicated efforts to synergize all media platforms to address the needs of the growing population of the multi-screen users.

IBC-13 as the country's foremost champion of digital broadcasting has come up with some notable achievements in this field – including the award-winning IBCNews.com Traffic Navigator, IBC News app, PBA and NBA app, K-Pop Radio, INN app, Romance FM, DZTV Radyo Budyong and iDMZ app radio. The network will also launch another groundbreaking application that will revolutionize the way Filipinos watch television: the IBC App which introduces the Philippines' first Second Screen Experience that will provide Filipinos with exclusive supplementary content on their mobile devices while they watch IBC-13's shows. Going into beta this November, the IBC app also has a chat function where communities of Kapinoy viewers can interact in real-time and discuss currently airing episodes thus further boosting the Pinoy's social media habit.

We enjoyed it so much and we believed the whole audience did too. Now as Komedya Funny, featuring the Manila Philharmonic Orchestra in a performance laced with comedy to your favorite Kapinoy programs. Palace infuses P5B into PTV-4, drops IBC-13, RPN-9

Thursday, 21 March 2013

Malacañang is set to dispose of the two bankrupt sequestered television networks, the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC) Channel 13 and the Radio Philippines Network (RPN) Channel 9, but will maintain the equally bankrupt People's Television Channel 4 and IBC remains the undisputed number 3 has caught the interest of telecommunication giant Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT) and Viva Entertainment of CEO and chairman Vic del Rosario, Jr., a source said.

Presidential Communications Operations Office chief Secretary Sonny Coloma yesterday declared that after the signing by Presi-dent Aquino of Republic Act 103901, now known as "An Act Revitalizing the People's Television Network Incorporated" this would pave the way for the government to sell the “bleeding-non-performing assets.” Coloma said the Aquino administration was met with the problem of PTV-4 network that has been experiencing financial hemorrhage and is currently cash strapped in resolving the problem of payment of salaries of employees as well as its continuously bloating debts from various suppliers, unpaid electric bills, taxes, PhilHealth premiums and GSIS premiums.

“That is a network that is experiencing financial hemorrhage and President Aquino at once recognized that the problem had to be addressed strategically,” Coloma said. PTV-4 is being utilized by the Palace as one of its propaganda arms to generate funds from advertising and airtime sales.

Coloma said “there was an initial capitalization of P 1 billion and, by the time we took on the management of the network in July of 2010, the financial hemorrhage had already taken place and the capitalization of the network had been fully depleted. That means to say the network treasury has no money”. “As of the time that the Aquino administration took over, the only revenues were coming from two government agencies, namely Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office and Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corp. or Pagcor, and these two agencies were contributing to the revenues that were used to keep the network afloat,” Coloma said. Coloma said Aquino directed the crafting of a proposed bill, that later on, this bill was included in the priority list of the Legislative Executive Development Advisory Council (Ledac).

“So we worked on the Senate and the Congress to pass a new charter for the People’s Television that had two important features: number one, infusion by government of fresh capitalization in the amount of P 5 billion pesos; and, number two, giving the network authority to collect commercial revenues,” Coloma said.

In the old charter, RA 7306, the network was given a period of 10 years within which to collect commercial revenues. “After which it was prohibited from doing so, and we are told this was because of the objections of the private commercial networks that PTV or the government television might pose a direct competition to commercial TV in terms of revenue generation.

“That was the rationale for giving the network only 10 years within which to achieve financial viability and stability,” Coloma said. Coloma explained that according to the law, P3 billion will be appropriated in the General Appropriations Act. Since there are three years remaining on this administration.

“Notionally, we wish to be able to get this in tranches of at least P1 billion a year starting with the 2014 budget,” Coloma said. Coloma said his office has been doing the financial coordination with the Department of Budget for the timely release of the funds while waiting for the proceeds of the disposal of the two government networks. “We are working closely with the DBM on the amount and the timing of the release of the tranches. The remaining P2 billion, according to the law, will be derived from the proceeds of the privatization of IBC and RPN.

“As you know, IBC is still 100 percent owned by the government and it will be privatized under the auspices of the Governance Commission of Government Corporations (GCG). Chairman Cesar Villanueva and his team are working closely with us so we can come up with the guidelines for the privatization and get this done soon,” Coloma said. Coloma said that with respect to the privatization of RPN-9, “RPN-9 ceased to be a government corporation after July 2010 when the Supreme Court awarded 32 percent of ownership to the Roberto Benedicto group. Effectively at present, private equity accounts for 66 percent of the equity structure of RPN. The other 34 percent belongs to Solar Entertainment which obtained this through a debt-to-equity conversion sometime in 2009 or 2010”. Coloma said the government holds a minority position of 20.8 percent. “But there is still a significant amount of liabilities owed by the network to the government so this will have to be factored into the proposed privatization package. We are working on this together with the Privatization Management Office and the economic management cluster,” Coloma said.

Coloma said the Aquino administration continues to prosecute those officials in the past administration who had abused and exploited the government networks.

“Following this administration’s commitment to good governance, we will pursue proper administrative or legal action against people that are found to have been involved in whatever irregularities that could be properly documented or substantiated,” Coloma said.

Coloma said the employees of the networks would be informed of the new developments on labor relations. “There is specific provision in the law that allows the Board of Directors and the management to implement a reorganization of the network. And it also says there that provided an employee has rendered at least one year of service, such employee may be entitled to retirement and/or separation benefits. The employees will be properly informed and they will be duly consulted as one of the relevant stakeholders. So we would like them to get involved in the process of working out what is properly due them,” Coloma said.

Coloma stressed that the government network has plans to be at par with the private networks in terms of technical capabilities. “That is what we want to achieve. Just to give you an eyeball of the situation: When I traveled to Zamboanga City a few months ago, well, I wanted to know if I could watch PTV to retain and use all fees and other revenues for its operations and capital expenditures, because Zamboanga is far away from Manila, and I did.

In the hotel room where I stayed that had cable TV facilities, the transmission via the cable carrier was locally available, the transmission of PTV programs continues to make itself as the alternative television network, giving priority to give its viewers a balanced mix of high-quality news and public affairs, cultural and educational, and sports programs with a bottom-dweller in the primetime ratings with the popularity of the university basketball league for the ABL and UAAP games for the TV viewership ratings as well as its sports coverage like the Southeast Asian Games, Asian Games and Olympic Games. Meanwhile, the award-winning educational and cultural programs like Tele-Aralan ng Kakayahan, Ating Alamin, Paco Park Presents, Mag-Agri Tayo!, and educational programming CONSEL: Counting Studies via Television aimed at upgrading teaching skills of elementary and secondary teachers of Science and English. Institutionalized by Department of Education, Culture and Sports (DECS), CONSTEL Science and English are being used in teacher training by the Regional and Divisional Leader Schools of the Department of Education, culture and Sports and in Teacher Education Institutions of the Commission on Higher Education. A children's noontime cartoon programs like Cartoon Hour for kids, and with the PTV's flagship national news programs like PTV Sports, Balitaan, Good Morning Boss!, News @1, News @6 and NewsLife beginning to show in audience ratings of the competition. It varies from one city to another depending on the quality of transmission," Coloma said to establish and build its main broadcast center and major provincial stations, for possible expansion.

At the IBC headquarters at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, Lito detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in store. IBC airing classic hit shows like Iskul Bukol, TODAS and Chicks to Chicks as part of IBC Classics, also which intends to increase its award-winning cultural, current events and children's programming like Cooltura, KapinoyLand, Barney & Friends, Danze sa TV, Teletubbies, Sesame Street and Lunch Break as well as its flagship news program Express Balita and Ronda Trese together with public service program Linawin Natin, Good Take, Nora Mismo, Snooky and Angara ng Bayan.

Viva Entertainment, led by chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr., has been providing content for IBC. It also providing the films, TV, music recording, sports, cable channels and many more from Viva that the station still has commercial value despite its contract with Viva Entertainment, added that Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation or IBC for the Kapinoy network, which operates radio and television stations nationwide to raise its advertising rates in the Kapamilya and Kapuso networks. IBC's FM radio station iDMZ 891, now is the #1 urban music and danze mix FM radio station will target the A-B-C markets. IBC is in VHF TV programming, radio broadcasting, kids and merchandising, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains the network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

Coloma said the privatization of IBC 13 has been already going-on as the Board of Directors of IBC channel 13 headed by Chairman Eric Canoy has already met with Chairman Cesar Villanueva of the GCG supplements its monthly income with its earnings from Viva and other block timers, as well as with RPN 9's rental of the facilities. IBC recently the Kapinoy Network became more aggressive with its surging ahead in the TV ratings companions, the dominance of the two leading networks ABS-CBN (Channel 2) and GMA Network (Channel 7) start to bring in more viewers, for making IBC, the undisputed number 3 leading network, thanks to popular basketball for the NBA and PBA games, boxing matches and the Viva programs from the imported Korean asianovelas, Mexican telenovelas, the Viva Tagalog movies and the Japanese anime series will target the A-B-C market, as well as the popular and top-rating phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link, and popular talent search show Born to be a Star which are the block timers of Viva Television, they have helped IBC-13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings. Viva-TV producing more quality, world-class, award-winning and homegrown programming on IBC's primetime block from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight slot, continue to provides the Filipino viewers from movies, cartoons, anime, dramas, comedy, game shows, reality and sports - the new improved soap-opera prime-time teleserye, asianovela and telenovela fare from other networks.

"IBC, by the way, is now operating profitably due to their aggreement of blocktime revenues with the partnership of Viva Commiunications, Inc. Based on reports by media research group Kantar Media, IBC-13 now reaching the number 3 position among TV network at the same point in the audience share and the ratings, with all the Top 10 shows belonging to the network, and the first in the Philippine television to be the number 3 after its relaunch last 1998," Coloma said. Coloma said the office of PTV 4 although a government cororation is still under the supervision of the Commission on Audit.

He said the board of directors are to be appointed by the President as required by law.

March 23, 2013

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) kicked off its 53rd anniversary's year-long celebration as a media institution that pioneered government-owned sequestered television and radio in the country and how it has been in the country's Kapinoy network since 1960s. "IBC-13 is a living institution composed of you, me, and every employee that has dedicated himself or herself to be in The Kapinoy Network. That's what we have been doing for the past 53 years and that is what IBC will continue to do for all its existence," IBC Chairman Eric Canoy said in his speech that a commercial network put the IBC now turn into a competitive and rivalry competition than Channel 2 and 7 that commercial load.

He said, "Many radical and trailblazing strategies will be relaunched that will redefine the way we do business to allow the sequestered television station to generate from advertising and airtime sales."

He added, "You will see Channel 13 that uses the foundation of content to mold itself into a company that offers consumer solutions that has never been seen before in privatization. It a result of listening to our consumers, privatizing and responding to them in ways they want and desire. It is about creating one-on-one relationships with each Filipino that we serve. This is what our mission is all about profit and income from IBC revenues." With the theme Bawat Pinoy, Kapinoy!, IBC's silver 53rd anniversary of Philippine Television pays tribute to the life stories of each and every Filipino culture and children that IBC-13 to become the country's number 3 leading TV network and inspired the hardworking people behind it to live up to the company's motto. They intend to produce entertainment shows from the other networks like the Korean asianovelas, a Japanese anime series and the imported Mexican telenovela of the type that produced.

By the 1960, it is the first Channel 13 camera for news and started broadcasts in 1961 under Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the tri-media conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by the late Andres Soriano. The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao, truly played a third major role in the broadcasting history of the Philippines. Dick Baldwin was the station's first owner, and programming first consisted of mostly foreign programs from CBS, and a few local shows. In 1970s, IBC launches the color transmission named Vinta Color named after the Vintas from Zamboanga, the third network in the Philippines to convert to all-color broadcasts.

Inter-Island 13 split off from the Sorianos, owners of RMN on the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago. DWKB-FM 89.1 was opened and in a short time, it became the number one FM radio station in the country. Now, known as IDMZ 89.1, the #1 urban music and dance mix FM radio station in an Asian market will target the A-B-C markets. From a relatively TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with an intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC-13 set a firsts in the broadcasting industry metamorphosed into one of the country's most viewed TV network. Showing full-length Tagalog films aired on primetime and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 from Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, TODAS, See-True and so much more, when one spoke of television in the top of the ratings catapulted IBC in the number one slot among all television networks in 1976.

In 1977, through the sweat of its employees and the income generated from its programs, the network built and finally moved into its present home of the Broadcast City. The complex was a five-and-a-half hectare land located at Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines. IBC manifested an enviable resilience in surviving the challenges. It marked the biggest, most progressive leap any network has ever made. Because of its station produced shows and co-production ventures, it penetrated a wider market. Thus, remarkable productivity surfaced with the acquisition of several provincial TV and radio stations.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. A board of administrators was created to run the network's condition became congruent with the government situation, new administrators meant new management, thus doubled the operating expenses of the network. Cost of programs went up by threefold. Line produced shows and co-production ventures with Viva, Regal, and Seiko were favored. A new image, Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese, to recapture the glory days it once had. But because of the sequestration, periodic change of management and the internal problems, the network started to lose the support of advertisers in 1989. Island Broadcast Corporation took over the management and the marketing of IBC which came to be known as Island TV 13 in 1990. It was in the later part of its operations that ratings and income suffered due to mismanagement which caused labor unrest.

During this time, IBC became a 100% government owned station by virtue of a compromise agreement between PCGG and Mr. Roberto S. Benedicto, management and marketing were returned to the IBC Board of Directors. Programming remained at a standstill in preparation for the launching of a new image.

It was May 1994 when IBC launched Pinoy ang Dating with a visually enticing MTV, an innovation in terms of station identification. Despite limited resources, programming improved the battle for audience share continued. Advertisers became more responsive to marketing efforts, IBC managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past. These are the classic tokusatsu hits of the popular Super Sentai galore are Bioman, Shaider, Maskman, Turboranger, Jiban, Kamen Rider Black, Winspector, Machineman and Fiveman, and anime hits like Voltes V, Candy Candy, Battle Ball, Super Boink, Ghost Fighter, Time Quest, Starzinger, Tonde Boorin, Shuurato, Gaiking, Grendaizer UFO and Mazinger Z, some of the most famous tokusatsu, sentai and anime shows in Philippine television while entering a full nationwide satellite broadcast.

Vintage Television (VTV) entered the scene with the PBA as its major program. Rehabilitation of the transmitter and other technical facilities were initiated in the central and provincial stations. A new Harris 60-kilowatt transmitter was installed. The global service of APSTAR 1 satellite was utilized for a wider global reach. Now turning 53rd Anniversary in Philippine Television, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away, Viva-TV continues to reign on primetime with its sports and entertainment programs, with the NBA and PBA games. IBC's improving Kapinoy programming will dominate the non-primetime slots. IBC is now reaching the number 3 since 1996.

His foremost concern is to maintain the viability and competitiveness of the network in preparation for its privatization. This is achieved by providing for the personnel welfare and benefits and by renewed programming thrust which would cater to the biggest sector of society, the youth.

Since then, IBC is now the number 3 among the TV networks at the same point in audience share and ratings, with all the Top 10 shows belonging to the network, and the first in the Philippines to be number 3 since 1998. IBC's TV companions, like ABS CBN Channel 2 and GMA Channel 7 to bring more viewers for making IBC, the number 3 leading TV network. Senators slam RPN-9 for not paying employees

Updated November 27, 2012 - 12:00am

MANILA, Philippines - Senate President Pro Tempore Jinggoy Estrada and Sen. Panfilo Lacson raised concerns yesterday over the failure of the government to fully compensate some employees of the defunct RPN-9 television, this time is Kapinoy network IBC-13.

Estrada and Lacson questioned the officials of the Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO) under Secretary Herminio Coloma, who was defending their P1.312-billion budget for next year before the Senate.

Speaking through finance committee chairman Sen. Franklin Drilon, PCOO executives explained that there were 213 RPN employees were served notices of retrenchment through the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) on Oct. 1.

"It is basically a retrenchment due to the continued financial losses incurred," Drilon explained.

According to Drilon, PTV-4 and RPN-9 are not making money compared to another government television station, IBC-13 will now making number 3 position, which was able to the programming contract enter a blocktime agreement with Viva Entertainment, generating around P100 million in revenue for this year.

Drilon, however, explained that out of the 213 RPN employees, about half have accepted termination benefits. "They were informed. It was a very difficult decision to make, but given the financial condition of RPN-9, there was really no choice but to undertake a retrenchment program," Drilon said.

House to review IBC-13 and RPN-9 franchises

Updated December 6, 2012 - 11:05am

MANILA, Philippines - The House of Representatives is set to review the status of two government television stations relative to possible violations of their legislative franchise.

The House of Representatives has approved on second reading House Resolution No. 2854 "directing the House Committee on Legislative Franchise to conduct an investigation, in aid of legislation, on the current status of the International Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), a holder of a legislative franchise under Republic Act 8954, to determine if there are possible violations on its franchise.

Rep. Giorgidi Aggabao (4th District, Isabela), principal author of the resolution asked the committee to summon their officials to shed light on the matter.

Aggabao said IBC has entered into an agreement with several companies like Vintage Television (VTV), which later merged with Viva Television in 2000 covering the Philippines Basketball Association (PBA).

On the other hand, RPN Channel 9, has entered into a joint venture with Solar Entertainment Corp. in January 2011, he said.

Aggabao further noted that Kitchie Benedicto, daughter of Roberto Benedicto an alleged Marcos crony, is the owner of a 34-percent minority share in RPN-9. Nation (Article MRec), pagematch: 1, sectionmatch: 1 Records show that Congress granted IBC-13 a new 25-year legislative franchise under Republic Act 8954 on June 5, 2011. The network now have a programming contract through block-time agreement with Viva Entertainment to air the new primetime programming block Viva-TV, featuring top-rating, award-winning shows genres form movies, cartoons, anime, drama series, reality, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports events while renamed the branding as the Kapinoy network. IBC remains undisputed No.3, next to ABS-CBN and GMA Network.

The lawmaker added that IBC Channel 13 also entered into a joint venture agreement with Prime Realty, an affiliate of R-II Builders Group of Reghis Romero for the development of 3.5 hectares Broadcast City.

Aggabao noted that RA 8954 provides that “the grantee shall not lease, transfer, grant the usufruct of, sell, nor assign this franchise or the rights and privileges acquired thereunder to any person, form, company, corporation or entity, nor shall the controlling interest of the grantee be transferred, whether as a whole or in parts and whether simultaneously or contemporaneously, to any such person, firm or company, corporation or entity without the prior approval of the Congress of the Philippines. Any person or entity to which this franchise is sold, transferred or assigned, shall be subject to the same conditions, terms restrictions and limitations of this Act.”

During the administration of then President Cory Aquino, the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) sequestered both IBC and RPN in favor of the government by virtue of being owned by the Benedicto family.

Even with the existence of joint venture agreements with private enterprises, Aggabao said the government is inclined to privatize both the IBC and RPN and retain the People’s Television (PTV, Channel 4) as the sole-mandated government TV network.

Recently, the station has persuaded Viva-TV to all the two-minute commercial break-spots during the primetime as well as the 11 p.m. to 12 midnight slot and even waive the Domsat charges the station is supposed to pay.

Being a sequestered-television network IBC with its innovative and creative core intact, which showing full-length Tagalog blockbuster films on primetime and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 producing shows as Iskul Bukol, Chicks to

IBC Teams Up with Globe Telecom and PLDT on Media Convergence Deal

September 5, 2013

The official beginning of media convergence in the country is made possible by the historic partnership Kapinoy Convergence, PLDT and Globe Telecom. From left to right: Kapinoy Convergence president & managing director Marlo Carlo Nepomuceno, IBC chairman Eric Canoy, Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT) president and CEO Napoleon L. Nazareno, Globe Telecom president & CEO Ernest Cu, and Globe senior adviser for consumer business Peter Bithos.

Signaling its foray into the telco business, television network IBC-13, through Kapinoy Convergence Inc., recently announced its intent to launch a new mobile brand that will harness Globe Telecom and the Philippine's largest telecommunications company Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company (PLDT) infrastructure. The new mobile brand will have its own set of services including IBC-branded SIM cards that are powered by Globe and the telephone that are powered by PLDT. Apart from mobile Internet, SMS, cellphone and voice, IBC-13's service will grant users access to the TV network's new exciting programs through mobile devices like smartphones, telephones and tablets. For more information, read the following press release.

IBC Pioneers Media Convergence

Canoy-owned Kapinoy Convergence ushers in the media convergence era in the Philippines with the expansion of its telecommunications business via a network sharing agreement with Globe Telecom and PLD.

This groundbreaking partnership, which converges two separate industries, enables IBC-13 - the country's largest sequestered media and entertainment conglomerate – to deliver The Kapinoy Network content and offer traditional telecoms services, telephones and mobile devices.

In a press conference, Kapinoy Convergence president and managing director Marlo Carlo Nepomuceno said this newest pioneering move from the 53-year old company aims to create a new experience for Filipinos by expanding their access to IBC-13 content on telephone and mobile devices.

"We have come to realize that the telephone and mobile internet is going to become one of the most important platforms for delivering content to our audiences. We believe that in the same way television revolutionized the mass market's ability to receive information and entertainment, the wireless internet will be the next most important medium for our audience. Very soon, our Kapinoys will enjoy special shows, receive our news, and interact with our stars from anywhere and anytime they want, through tablets, telephones and cellphones," Nepomuceno said.

Globe Telecom CEO Ernest Cu commended the partnership, saying it will create a new market for mobile users. PLDT president Napoleon L. Nazareno commended the partnership, also will creative a new market for telephone.

He said, "We are happy that PLDT and Globe is once again at the forefront of a pioneering effort. We entered this partnership to provide Filipinos with more reasons to enjoy their telephones and mobile phones. The exclusive content that IBC-13 will provide ushers in a new form of entertainment for telephones and mobile users in the Philippines. We are now seeing the gains of our network modernization and IT transformation initiatives, having new capabilities to enter into these businesses to showcase our strength and leadership.”

Through the network-sharing agreement, PLDT and Globe will provide capacity and coverage on its existing cellular mobile telephony network and telecommunications network to Kapinoy Convergence on a nationwide basis. The parties may also share assets such as servers, towers, and switches.

This is not the first time that INC-13 has ventured into new media territory in order to deliver its programs and other content to its viewers. In the 2010s, IBC-13 launched GlobalIBC.ph, the first video-streaming site that carries ibc content intended for Filipinos abroad. Recently, IBC-13 also introduced its free video streaming website for Philippine residents, WatchPhilippines, which has revolutionized the viewing habits of Filipinos by allowing them to watch IBC programs on demand. Nepomuceno maintained the best is still yet to come for Filipinos, who remain to be the network’s inspiration in coming up with world-class programs and innovative ways of delivering content.

“IBC-13 has always been about delivering Filipino content to our audiences over the platforms that are most innovative and relevant to them,” he explained. “This is also another milestone in our transition from being predominantly a broadcast company to becoming a complete media enterprise, reaching our audiences on television and anymedium that is important and relevant to them.”

IBC-13, exuding the pioneering spirit that has become a trademark of Canoy-owned companies, was also in the forefront and is well ahead in preparing for the Philippines’ switch to Digital Terrestrial Television with test broadcast activities being conducted in different parts of the nation.

It has also set a template for media organization expansion, as it has successfully spread out its business from radio and TV broadcasting to also print, licensing, events, and telecommunications.

"We want to masses of viewers compared to the core viewers of ABS and GMA," he added.

"New programs should appeal to the mass-based audience, something that would be more aggressive," Boots said. Added although he said these could involve more dramas, comedies, variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows. These plans, she said, would help IBC-13 post a profit through the years. Parodies Edit

Current Edit

- Good Burger - a sketch that took place at a fast food restaurant. The cashier, Ed played by Martin Escudero was portrayed as a clueless who always found a way to mess things up. A notable quote from Good Burger, stated by Mart in every episode, was "Welcome to Good Burger, home of the good burger, can I take your order?" When not dealing with a customer, he would bang on the cash register while singing "I'm a dude, she's a dude, he's a dude, 'cause we're all dudes. HEY!" Frequent customers include: Bernie Kibbitz (BJ Forbes), Lester Oaks, Construction Worker (Keempee De Leon), and Connie Muldoon (Gee-Ann Abrahan).
- Cooking ni Danny and Mardy - A sketch starring Kim Gantioqui and Empoy Marquez. Every now and then, When Cooking With Randy and Mandy started, the two greeted each other with "Hi, Danny," and "Hi, Mardy." The two played a duo named Randy and Mandy, who had their own cooking show on the fictional channel 106B. Every recipe concocted by the duo always contained massive amounts of chocolate (for example: spaghetti smothered in chocolate syrup). The only reason they had chocolate for every recipe is only because they are obsessed with chocolate. In one sketch, Randy gets in a hot tub that, instead of water, contains liquid chocolate.
- The Inconvenience Store - Featured two "hoodrats" named Laneesha (Kim Gantioqui) and Latanya (Keempee De Leon) who work in a convenience store called Quick & Fast. They were loud and had a tendency to be rude to customers, and even verbally berated someone who tried to rob the store (AJ Muhlach). Latanya's arch-nemesis was Latasha (Meg Imperial). At the end of the sketches, Latanya would say "It's time to get our freak on!" and dance to Miami bass music.
- Vital Information - a sketch in which Dennis Padilla ridiculous sayings, usually three in a row.
- Bayabas News - Featured Brenda Stone (Alex Gonzaga), a rather obnoxious news anchorwoman, and Ray Borealis (AJ Muhlach), a weatherman who was often put into dangerous places to report the weather as well as business news, police reports, showbiz news and foreign news.
- Channel 3 ½ Sports - Featured two sports casters, Jack Suntay (Kim Gantioqui). Neither are related to each other. The pair would usually have events at Dullmont Jr. High School (i.e., A girl (Cristine Reyes) trying to sit next to the popular kids during lunch, a boy (Martin Escudero) trying to finish a test, and a guy (Keempee De Leon) trying to ask a girl (Ella Cruz) to dance with him). A reporter named Bo Stallion (Empoy Marquez) and a coach (Alex Gonzaga) also appeared in the sketches.

- Lahat ng Free Store - A sketch that took place in a store where everything is free, which is a rip-off. However, an item must be brought to the register to be purchased, which contradicts the "free items" theme of the store. An example of this is Danny finding a watch and after hearing that it's free, walks towards the exit and is accused of shoplifting. Also, items are not returnable.
- Know Your Stars - A sketch that gave facts and info about a Viva stars guest. The sketch involved a random voice that made a mockery of individual cast members or guest stars with embarrassing, wacky, funny, but untrue facts.
- Cab Driver - Starred AJ Muhlach as Zigfried, an incompetent taxi cab driver who would pick up various people. He would often sing "OL-LAY", annoy the passengers while driving, and call angry drivers "KUMQUAT!". One memorable sketch would be when the passengers were Coraleen Waddell and Heart Evangelista reprising their roles. The passengers would never get to their destination and would fall out of the cab at the end of the sketch.
- Sugar and Coffee - Featured Buzz (Gerald Pesigan) and Kaffy (Ella Cruz), who were hosts of a show called "Sugar and Coffee". As the title suggests, the pair was extremely hyperactive, as they constantly ate pure sugar and drank massive amounts of coffee. They would force their guests to do the same thing from giant orbs of sugar and coffee attached to the ceiling, which usually led to overactivity in the worst way. In the final series, they left their usual talk show set, and interrupted proceedings in such places as a school or hospital. Their catchphrase was "lower those orbs!" This was the first full-length sketch to feature the new cast, and was the most frequently.
- Cristine Chat - A sketch that featured Cristine Reyes, host of her own late-night show "where the chat hits the fan!" Stacy always booked exciting guests, including pro skater Paulo Avelino. Unfortunately, the guest would never do anything exciting, and often told long, boring stories (in the case of Tony Hawk, he wanted to discuss the joy of knitting). During those boring stories, Cristine would do something distracting to the guest, interrupting his/her story. When Cristine got tired of the guest, she would scream "BORING!" and press a button on her desk. The guest's chair would then eject them, sending him or her flying out the window. In one memorable sketch, after Cristine launched someone, she went to sit down...unintentionally falling on the floor when trying to sit on her chair and causing everyone on set to laugh uncontrollably, including Giovonnie herself.
- Trashin' Fashion - Starred Nadine Lustre and Shy Carlos as Carlee and Marlee, two girls with a "passion for trashin' fashion!" The two would report live from various high school related events, such as a dance or a party. Carlee and Marlee would walk around the room and mock everyone's clothing choices but their own. AJ would sometimes appear as the special "Nerd Correspondent." One notable sketch featured Carlee and Marlee making fun of police officers in too-small uniforms!

- several commercial parodies

Former Edit

- Ask Ashley (until 2011) - a sketch starring Anne Curtis as a pretty girl named Ashley, who offered advice from her bedroom on a TV series. She was sweet and friendly until she read letters sent in by clueless viewers. After reading a letter, Ashley would go on a violent tirade against the letter's author (although in one scene did act normal, but that was after she read a letter from a boy who asked why he was being ignored, and Ashley does just that after she picks up another letter!). Her characteristic phrase, "Thaaaaat's me!" during the sketch became one of the sketch's trademarks. (In later sketches, children in the audience could be heard saying it with her.) The first letter that Ashley ever read was written by somebody who had no idea how to turn their peanut butter and jam sandwich over (her mother put the jelly on the wrong side and Ashley yelled "TURN THE STINKING SANDWICH OVER!!!!").
- Whatevrrrr! (until 2011) - A sketch starring Cristine Reyes and Yassi Pressman as Gina and Jessica. They played a pair of loud, ditzy valley girls who hosted their own television show. The duo commonly talked about very materialistic things, such as broken fingernails, and their obsession with Dino Imperial. This sketch, like "Cooking With Randy And Mandy", aired on channel 106B, and in addition had a set change and theme sketches, sometimes with famous people like PBA superstar James Yap. One of the sketches was on the 100th episode when Gina threw a surprise birthday party for Jessica which she bring out a birthday cake with the XLR8 on it. Gina gave Jessica a present Marvin Agustin after he was dragged off the streets from Gina and then wrap him up as a present who then escape after Jessica thanking Gina. However, Repairman appeared overhearing Jessica, who had just broke her fingernails, and started to wreck the whole "Whatevrrrr" set which ended with him breaking the camera.

Now, the government-sequestered network becomes a commercial station which is expected to generate revenues from commercial placements. That is a big, since the sequestered now has to compete with giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7 including TV5, which have cornered all the commercial placements in broadcast. Not only that, IBC-13 also has to come up with programs we can appreciate. All that cost millions.

Now, the spirit of these powerhouse line-up in homegrown shows are here again with the all-new shows on IBC-13, which is the government-sequestered TV and radio network media and the local number 3 station in the country, prompting other channels to jump into the game-wagon and chasing the privatization.

"IBC-13 is on top of the CDE market's shopping list," he reports. He ventures into comparisons to entice the private sector to invest about the government networks and plans to privatize the sequestered networks.

Boots Anson-Roa, the appointment the president Noynoy Aquino III administration of PNoy, is just signed to head IBC-13 president and CEO and the top honcho. The network was then being beset by gigantic deficits, low morale and labor unrest began gradually paying its debts, and such tempering the unrest among its labor sector. Under Boots, IBC-13, for the first time, started making gains in viewership dominance as well. It also reaching the number 3 position among Philippine TV networks at the some point.

Strong validation program is to copy another TV station in the aforementioned program to be able to maintain their ratings. Also, re-introduce another first in Philippine TV, the first ever Taiwanovela Amazing Twins and Love You in Taiwan in the addition to the roster of telenovela La Madrastra and the popular and top-rating Koreanovelas are Flower Boy Ramen Shop and My Love Patzzi.

"Before," he relates, "The Kapinoy Network duplicated the ABS-CBN and GMA's target market, the masses. " Today, he notes how things have changed for the better. The shift to the massive CDE market. Advertisers are now plunking in their precious budgets. Now, they realize that The Kapinoy Network target one and all the same massive Filipino audience as much as 100 percent growth rate.

" Not only have they placed third in having the most audience share but also more importantly, he said, "in some time blocks, we are even beating the competition and we've become number one."

The network that brought to Filipinos the hit tokusatsu and sentai series will now offers Kamen Rider Fourze and Sky Ranger Gavan, and more anime hits like Ghost Fighter, Time Quest, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin, the hit Mexican telenovela La Madrastra and the imports of asianovelas in Korea and Taiwan such as Flower Boy Ramen Shop, Amazing Twins, Love You and My Love Patzzi.

He was specifically referring to its innovative program with a hit fantaserye Janella in Wonderland top-billed by a teen darling sweetheart princess Janella Salvador which now became number 1 in its primetime timeslot continues to draw wider audiences and is consistently in the Top 15 shows in Mega Manila and nationwide after coming home from school and work will be delighted viewers, a drama series Your Heart, My Love starring the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto, box-office action star Raymart Santiago and Christopher de Leon, become the number 1 teleserye and a smash hit Crazy Little Thing Called Love, a romantic kilig-serye starring the drama princess Cristine Reyes and primetime prince Dingdong Dantes, which is also the number 1 slot beating competition. The hit sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief starring Jod Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, continues to draw wider audiences and is consistently in the Top 15 shows in Mega Manila and nationwide following the ratings so high on rising every week response to their insistent popular demand.

It is indeed an achievement that the IBC team and IBC Board of Directors managed to beat competition at primetime and Ocampo Cruz attributes this to the commitment and passion their team has adhered to since they launched in March 1, 1960. "We are committed to continually give our audience innovative, creative core intact and highly-entertaining programs and have consistently challenged the status-quo in the TV landscape," Cruz explained. IBC-13, which has identified its Filipino masses and found its market in the young and progressive Pinoys, has effectively differentiated themselves from rival networks by churning out programs that are not only entertaining but connect to their audiences as well.

The reality show for the national singing contest Born to be a Superstar with Anja Aguilar as the host with Paula Bianca, Sam Concepcion, Joey Albert and Gino Padilla as the judges to be relaunched the Kapinoy singing champions of superstars Veejay Aragon, Cayleen Villamor as the grand winner, Ronald Humarang and Anne Bernardo in drawing in viewers every weekend. Primetime popular and top-rated game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? with host Robi Domingo and The Million Second Quiz hosted by Drew Arellano, continues to draw in viewers every week because according to a regular watcher every weekend, Jen Ongaria, "I find the show interesting and the cast seems to have rapport already so there is a certain chemistry among them." So is their top-rating program series Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love increase its ratings. Lyn Balmonde of Universal Robina Corp. admits to being a fan of the program way before it became number one. "I find it very entertaining and the comments from the superstars are very amusing as well," Lyn said. The phenomenon began in IBC-13 one of their commitment to innovation and breakthrough in the Philippine entertainment industry of the country.

With these new set of programs, The Kapinoy Network aims to stay competitive with two giant networks by sticking to the core values of the network which are, according to Mr. Lito-- innovative, relevant, and spirited.

Breaking the duopoly in Philippine TV takes a lot of hard work and IBC needs to continuously challenge their top competitors. In so doing, Lito sees the need to be more keen and attuned to the pulse of its audience and "by going boldly into adjacent territories where we feel the next big thing will spring from." Evangelista is can did enough to admit that the immediate challenge to hurdle at this point is "how to break the status quo of media spending allocations." He admits that for the longest time, clients and agencies alike have been comfortable in their media plans, allocating their spending behind ABS-CBN and GMA 7.

According to Evangelista, "The Kapinoy Network is set to challenge this way of thinking given that we have been getting new Pinoy esque and drawing in new and fresh viewers."

With these new offerings, IBC-13 aims to be the pioneering authority when it comes to presenting the latest, most exciting, and most talked-about shows on Philippine TV today, said Lito.

IBC's presence felt in the Philippine television industry provides viewers with genuine alternatives in place of the status quo where the top channels simply mirror each other's programming. IBC-13, according to him, "can deliver more diversity, affinity and relevance through its programs." He looks forward to the time when advertisers cast their eyes on reaching a wider set of audiences that IBC now reaches. Indeed, The Kapinoy Network has yet to prove that it can regain the '70s, '80s and '90s momentum of those all-Filipino programming in the Philippines began improvement for its facilities.

When asked to enumerate your favorite teleseryes, cited shows fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, soap operas Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love. The said primetime seryes were topbilled by Janella Salvador and Marlo Mortel for fantasy series, Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago for the primetime drama series, and Cristine Reyes and Dingdong Dantes for the romantic dramedy established bankable love teams like that, respectively made household names.

What could be no.1 in among Filipinos, who, as the moment, also over the telenovela and Asianovela craze.

Now that Filipino viewers have taken to heart this newest player in the TV landscape, IBC-13 is set and poised to shake the industry even more as it marks its second year with bolder, bigger and better Filipino programming. "We're setting new milestones each week as evidenced by our strong uptrend in all the day parts and this we owe our viewers," Lito said. Indeed, this new player has shaken and stirred the competition and the people are starting to look up and take notice.

Docu-musical for IBC-13's 54th anniversary

June 1, 2014

These must be a brewing in Broadcast City will affect the Philippine television industry with Channels 9 and 13 in the battle of networks goes into high gear.

Meanwhile, IBC-13 is building an image as the network for interesting specials. With the resurgence for IBC with that Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino and Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, the music video-style station ID with their situation as the government-sequestered network struggling with programming, to the point of challenge for the No.3 spot behind ABS-CBN and GMA.

Boots Anson-Roa, president and CEO and Eric Canoy, the newest chairman, for the big reunion special for all former IBC talents and stars from 1975 to 1990's as Homecoming Kapinoy, the restoration of their professional relationship with Viva Communications, Inc. and Asian Television Content (ATC).

The local television industry is now buzzing with activity with the 3 networks will now joined into the network war once again. ABS-CBN and GMA-7 both also still the number 1 station as well. IBC-13, the country's undisputed and certified number 3 station, is reviewing recently its present programming has relaunched its new season offensive with a revitalized roster of programs, making sure it will continue to dominate the charts of Channels 2 and 7. RPN-9 and TV5, is still the number 3 spot, are likewise taking a good, hard look at their programs to see how they can improve their ratings and their positions. PTV-4, is in there slugging away, this time with even more enthusiasm, having finally entered the magic circle.

The 54th anniversary celebration of the Kapinoy network, IBC-13 will be highlighted with a two-hour docu-musical extravaganza Homecoming Kapinoy: Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, which will be shown on June 1, at 11 p.m.-1 a.m. on Sunday Sinemaks. The TV special, according to IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi, is "a kaleidoscopic celebration of 54 years of hallmark entertainment with the men and women who made the greatest contributions in the birth of the Kapinoy Network featuring all past and present IBC stars."

Homecoming Kapinoy: Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 will feature the special Kapinoy video appearances of a one and only megastar Sharon Cuneta, Jimmy Fabregas, Ces Quesada, Tito Sotto, Vic Sotto and Joey de Leon, Panky de Leon, Lito Pimentel, Lolit Solis, Val Sotto, Jimmy Santos, Spanky Rigor, Maribeth Bichara, Sheryl Cruz, Bert de Leon, Alma Moreno, Miguel Rodriguez, Zsa Zsa Padilla, Gloria Diaz, Gabby Concepcion, Joe Quirino, Rico J. Maria, Richard Yap, Ramon Bautista, Abra, the group gang TODAS Boys (Keempee de Leon, Sam YG, Victor Anastacio, Jimmy Muna and Elmo Magalona), Robi Domingo, Anja Aguilar, Drew Arellano, Iya Villania, Marvin Ong, Giselle Sanchez, Freddie Webb, Dingdong Avanzado, Lani Misalucha, Maxene Magalona, Ryan Agoncillo and the newest Kapinoy singing champions from Born to be a Superstar are Joshua Cadelina, Cayleen Villamor, Veejay Aragon, Anne Bernardo, Ronald Humarang, Arvin Ventanilla and Shanne Velasco together with IBC-13 president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa.

The 54th anniversary celebration of IBC-13 will start last February 1 with a whole day medical mission as the station's studios and transmitter.

We predict that IBC-13 will be the trendsetter this season with other stations taking the cue from the "Superstar Network" and the branding of The Kapinoy Network. Already, Channel 13 has come up with a bevy of pure local shows, clearly positioning itself as a station for the so-called mass TV audience.

Channel 13's schedule this season indicates major reprogramming efforts. The idea is to shake loose from being at bottom runs. As they say, shoot for the world.

One interesting program bound to rock the industry is Express Balita, the station's primetime news program on Philippine TV, anchored by Henry Omega-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go. This news program, produced by the CMMA winners for best news program will not only feature the day's top stories and headlines but also more more sensational items reserved as well, even a public service portion.

There are many other shows which we expect the audience will enjoy, including three major ones produced by no other less than Vic del Rosario, Jr. of Viva Entertainment and Laurenti Dyogi of IBC Entertainment TV.

Congratulations to the production crew of IBC-13 on the relaunching last Saturday, with special motion to Mark Reyes who directed the telecast. The three-hour extraaganza during It's Partytime at the Marikina Sports Center showed us that stuff the Kapinoy Network is made of. While there were here and there like missed cues and abrupt cutting to commercial, these were major.

The different IBC superstars and talents as hosts was a fine idea and dominated the show. It was indeed a group effort, an IBC effort. There is a trend towards collective action. Indeed, if there is strength in unity, the Kapinoy network is bound to grow stronger with time.

About the show Edit

YouTube sensation Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak is taking her crazy antics to the next level. 2012 has brought nothing but whirlwind blessings to Petra.

Her first reaction? "Naloka ako." She wasn't expecting things to turn out this way and this quick. "I've only been here for few months pero nabigyan na ko ng opportunity to have my own show, which I think is good kasi mas mapapagaling yung, mapapagaling talaga... I mean, mas magiging okay yung pagiging host ko. Kasi maganda nga maging host tapos actress. Very versatile diba? Kasi I can do comedy and other stuff so this will be a good practice for me." Aside from being a host, she also be impersonating other movie characters. "Kunwari diba yung movie sa isang scene, gagayahin ko. Parang No Other Woman, parang what I did on my YouTube videos. Pero yung tutorial, maybe next time."

Petra is also privileged to be directed by former Child Wonder Niño Muhlach, whom she describes as "baliw" just like her. "Isa pang baliw. Kaya... masaya naman yung shoot, medyo ngarag kami. But it's fun kasi it's not that serious. Hindi rin siya yung talagang terror na director, which is good. Medyo nare-relax din ako sa kanya."

The showbiz is a whole new world for Petra. A few months ago, she was only singing and acting inside her bathroom... alone. This time, she has to work with a director and a team.

"Sa totoo lang nag-a-adjust pa rin ako kasi before, ako yung in control of everything. Like yung camera, my own time, my own script. Everything ako lang, sarili ko lang yung inaalala ko. But now, parang talagang production siya. Andun yung pressure eh."

"It's just that nape-pressure ka kasi sa'kin nakasalalay yung time na mga tao. And of course, gusto kong matapos na and may pagka-perfectionist din ako. I want everything to look nice, hindi yung minadali. But at the same time, ang hirap din. Basta it's hard but I'm still adjusting."

But this 'panny' girl is ready to face all challenges, just like how she won 1M pesos in the AXE Anarchy Raid. She vows to just do her best and never give up. "Ito yung ginusto ko. Kakayanin ko."

December 19, 2013

Following the success of its counter-programming strategy in its Panalo Weekend programs, HapoNation and PrimeTastik primetime block, IBC-13 continues to do away with traditional television programming this 2014 and dares to be different with its own variety of program offerings for the whole family of superstars from programming audience have gotten used to all these years. IBC perhaps the country's top network in the country, home to the Viva Tagalog movies, station-produced local sitcoms and the PBA and NBA basketball continued to be revenue and repetitive programs.

With the network still following the MTRCB ratings guidelines. Now, dares to be different with a different kind of all-Filipino programming that is absolutely different that IBC is also still a certified number 3 behind the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA Network, based on Kantar Media survey.

The Kapinoy network begins the year with a bang with its daily programs that are both surprising and out-of-the-box. Coming from the success of the daily primetime teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love, the love-team are the return of the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and the box-office action star-turned-primetime Raymart Santiago will carry on to the daily romantic teleserye Your Heart, My Love. In this series, Claudine and Raymart will play a one-of-a-kind romantic action drama who cons her way to the world of the rich and famous by put together a family and friends.

Aside from Your Heart, My Love, IBC introduces yet another innovation to Filipino television programming when it launches the first-ever fantasy operas on Philippine primetime. Fusing elements of traditional fantasy and myth, high-tech television production methods, and the scope and polish of IBC's legendary teleserye projects, another first is in the offing from the country's pioneer in broadcasting IBC. As it revolutionizes once more the drama genre, the giant network will be airing the 2 new fantaseryes are the local adaptation of Mexican hit telenovela Carita de Angel, an inspirational fantasy drama starring the highly-acclaimed child wonder Mutya Orquia and Janella in Wonderland, a first kind of mermaid tale fantaserye highlights its drama with breathtaking locations, underwater scenes, islands and up-to-date special effects. Janella in Wonderland top-billed by the newst teen star of Kapinoy primetime princess Janella Salvador as the lead role herself with outstanding cast of the hottest young celebrities today with powerful veteran actors and actresses and introduces the next generation of stars.

Further, the network will also have a Philippine adaptation of hit Korean drama Save the Last Dance for Me top-billed by the love-team Khalil Ramos and Sue Ramirez.

IBC will be focusing on talent development in 2014 so these superstars a big break in mini-series I Will Be Here, which is just one of the new shows that was presented to the press by IBC executive Laurenti Dyogi, who officially announced all their plans for 2014. They're the first top network to bare their new year plans. Dyogi says they'll offer vertical programming of quality shows each day compared to the horizontal programming of their rival networks whose primetime blocks have in soaps each weeknight.

Meanwhile, IBC-13 will offer its audience also dares to offer more than the daily 30-minute teleseryes through providing hour-long dramas that promise to be bold, intriguing and game-changing every night. Starting this January, Joanna Morales, Lucas Zamora, Aki Torio, Meg Imperial, Nel Gomez, Coleen Garcia, Ella Cruz and Juan Miguel Urquico will star in Ghost Busters, a horror drama in a suspense, thriller and paranormal format about the ghost and roll of zombies with that was presented to the press by IBC-13 exec Laurenti Dyogi who officially announced all their plans for 2014. They're the first top network to bare their new year plans. Meanwhile, the horror anthology series called Shake, Rattle and Roll based on the movie franchise and produced by Regal Television and Regal Multimedia, Inc.

Mr. Dyogi says they'll offer vertical programming of innovative and quality shows each day compared to the horizontal programming of their rival networks whose primetime blocks with soaps each weeknight.

A whole new season of reality, game, talk and talent shows also comes to IBC-13 with more surprises, shake-ups and much more at stake. Robi Domingo's successful game show The Million Second Quiz gets extended for another season, along with Tessie Tomas and Joey Marquez's talk show Joey & Teysi and the reality singing-search show Born to be a Superstar hosted by Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Marvin Ong and Khalil Ramos with a judges are Dingdong Avanzado, Paula Bianca, Gino Padilla and Joey Albert. Well-loved IBC-13 programs such as SM Little Stars, to name a few, will also make a showcase to the Kapinoy network. The network will also launch exciting new game shows, some adaptations from hit foreign game shows and some Kapinoy originals.

Giselle Sanchez and Ian Veneracion hosting the local version of the US game show Don't Forget the Lyrics!, the show's contestants compete to win P1,000,000 by correctly recalling song lyrics from a variety of genres with a multi-million budget and bigger prizes at stake for two million pesos. The primary difference between Don't Forget the Lyrics and other music-based game shows is that artistic talent (such as the ability to sing or dance in an aesthetically pleasing way) is irrelevant to contestants' chances of winning. In the words of one of their commercials prior to the first airing, "You don't have to sing it well; you just have to sing it right." In addition to all these exciting shows, IBC-13 will officially launch more than original made-for-television movies will air every Tuesday nights starring cinemas' biggest and most iconic stars. Never-before-seen films and ensembles, as well as much-awaited unforgettable match-ups come together in 13 Original Movie on Philippine television. Anja Aguilar to host her own show on IBC-13

Born to be a Star host Anja Aguilar with the official judges are Gino Padilla, Joey Albert, Paula Bianca and Dingdong Avanzado

Sequestered TV station IBC 13, the undisputed number 3 leading TV network in the Philippines, which has a blocktime partnership with Viva Entertainment as Viva-TV for a primetime block from 5:00 pm to 12:00 midnight.

Such was what transpired at the Grand Ballroom of The Diamond Hotel on September 28, when Viva-TV on IBC gathered its biggest stars, network officials and the print media to a night of entertainment, competitions, raffle draws, huge prizes and of course, lots of fun and excitement.

A certified singing champion Anja Aguilar will now host her own show on the Kapinoy network IBC-13. Patterned after the internationally famous reality program Born to be a Star is the newest addition to the line-up in fast-growing lineup of top-rating shows that includes the game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link. The program is expected to open doors for aspiring talented artists with a singing contest.

We will enhance their new talents and help them perform better, like padadamitan, palalagyan ng make-up, kung kailangan ng back-up singers or dancers o di kaya'y puwedeng mas pagandahin pa ang kanilang areglo o arrangement, we will help them do that,” Anja explained yesterday at a presscon held at Viva-TV which is producing the reality show to become the next Born to be a Star. Our main edge will be the production value of the show. This group has the big budget for it.

Announced as Viva-TV’s host for its newest franchised TV show, the Born to be a Star format is the latest creation of worldwide production company Endemol. It is a proven international primetime ratings hit, with the show scoring a large percentage of the audience share in the United States and America for the future superstar.

Born to be a Star, the latest host to Anja’s lap this September, will start airing in September 30 on IBC 13. Born to be a Star is a smash hit creation of Mentorn International, the global production and distribution production company Endemol. The contest gives talented artists from 12 years old up a chance to display their creative flairs like their favorite stars for one night. Once chosen, they will be given makeovers, musical arrangements, back-up dancers if needed in their performances. They will also have a chance to sing with Anja Aguilar. The price at stake is a whopping one million pesos worth of cash and prizes.

A singing champion noted it was a case of deja vu for her, as she recalled that she herself started her singing career in Little Big Star on ABS-CBN. For Anja, hosting this kind of reality show would mean being able to help new singers on their road to fame and fortune, payback time for her. The network signed a contract with Endemol to gain rights of its franchise of Born to be a Star.

"I'd like others to get the kind of breaks that helped me get started as a singer. This is my chance to help and I'm sure that we will find a new stars in the show," Anja averred.

Born to be a Star, the American television newest sensation will be seen on IBC-13 with its local version hosted by Anja Aguilar this September 30 every Sunday. In between awards and prizes, Viva-TV proclaimed its all-new shows and timeslots on IBC. On Sundays, teen drama anthology Dear Heart at 2:30 p.m., 2NE1-TV at 3:30 p.m., the PBA Philippine Cup premieres at 4 p.m. for the basketball fans, the Born to be a Star right after, and Christopher de Leon's game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? at 9:30 p.m.

Since young stars from ABS-CBN and GMA freely appear in Viva-TV shows on IBC. "We are excited for the exclusive offerings that they have for the TV viewers, one of which is that all of my upcoming songs will be first played on The Kapinoy Network with a theme song of jingle for words and music, and unveiling of IBC's new 2014 logo sung the song for the TV and radio plug.

Meanwhile, watch out for the special TV launch of The Kapinoy Network in It's Partytime this Sunday (April 6), featuring the introduction of Kapinoy talents and superstars and a special production number.

Stance

The relaunching signifies the network's stance in pushing its "all-Filipino" programming strategy format, over the competition fever behind the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

In his speech, IBC chairman Eric Canoy stressed the station's mission "to become the true bearer and herald of good news." Citing a recent survey that showed that 80% of Filipinos would opt to live abroad for the simple reason that they are hope in the future of this country, Canoy stated, "Positive and concrete steps are undertaken now to arrest our people, we might wake up one day to a shattered nation."

Massive

Daunting as it may seem, he continued, The Kapinoy Network is seeking to carve a mass of its own Filipino audience by providing news and current affairs programs that are ennobling, edifying, and encourage a more positive and optimistic outlook for the future.

Fans of sports programs and seeks to build upon by a new area for loyal TV viewers, that of high-quality local entertainment by producing shows whose formats have a proven track record of huge success.

"Our power, as media practitioners, to mold and influence the minds and hearts of our Filipino people, specially the youth of today, is awesome. Let us then make full use of this power, coupled with responsibility and accountability to God and country," he said. It will be recalled that after the EDSA Revolution in 1986, IBC underwent a change of management, from a private family enterprise to a government entity. "The transition was difficult," recounted Cano, "for it came with numerous labor cases, property claims, and ownership disputes, which partially tied up and sapped the resources of the network."

Today, while the Kapinoy network continues to face new challenges and difficulties in its corporate life, Canoy reports that the station is also currently the number 3 TV station in the country since 1996.

Mission

True to its mission, Kapinoy shows are Pinoy-friendly, homegrown and powerhouse programming in the landscape, while remaining entertaining as well the block timers of Viva Television.

"Viva's entry is very significant for us." It made us the most financially stable among the government-owned networks like RPN-9 and PTV-4. We also gained more viewers."

The Kapinoy Network now supplements its monthly income with its earnings from Viva and other block timers, as well as with RPN-9's rental of the facilities like Solar. It helps that the new IBC-13 chair is also a broadcaster and is a chair of the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP) from its employees union, there is now industrial peace at IBC-13, according to Canoy.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13 recently became more aggressive in surging ahead in the ratings manages to keep up with the network battle despite the dominance of giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Drew Arellano, Elmo Magalona, Anja Aguilar and Robi Domingo, host four different primetime show, all originating from the United States.

Drew Arellano, the country's popular primetime winner prince has been hosting The Million Second Quiz for almost 8 months. The famous quiz show based on the original American series with the same name, the quiz is set in a huge hourglass-shaped structure in the entrance to the Studio 4 of IBC studio, houses on the roof of the studio at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, it has revolutionized TV viewing in the country to acquire the franchise of the show.

An indoor set within the studio in portions of the game, as the cast in contestants compete in a quiz competition played 24 hours a day for 1,000,000 seconds, or about eleven and a half days. At any given time, one contestant is sitting in the "Money Chair" and accumulating money, while defending his/her portion against a series of challengers in head-to-head quiz bouts. Although commercials bill the winnings as ₱1 per second spent in the chair — or P36,000 per hour or P864,000 for every day — the rate is actually P1 per tenth of a second; winnings accumulate at a constant rate, even when bouts are not being played and during commercial breaks (prime time). Contestants in the chair earn money until they are defeated by a challenger, who replaces the occupant of the chair. Only the four contestants with the highest total winnings get to keep their money once the million seconds are up.

Each bout lasts for a set number of seconds at the studio contestant. In all bouts, both participants use keypads to secretly lock in their answers and have five seconds to do so after the question is asked.

Killer Karaoke which is a new look as Elmo Magalona hosting the Philippine edition of the popular musical game show from the US. Elmo is expected to bring the show his quick own brand of rapper. This marks a major milestone in the career of the well-known hip-hop, R&B and rock rapper who has also established a career as a TV host. For example, a contestant will sit on a swing while singing a chosen song. He or she will be then dipped into a pool of water filled with snakes and other reptiles. The audience will vote for the contestant who were able to sing well despite the challenges being thrown at them. The local version promises a whole lot of fun as Elmo Magalona adds his own brand of comedy to the already hilarious format as Pinoys now get to participate and try out the game show's nerve-wracking challenges.

The franchise of the phenomenal US show guarantees you a weekly dose of laughter as contestants attempt to sing while facing crazy distractions. Imagine singing while getting your body hair waxed, stepping on spiders and maggots, or walking through a cactus maze (with balloons stuck in your body). That's quite a challenge, but there's only one rule: "No matter what happens, do not stop singing!" it will feature contestants attempting to sing in front of a live studio audience while various attempts are made to disrupt their performances. The final showdown puts the top three contenders on a spinning disc, with the prize money increasing as the turntable speeds up and tilts. The last player standing wins the jackpot. The game show was a success that the Killer Karaoke craze has reached the UK, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, Portugal, Thailand, Argentina, Peru, Brazil, Ecuador, Mexico and now here in the Philippines.

The local version is sure to create a new Filipino pastime: Singing the Killer Karaoke style. What challenges can Pinoy players take on? Which celebrities are adventurous enough to try the sing-and-play surprise? He puts the scare on celebrity contestants and exciting viewer, check out the more exciting musical game show with its new look on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. on IBC. The three preliminary round winners battle against each other for up to P10,000 in prize money while singing on the "World's Largest Turntable," a spinning disk approximately eight feet in diameter and decorated with a radiation warning symbol. The jackpot grows throughout the round; as time passes, the turntable speeds up and begins to tilt, and the jackpot grows at a faster rate. The first two players to fall off win nothing; once the last player falls off, the jackpot stops building and he/she wins it. If the player can stay on the turntable for 90 seconds, he/she wins the full P10,000.

Robi Domingo, the country's primetime prince has been hosting Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? for almost 14th years. The famous quiz show from the UK and US enjoys a stellar selection of presenters all over the world, who are known not only for their hosting flair but also for easy interaction with the contestants and the ability to put into very question. Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? has revolutionized TV viewing in the country, spawned a number of copycats and Robi has a new, very successful career as TV host.

Drew Arellano, Anja Aguilar, Elmo Magalona and Robi Domingo

MANILA, Philippines - The heavy downpour brought by Typhoon Isang to dampen high spirits that rocked the Rockwell Tent at Powerplant Mall recently as IBC-13 celebrated its winning streak, as the third player in the broadcast industry. By challenging the two giant networks in the ratings game, it has secured for itself the number three slot immediately after its launch and continues to do so leading to its 54th year anniversary.

Eric Canoy, the chairman of IBC-13, took to the stage and explained the figures, that supported their ranking against ABS-CBN. "In less than a year, we've placed as the third most watched TV station not only in Manila but in the entire Philippines." Not only have they placed third in having the most audience share but more importantly, he said, "in some time blocks, we are even beating the competition and we've become number one." He specifically referring to its innovative program The Million Second Quiz hosted by Drew Arellano is now the number one game show, Born to be a Superstar which became number one in its primetime timeslot, Killer Karaoke hosted by Elmo Magalona and Who Wants to Be A Millionaire hosted by Robi Domingo, which is also beating competition. Born to be a Superstar hosted by Anja Aguilar, continues to draw wider audiences and is consistently in the Top 25 shows in Mega Manila and nationwide.

It is indeed an achievement that the IBC Board of Directors team managed to beat competition at primetime and Canoy attributes this to the commitment and passion their team has adhered to since they launched in March 1, 1960 and relaunched on February 1, 1975. "We are committed to continually give our audience innovative and highly-entertaining programs and have consistently challenged the status-quo in the TV landscape," Canoy explained. IBC-13, which has identified its niche and found its market in the young and progressive Pinoys, has effectively differentiated themselves from rival networks by churning out programs that are not only entertaining but connect to their audiences as well.

Its family-comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, the drama anthology Sandy's Romance and the all-male gag show Happy TODAS, continues to draw in viewers every week because according to a regular watcher, president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, "I find the show interesting and the cast seems to have rapport already so there is a certain chemistry among them." So is the top-rating primetime programs, The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants to be a Millionaire?. Laurenti Dyogi, head of IBC Entertainment TV admits to being a fan of the program way before it became number one. "I find it very entertaining and the comments from the jurors are very amusing as well," Lyn said.

Breaking the duopoly in Philippine TV takes a lot of hard work and IBC-13 needs to continuously challenge their top competitors. In so doing, Canoy sees the need to be more keen and attuned to the pulse of its audience and "by going boldly into adjacent territories where we feel the next big thing will spring from."

Canoy is candid enough to admit that the immediate challenge to hurdle at this point is "how to break the status quo of media spending allocations."

He admits that for the longest time, clients and agencies alike have been comfortable in their media plans, allocating their spending behind ABS-CBN and GMA-7. According to Canoy, "IBC-13 is set to challenge this way of thinking given that we have been getting new Pinoy viewers and drawing in new and fresh viewers."

IBC-13's presence provides viewers with genuine alternatives in place of the status quo where the top channels simply mirror each other's programming. The Kapinoy Network, according to him, "can deliver more diversity, affinity and relevance through its programs." He looks forward to the time when advertisers cast their eyes on reaching a wider set of audiences that Channel 13 now reaches. Now that Filipino viewers have taken to heart this newest player in the TV landscape, IBC-13 is set and poised to shake the industry even more, marks its 54 year with bolder, bigger and better programming. "We're setting new milestones each week as evidenced by our strong uptrend in all day parts and this we owe our viewers," Canoy said. Indeed, this new player has shaken and stirred the competition and the people are starting to look up.

The most popular game show in the country, is Who Wants To Be A Millionaire hosted by Christopher de Leon, The Weakest Link hosted by Richard Yap, Luis Manzano of Minute to Win It and Kapamilya, Deal or No Deal and Eugene Domingo of Celebrity Bluff each charged P10 per minute per call with each call lasting around the five minutes as well as its Globe cellphones text 8888 will surely profit.

PLDT also noted an increase in the number of subscribers who have activated their basic NDD feature. To date, around 84 percent of total number of subscribers had their NDD feature activated. Meanwhile, the company also saw an increased activation of basic international direct distance (IDD) phone features with around 58 percent of total base having IDD services. PLDT's uniform 40-cents-a-minute IDD rate implemented last February 2000 also helped arrest declining IDD outbound minutes.

It also introduced the first destination specific discounted calling service – the PLDT budget card – which carries a uniform rate of 24 cents per minute for calls to the US, Canada, and Hawaii. The company aims to protect its revenue base this year by coming up with usage-based customer retention programs and implementing a more direct marketing to retain high value customers.

PLDT also intends to increase long distance services, both NDD and IDD, through the introduction of more premium phone services, more budget card variants, continued usage of direct distance dialing activation programs, as well as customer education on product benefits.

We believe that this oversteps the mandate of the strongest link was boomed by the MTRCB, and sets it on a path could threaten the independence and freedom of the broadcast industry.

Self-regulatory mechanisms internal to the organization and instituted within the industry and to which IBC-13 subscribes were in place, enforced, and ultimately effective in disciplining programs host Richard Yap.

MTRCB’s action of placing The Weakest Link under preventive suspension raises the question of what else, other than the disciplining of the anchors, the government aims to achieve. Sir Chief have been sanctioned. What else is there for resolve host against Edu Manzano and Allan K.? A preventive suspension suggests that the continued broadcast of the program would constitute a danger to the viewing public.

There is no such danger. The Weakest Link was conceptualized, produced, and ultimately classified as the top-rating game show. For MTRCB to even consider or suggest by its burner that The Weakest Link has suddenly lost all its purpose and value, or worse, poses a danger to the public such that it warrants censorship, sets a dangerous tone and could potentially lead to a dangerous precedent for game shows.”

IBC 13 privatization

Wednesday, April 9, 2014

In 2010, the National Government, under the administration of President Noynoy Aquino, announced that it will not allowed to sold the network because of the privatize in the government-owned sequestered media network Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC 13). In any case, it's pretty much always been ABS-CBN and GMA making much of the money, with settings for everybody else also-ran position expected to infuse a lot of money into the expansion of its operations and its programs' attractiveness to sponsors and viewers. When that kind of money talks, everybody pays attention.

IBC 13 was the popular TV station among the masses during the '70s to the late '80s and was operated by Roberto Benedicto, who also operated the Radio Philippines Network (RPN 9) and the now-defunct Banahaw Broadcasting Corp. (BBC 2). The privatization deal includes RPN 9, which was sequestered by the government of Corazon Aquino in 1986 during the EDSA Revolution.

Now, it has happened. IBC 13's situation just got more Filipino viewers, in chase of privatization. From the popular TV station in the '70s and '80s will now turned into the country's number 3 television station not only among the masses but also in superstars as well. The network is spans news, information and public service, educational programming, entertainment and sports is now a home of the Viva Tagalog movies, the top-rated Kapinoy shows ranging from teleseryes and fantaseryes, station-produced local sitcoms, gag shows, political satire, variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows, the biggest and brightest talents, idols and superstars, tokusatsu, sentai and animes, telenovelas, asianovelas, and the PBA and NBA basketball.

To recall, last 2000, the private TV network IBC 13 got Viva TV (an entertainment network of Viva Entertainment) as its blocktimer for sports and entertainment at night. But now, as the result in this merger of Channel 13 is IBC looks like the operation broadcast in reinvigorated competitive thrust will be.

The Kapinoy Network, on the other hand, is going to the undisputed, strong and certified number 3 network. It looks like at RPN-9. Although sequestered, RPN 9 performs better because it is currently under Solar Entertainment, a cable TV channel operator.

Even IBC 13's broadcasting workplace, the Broadcast City, in Quezon City, needs to be more viewers once it starts the new phase in its operations, it quickly should become the third player on the TV scene.

The resolution noted that "since its establishment in 1960, IBC Broadcast Media has contributed to the enhancement of the quality of life of the Filipino through responsible educational, entertainment and sports programs that help in the pursuit of sustainable human development."

The kids are crazy over the lovable KapinoyLand on the educational children's show of the same title on IBC. The twins recently flew in from Philippines for special appearances in various National Bookstore outlets as IBC Licensing and Merchandising launched the KapinoyLand merchandise.

Already, booths carrying products like bags, inflammable dolls, beach balls, puzzles, games, stuffed toys, self-inking stamps and school supplies - pencils, erasers, pencil cases and lots more - are almost always crowded with kids with their parents. The same products are also available at SM Department Stores.

In the arrangements being forged with the three companies, The Kapinoy Network will be doing a movie like original tele-movie, short films and box-office films through its movie outfit IBC Films, and recording through its IBC Records. Marketing of products will be through another subsidiary IBC Licensing and Merchandising.

The Kapinoy Network is now in the sixth week of its "54 Years in Days and Nights of Primetime Television and Radio." The vent, which started February 17, features 54 years in days of specials, premieres and films highlighting IBC's role in Philippine broadcasting since its incorporation in 1960. The colorful past of the network will be the theme of the celebration which will showcase various historical features in its top-rating shows. An exciting series of specials both on TV and radio have already been lined up, including the live coverage of the Sochi 2014 Winter Olympics for the games.

Aside from the relaunching of the new primetime shows such as Carita de Angel, Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love already started airing, The Kapinoy Network will also air rare features like a reunion telecast of past IBC anchors on Express Balita on February 17, these posthumous tribute to IBC comedians in the top-rated sitcom Bida si Sir Chief, Bida si Maya and an interview of the Board of Directors, the reunion of IBC stars and talents from 1975 to 1990's featured in the noontime variety show Lunch Break on February 15 and employees of IBC in Linawin Natin on February 17 (Monday).

Today is my last day, May 11, 2012, and I'm so grateful to be part of the number 1 internet danzre urban radio station in the Philippines, iDMZ 891. Oh well, being part of this station is such a wonderful experience most specially when The Sting gave us the opportunity to board on-air. My dream came true even for a short time; a dream that I've always wanted to be heard over someone's radio and even hear myself speaking live. That was so nice and still hoping to be one of the radio jocks one day, or maybe tomorrow, I guess? :) 'Coz I'm planning to apply maybe on the same radio station or on the other one.

"Thanks to my friend for accompanying me in applying for my OJT :) I owe you one"

The two join IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, Cristine Reyes, Erich Gonzales, Nicole Andersson, Amelyn Veloso, Nadine Lustre and Janella Salvador in the top ten list of female Makabata stars.

Henry Omega-Diaz, Mario Maurer, Dingdong Dantes, AJ Muhlach, Vincent Santos, Richard Yap, and Ben Tulfo were included in the roster of male Makabata stars who are deemed as the most wholesome and worth emulating by the youth today.

Meanwhile, RPN's top-rated programs like Arangkada Balita, Newswatch, MBA, Superstar, The Million Peso Money Drop, The Price is Right, Boses Tinig Pinoy, Muling Magmamahal, Pinapangako Mo, Mister Kemis Bayani, Penpen de Sarapen and Roderick en Nova recently names as the Most Well-Liked TV Programs for 2013.

Meanwhile, the Anak TV Seal, which is a seal of good housekeeping on Philippine television, was awarded to programs deemed "wholesome" and "generally child-safe" by the jurors. Among the Kapinoy programs recognized this year are Cyborg Kurochan, Winx Club, KapinoyLand, Mickey Mouse Clubhouse, Kirarin, Once Upon a Time, My Batang Momay and My Friends Tiger & Pooh.

The network's regional programs like newscasts Express Balita Cordillera (Baguio), Express Balita Ilonggo (Iloilo), Express Balita Bisaya (Cebu) and Express Balita Davaoeno (Davao) also received the coveted seals.

Local basketball superstars James Yap and LeBron James, who just recently signed up as the PBA and NBA players, join the station ID.

Heralding the Christmas spirit are personalities who are part of the Kapinoy Network's current roster of entertainment programs including Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, The Weakest Link, Born to be a Superstar, Goin' Bukol Pwede, Happy TODAS, Bida ni Mister, Bida si Misis, Safe in the Arms Of Love, Noli Me Tangere, Before I Fall in Love, the variety show Lunch Break and It's Partytime, and the stars of IBC-13.

More than 70 winners will get to win P1,000 cash and P500 SM Malls gift certificate. Every day, two lucky callers can get a chance to win by tuning in to DZTV Radyo Budyong and iDMZ 891. The callers will be asked on how they can make this Christmas better than the previous ones—just like the message of IBC-13's station ID jingle. The promo runs until December 23.

Merry Kapasko

IBC-13 ran a series of short Christmas-themed vignettes in their commercial breaks to advertise their annual Christmas programming. Each of the shorts featured the characters from the network's IBC shows, often parodying classic Christmas works such as those produced by Rankin/Bass.

Animation were made for station ID spots used on the channel, both in the Rankin/Bass stop-motion style delivering a Christmas gift. These particular animation pieces were also used in bumpers shown whenever the specials themselves went to commercials.

How the You-Know-Who Stole You-Know-Kapinoys!

Starring Erich Gonzales, all the IBC-13 stars of characters in the city of Toonville like Paskohan a lot, with the major exception of Erich as the narration refers to her. The narrator reasons that her hatred for Christmas might be because her pigtails are tied too tight or because she her doll, but apparently the actual reason is because she believes she should have all the chocolate candy to herself.

Grinchelica rides into Toonville on her Malibu Cynthia sleigh, pulled by her cat, and sneaks into the houses to steal all the chocolate goodies. Among them, she steals chocolate figures of Ultralord, Robi Domingo's chocolate drink, Anja Aguilar's chocolate ice cream, Dingdong Dantes' chocolate cake, Nadine Lustre's chocolate star, Richard Yap as chocolate tree, Jodi Sta. Maria's chocolate chalk, and Jake Cuenca's chocolate candy cane that came all the way. Just as Erich has finished her theft, the smallest Toonville citizen, James Yap of PBA, in on her and asks.

Grinchelica returns to her mountain hideout with the stolen chocolates and parks her sleigh on the very top of the mountain. From her vantage point, she stops to think about how the other

IBC stars are going to be disappointed when they wake up on Paskohan morning and find that there's no chocolate for them. But she ultimately decides that she really doesn't care about that, because as far as she's concerned, the candy's all hers.

The Nutcracker Suite

A short performance starring Kapinoy stars of Juan Carlos and Juan Miguel Urquico.

As the Nutcracker Suite begins to play, Juan Carlos and Juan Miguel appear onstage, wearing tutus. Juan Carlos gives Juan Miguel a nut, and he presents him with a cracker. "SWEET!" they both yell, and then toss their given food into their mouths. They then proceed to dance around the stage, while making loud munching noises on their respective snacks to the tune of the music. Briefly appears to sing the last few bars of the music piece, and the pair then swallow their snacks. They take their bows as the offscreen audience throws roses at them.

The Snowman Boy

Starring Mr. Kapinoy and the boys of Whattaboys like AJ Muhlach, Josh Padilla and Aki Torio with the girl guys of Bianca Casado and Sofia Andres.

As Boots Anson-Roa, the network's president and CEO provides narration, the short opens with the guys building their snowman, which comes out looking like Snowman.

Dingdong's Holiday Hits

A Christmas album commercials, starring the original prince of pop Dingdong Avanzado.

An announcer tells us about Dingdong's past successful albums, Born to Christmas and Pasko Na Sinta Ko, and that he has now released a new album of him singing holiday songs. We are shown samples of Plankton's interpretations of Jolly Holliday, Ganyan Pasko, Miss Kita Kong Christmas, and Pasko Na Sinta Ko. The announcer tells the viewers that, to order the advertised album, they must send the Dingdong.

The 12 Days of Paskohan

In this particular segment, an entire group of IBC-13 characters, all rendered in stop-motion ala Rankin/Bass style, sing to the tune of The Twelve Days of Christmas. The lyrics are as follows:

All: On the 12th Day of Paskohan, Kapinoy watch TV
Twelve bubbles blowing!
Eleven kayo mas Santa
Ten thousand places ikaw ang Kapinoy
Nine dalawa bata.

Eight Barney toys
Watch out

Daniel (Freddie Gutierrez), a college student, watches a race at speedway for a study break. While watching the speedway race, Daniel suddenly has a premonition that the race-car crash will cause the Speedway to collapse, killing numerous people. Daniel panics, persuading his girlfriend Nicole (Janella Salvador), their friends Claire (Maxene Magalona) and Matt (Marlo Mortel), security guard Ramon (Ramon Bautista), mechanic Kathryn (Louise delos Reyes), mother Gina (Jenine Desiderio) and racist tow truck driver Carter (Mo Twister) to leave, escaping seconds before Nick's vision becomes a reality. They all manage to get out of the speedway auditorium and a fight breaks out, where Schai gets angry and yells at them. She is suddenly obliterated by a stray tire that flies out of the stadium in which it decapitates her and also slices off her left arm. The movie then cuts to the title by showing (In x-rays) the past deaths of the other three movies in a random order.

Several days after the disaster Carter tries to burn a cross on Ramon's lawn for not allowing him to save his wife at the stadium. After leaving the truck, a horseshoe that is attached to the rearview mirror falls and turns the radio back on. The noise from the radio shakes the remaining beer in the six-pack plastic holder causing it to fall from the dash. As it falls, it catches the gearshift, shifting the vehicle into drive. Unable to get in the truck, Carter chases it down the street; getting snagged by the tow chain and dragged down the street. Sparks from the cable set the truck and Carter on fire and the truck explodes. Ramon, who came out to see the commotion, witnesses this. The next day Samantha dies after a rock propelled by a lawn mower is shot through her eye following a series of harrowing accidents at the beauty salon. Lori and Nick learn of the deaths and research the premonitions from the previous films realizing that death is coming after them. Hunt and Claire refuse to believe, but they convince Ramon to help them save Nicole. However they arrive too late and Andy is launched through a chain link fence by a carbon dioxide tank fired off by a broken wrench at the garage.

Daniel receives new visions of water and a coin hinting that Claire and Matt are in danger. Matt goes to a country club pool to have sex with a girl. Nick tries to call him to warn to stay away from water, however a kid squirts Matt with a water gun hitting the phone. Hunt steals the gun, pushes the kid into the water and places it onto the pool drain, but the gun falls onto the drain's On/Off switch, causing the pool to start draining.

Claire goes to a car wash and she fails to notice a sign that says to close her radio antenna. When she drives into the wash, one of the brushes knocks her antenna into the wash's fuse box. Afterwards, Janet receives a phone call from Nicole who tells her to avoid water, but the phone loses signal. Meanwhile, Matt's lucky coin is knocked into the pool by a golf ball and as he dives to retrieve it he is sucked in by the drain. Nicole and Ramon manage to save Claire but Daniel fails to find Matt, who was still struggling to get off the drain. Eventually the drain explodes, taking Hunt with it and killing him. Ramon tries to commit suicide but fails after several attempts, leading the group to believe that saving Janet stopped Death's plans. To celebrate Claire and Nicole go to the mall to watch a movie while Daniel has another premonition about the speedway. He and Ramon arrive in time to see Arwind (Carlos Agassi) crushed by an unattended bathtub that comes through the ceiling. George is run down by the ambulance as they leave.

At the movies, Nicole begins to see signs and suspects they aren't out of danger while Daniel rushes to save them. A series of events ignites a fire behind the theater curtain and Daniel manages to convince Nicole to leave. Claire refuses to believe and is killed by shrapnel when the fire sets off a chain of explosions that chase Daniel and Nicole out. Lori is pulled into an escalator's gears as Daniel awakens and realizes that this was all a vision. Unable to save Ramon from his death, Daniel rushes to the theater and barely manages to stop the fire before it causes the resulting explosions.

Weeks later, Daniel notices a loose pylon outside of their hangout and warns the workers about it before meeting Nicole and Claire inside. He deduces that the mall disaster vision was merely a red herring meant to lead them to where they needed to be for Death to strike. At that moment, the pylon collapses, causing a truck to swerve and crash into the restaurant. As the final scene turns into a x-ray, Janet is shown to have been crushed under the tires while Lori's neck is snapped, decapitating her, and Daniel is thrown into a wall, bashing his skull and jaw, as the credits roll.

IBC's counterpart programming in 2014

March 1, 2014

For making us the superstar network, sequestered Filipino media conglomerate company IBC strengthened its position as the third major player in the television industry is now a strong, undisputed and certified number 3 television station in the country, home to the PBA and NBA basketball fans.

From the past generations in the 70's and 80's, Channel 13's hit popular TV programs are Chicks to Chicks, TODAS, Iskul Bukol, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True, Sitak ni Jack, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Tarzan, Sic O'Clock News, Kulit Bulilit, Goin' Bayabas, Barrio Balimbing and Hapi House are the year's top-raters as IBC was the #1 television network.

Now, the trailblazing of all-Filipino television programming in the track of The Kapinoy Network not only competitive but also more counter-programming parts around the world captured the Filipino hearts as The Superstar Network bringing together the biggest names in movies and television to its fold. The increasing several IBC's #1 shows on Philippine television on its timeslots everyday from morning, afternoon, evening primetime and late-night while watching TV viewing habit built on the strength as the superstar television network. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away, with the help of president Noyonoy Auino III for the PNoy administration. To be the home of local productions that are expressive of the Filipino heart and mind; the active mediator the public and the significant issues and event sof the day; the provider of entertainment and enlightenment; the imparter of Filipino social and cultural values.

Protecting the assets of the station, discover that the station in a top money earner and leading the other networks in terms of rating. Defines the basic thrust of IBC's programming a strong bias for more quality local productions, a striving for balance entertainment and public information, and the recognition of its socialrole in earn proits. It seemed that the reason for the station's high-rating in the local entertainment shows that IBC is home to the Viva Tagalog movies, soap operas and fantasy series, the station-produced local sitcoms and the PBA and NBA basketball.

Based on the survey of Kantar Media, IBC practically reach all TV households when we achieved coverage of 50% makes broadcast history continues to be leaps a number 3 station in the high-ratings behind the industry leaders ABS-CBN and GMA.

Television production and broadcasting, however, are still the core of the network's business, with 50% of all company sales generated from this sector of privatization. IBC met squarely with the challenge of operating under the effects of the Asian regional economic crisis, which did not prevent it from posting a growth rate of 30% between 2013 and 2014, and posting sales of P 10.7 billion (US$ 172 million) garnered an estimated 45% of all broadcast advertising revenues. Our growth has been steady: IBC has operation recorded a compounded annual growth rate in advertising revenues of 13.5%. On television, independent surveys also indicate improved viewer satisfaction. Kantar Media reports that IBC's audience share in Metro Manila is almost half of all viewing households at 30.2% of all household viewership. The Philippine Survey and Research Center (PSRC) report which covers key cities in the country also showed an increase in the national average, from 63.4% the previous year to 67.2% audience share last year. We also outperformed our nearest TV competitor more than three times with their Total Philippines audience share of only 18.7%.

IBC is now the country's third leading network, per Kantar Media survey for the data period. A sequestered network with a two giant networks on the masses, the new management is headed by the chairman Eric Canoy, the network's president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa and executive vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz are the top honchos of business providing better focus on the development of product and program content, further enhancement of the network service groups and convergence with the new businesses in dynamic will creative spirit of the people that make up organization. IBC becoming the number 3 position among TV networks at the same point behind channels 2 and 7 at the bottom of the ratings.

This particular print ad came about the station earned some sort of a goodwill at the time, because as a government-owned sequestered station of the Aquino administration, it is a No.3 network with private sector blocktimers to hold. Programming is successfully continued to dominate the ratings in all program formats and all time blocks with the key strategy was the extension of broadcast airtime from the morning at 4:30 a.m. up to 1 a.m. the following day. IBC reaches 97% of TV households via a network of 30 TV stations and affiliates, gaining significant viewership for the network and increased advertising revenue in non-traditional time segments is the network's wider coverage to earn high ratings.

In-house developed superstars and creative talents are now being shared across all media. The post-production houses service cinema and TV advertising clientele. The international program distribution component has extended its business to cover telecoms. These are just some examples of how convergence has worked for the network and the list of other possible permutations keeps on growing.

Foray into business ventures with entertainment-related businesses begins as follow suit: cable channels, UHF television, high-end film and audio post-production, music recording, conglomerate telephone and mobile, and product licensing and merchandising are logical extensions of its core business of broadcasting.

Foremost was the consolidation of IBC Entertainment TV growth into the giant company. Under the leadership of its Executive Vice President Lito Ocampo Cruz, it now serves as the umbrella organization for the following divisions: Television, which handles nationwide TV programming and production of entertainment programs; the talent development and management Kapinoy Talent Center; Creative Communications Management; and TV Engineering. The group also oversees the following subsidiaries: IBC Records and IBC Licesing and Merchandising (product licensing and merchandising).

The Radio Network Division handles the programming of AM radio DZTV Radyo Budyong and FM radio iDMZ Sayaw Pinoy!, while IBC Regional takes care of Regional TV and radio operations. Providing corporate support are the following divisions: IBC Sales and Marketing; IBC Engineering; IBC Board of Directors; IBC Administrative Services and Human Resources, which handles network expansion and equipment; Information Technology; Research and Business Analysis; and the Corporate Services Group composed of Finance, Human Resources Development and Legal Services and Government & Corporate Affairs.

IBC is also engaged in the media-related business of international program and film distribution; overseas cable TV and telecoms via IBC International, sports programming with Viva Sports (NBA and PBA), high-end video and audio post production, interactive media (IBC Interactive, Inc.), multimedia telephone and mobile cellphone (Kapinoy Convergence, Inc. through IBC Telephone and IBC Mobile) and cinema theatrical operations (CineKapinoy). Still growing of IBC is also the third in the ratings and the network is facing some financial and revenues. The Kapinoy Network to compete with the two giant networks. They're already unwatching noontime shows, then primetime news at 6:30 pm and then telenovelas after. IBC offers the programming innovations that hopefully people would start to embrace more. We've already reached out to people and the following is already there. Hopefully, we can still capture a wider audience.

IBC International reaches out to the Filipino overseas community with the international cable and satellite channel Global IBC which has available in Dish Network for the United States, Guam, North America, Japan, Hong Kong, Taiwan, China, Southeast Asia, Malaysia, Africa, Europe, Middle East, Saudi Arabia, Asia, South Korea, United Kingdom, Canada, Hawaii, Mexico, India, California, Daly City, New York, Las Vegas, Dubai, San Francisco, Los Angeles and many more. With owned and operated the Direct-to-Home (DTH) satellite service reaches 130,000 subscribers despite the failure of satellite Falaxy 4 and Telestar.

IBC's gross airtime revenues from its broadcasting operations grew a healthy 25% to P10.13 billion in 2014 in the sequestered of privatization for the government, despite an estimated 30% to 45% decline in total industry advertising spending for the year. This growth was achieved due to the company's commanding lead in ratings and audience share, more than double the next highest-ranking competitor, allowing it to increase both its advertising rates and minutes. Investments not only in improving our broadcast facilities and network and multi-media entertainment infrastructure, but also in the training and development of our creative, technical, sales, privatization of PCGG and corporate support staff.

With its extensive investments in broadcasting facilities, IBC's coverage reached 50% of the country's television households. All these, we continue to undertake in order to deliver the finest in Filipino news and entertainment, create the best working environment for our employees, generate the highest returns to our shareholders, all in the service of the Filipino.

The Kapinoy Network continues to opened its primetime with innovative sitcoms, gag shows and even political satires. It also aired Filipino movies, and balanced this with documentaries, as well as its talk shows, drama series (soap operas, fantasy series, horror and drama anthologies), musical variety shows, game shows, reality shows and sports programs.

During the press conference last February 13, 2014 for the privatization of PCGG, the top-rating and multi-awarded hit shows got the #1 spot on its timeslot. The true number 1 TV network in the Philippines

August 27, 2013

It has been years since the two biggest networks in the country, namely ABS-CBN and GMA, is claiming the number 1 spot while IBC and RPN also claiming the number 3 spot on the most watched TV Network in the Philippines. However, the figures shown by these two networks are not from the same source, which are the AGB Nielsen and Kantar Media Market Research. GMA and TV5 subscribe to Nielsen TV Audience Measurement while ABS-CBN, IBC and RPN is the local major TV network that reportedly subscribes to Kantar Media.

When it comes to Kantar Media, ABS-CBN is on the top spot for being the most watched TV station in the country. Most of their shows dominate the list of top daily most watched TV show in the country. Among the three big TV networks in the country, ABS-CBN subscribes to Kantar Media.

On the other hand, according to AGB Nielsen, GMA Network is the number one TV network and their show dominates the list of top most watched TV shows. However, those data was only from Urban Luzon and Mega Manila, which has the biggest audience share in the country.

Meanwhile, sequestered TV station IBC is the number 3 spot for the most watched TV station in the country. Most of their shows continues to dominate the list of top daily most watched TV show in the country. Among the big TV networks in the country, ABS-CBN and IBC subscribes to the Kantar Media. When it comes to Nationwide TV Ratings of AGB, the battle of GMA, ABS-CBN and IBC is very tough. ABS-CBN leads the nationwide TV ratings.

In addition, for the month of July wherein ABS-CBN is on the number 1 spot, GMA strengthens again on the Nationwide TV Ratings, according to AGB Nielsen Philippines while IBC and RPN is also a certified number 3.

Although Indonesia has waived TV rights, Channel 13 now making a full coverage as the host TV crews will provide. This explains the lean TV team assigned to the SEA Games.

With one-game on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays and two-games on Sundays Viva-TV will provide highlights of the SEA Games during the quarter and halftime breaks of PBA games and possibly do subliminal and casual mentions of the events during the PBA games.

Primetime Programming

Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario said Viva-TV's game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, has become the most watched TV program in Mega Manila (Metro Manila and nearby provinces). The show, hosted by Christipher de Leon, airs Saturday nights at 9:00pm and Sundays at 9:30pm. "The audience share of Who Wants to be a Millionaire? just grew phenomenally. It now has an average of one million viewers per week," Mr. Rosario declared. Since then, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? [has been] number one in its timeslot in Mega Manila," he added. Mr. Rosario said follow the success of Millionaire, another local version of the game show The Weakest Link is also gain more viewers from Endemol franchised with Viva-TV. The show, which airs from Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:30pm, is hosted by Richard Yap against Aso ni San Roque (Ch. 7) and Princess and I (Ch. 2) when The Weakest Link become the No.1 most-watched TV show in its timeslot in Mega Manila.

The TV executive said the show airing after The Weakest Link, the soap-opera primetime teleserye 5 Girls and Daddy starring new actor AJ Muhlach and child star Xyriel Manabat, is making a strong showing as well in its 8:30pm timeslot has become the phenomenal No.1 has been consistently increasing its performance rating. We are very pleased that the show is gaining ground to compete with rivals Pahiram ng Sandali (Ch. 7) and Ina, Kapatid, Anak(Ch. 2) in the ratings race, Mr. Rosario said.

Following 5 Girls and Daddy, another explosive soap-opera teleserye primetime Esperanza at 9:30pm starring drama princess Cristine Reyes to be a No.1 program than rival GMA's *Temptation of Wife and ABS-CBN's *A Beautiful Affair in the timeslots. He said IBC-13 is also gaining a strong following every Sunday, the teen drama anthology Dear Heart starring a certified singing champion Anja Aguilar will compete with GMA's *Teen Gen and ABS-CBN's *Luv U, basketball league PBA and the talent search Born to be a Star with host Anja Aguilar scoring large ratings numbers for the TV network.

Alongside from its improved ratings during primetime, Mr. Rosario said IBC-13 is also gaining ground in the Viva-TV primetime programming block, with its Filipino-dubbed animated series, imported Mexican telenovelas and Korean dramas gaining a strong following.

It has the localized version of the popular animated series Winx Club from Rainbow S.r.l will replicate the profits which Channel 13 have gained become the No.1 phenomenal Tagalized fairy-serie in the country that first made IBC-13 number one in the prime time block than Paroa: Ang Kuwento Ni Mariposa (GMA) and Aryana (ABS-CBN)," Canoy said released by Viva Video, Winx Club DVDs volumes 1 to 10 are now available on all record stores nationwide from Video City, continuously over 130 countries with top ratings. This led many industry observers to prescribe then that as the station was gaining ground on Winx Club, which dubbed in Filipino, it should have made a gradual shift to local shows.

Despite a decline in telenovela viewership, a new Mexican telenovelas are Teresa and María Isabel are No.1 to be followed by Korean drama Pretty Young Woman, now both is No. 2 in the ratings and has generated more advertising. For the anime series from Japan dubbed in Filipino, like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan and Kirarin got the No.1 spot, the local movies the network has been showing as its Viva Box Office and Sinemaks were doing very well on sales. Viva Films. At that time, total annual sales amounted to P700 million, of which revenues accounted for 25% at the most, when Winx Club came into the picture, the network hit P500 million, with revenues of 30%. The Asian market television is the A, B, C and the upper D classes and the target market of IBC is also the same mass-based market.

As such, IBC 13 continues to be viewed by the industry as a network of value. This is clearly manifested in the latest evening primetime survey undertaken by AGB Nielsen, the firm which now surveys TV ratings. While the ABS-CBN and GMA networks easily grabbed the two top spots, with 50.3% and 19.6% of all viewing households, respectively, IBC 13 garnered 15.1%, especially if compared with TV5's 17.5%.

Alongside major TV ratings, a basketball league has the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) as the television franchise PBA Philippine Cup for the basketball fans with just one game every Wednesday and Friday at 4:30-9:30pm, Saturdays at 7:00pm, and the two games also on Sundays at 4:00pm against the showbiz talk shows H.O.T TV (GMA) and The Buzz (ABS-CBN), when it become the No.1 during the weekend games.

December 19, 2012

After six months since its premiere, Philippines' phenomenal TV animation Winx Club continues to rule the ratings game as a fairy-serve it remains the No.1 TV program in the country for the month of December. Unfortunately, the most exciting adventure in the Trix gain dark Sirenix with the help of Tritannus and plan to defeat the Winx Club, which the two giant networks copied because of their success.

They give away to sponsor by Nestle Philippines, Jollibee, Regent Foods Corporation, Rebisco, Febisco, Lemon Square Philippines, P&G Philippines, Wyeth Philippines, RFM Corporation, Universal Robina, KFC, McDonalds, Cherifer, Toy Kingdom, Barbie, Kraft Foods Corporation, Julies Bakeshop, Del Monte, Alaska Milk Corporation, Gardenia, Monde Nissin Corporation, Goldilucks and many more.

The entry of this animated TV series, dubbed into the main Tagalog dialect for Viva-TV, broke the dominance of Japanese anime series, Mexican and Korean soap operas on local television.

Within last 6-months, the animated TV series smashed the leadership of rival programmes, including Korean asianovelas A Secret Love and Smile Dong Hae. The popularity of Winx Club highlights the growing popularity of Italian animated television series directed, created, and produced by Iginio Straffi and his company Rainbow S.r.l. exported to Asia and around the world.

Based on the latest data of Kantar Media/TNS, the Rainbow S.r.l.'s localized version of the animated series starring Stella, Aisha, Musa, Tecna, Flora and Bloom garnered an average national TV rating of 35.9% compared to Paroa: Ang Kuwento Ni Mariposa (GMA) and Aryana (ABS-CBN). Other news articles said many housewives reported that their husbands had started coming home early for the show. There were also complaints from commuters about public utility drivers who illegally cut short their regular routes so they could catch up with the programme. The government, wary of the show's wide popularity, warned the 5.8 million public employees nationwide that they faced possible dismissal if caught watching the show during office hours. Winx Club episodes are also in the weekend Sunday rewind by IBC-13.

A popular animated series Winx Club became a huge success on IBC. Carried by Viva-TV, the strategy was promptly copied by the others who aired more foreign cartoons. It was followed by Korean and Mexican soap operas and Japanese animes dubbed into Filipino as well as popular sports events like NBA and PBA.

IBC Shows are Making Waves in United States, South Korea and Southeast Asia

June 18, 2014

While it is widely known that The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 is in fact the 'number 3 broadcasting network in the Philippines', IBC International has meanwhile taken the responsibility of translating this already remarkable title to the global stage—and rightfully so!

In just a short span of three years, IBC International has already successfully distributed some of the Kapinoy Network's most-watched programs all over the world, including, most recently, the various key territories in the African and Asian region, as well as to the Philippines' neighboring Asian countries.

IBC President and CEO Boots Anson-Roa notes, "Since 2011, side-by-side with our commitment in bringing the Kapinoy Network's top programs to every Filipino household all over the world, IBC International has also made it its mission to proudly introduce our various programs—and in turn, showcase the Filipino talent—in the international scene. So far, the positive feedback of the global market to our various offerings has confirmed that our programs are indeed world-class."

As it is, key Asian markets have continuously clamored and demanded for more IBC shows, after widely accepting programs like To Love Again, I Need Romance, My Batang Momay, Safe In The Arms Of Love and Carita de Angel are the top-raters of primetime series.

In addition, regional viewers from nearby Asian countries like Korea, Taiwan, China Cambodia, Brunei, Malaysia and Vietnam, have also been in awe of the Kapinoy Network's shows after commissioning the titles Batang Genius, Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love.

"Non-Pinoy viewers have appreciated what IBC International has to offer because time and again, we have proven that the Kapinoy Network's programs are different, innovative, and ultimately entertaining. Further, with the international community's wide acceptance of our programs and admiration of the talent of our IBC artists, this has solidified our future plans in forging even more partnerships with more networks in other parts of the world," shares Boots.

IBC vows to create more talents: We know what the audience wants

June 18, 2014

With IBC-13's current artist pool still lacking much-needed depth, network executive Laurenti Dyogi vowed that talent development would be one of her priorities this year.

Dyogi, IBC Entertainment TV Head, pointed out that an extensive roster of actors will help the network bolster its program lineup. “To mount shows, of course you need talents,” she told the Philippine Daily Inquirer recently. “Superstars are created, and we will do that. We know what the audience wants.”

In the past few years, the Kapinoy network has signed up big names in the biz— Dingdong Avanzado, Lani Misalucha, Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago, Christopher de Leon, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, Robi Domingo, Anja Aguilar, Drew Arellano and Iya Villania. Galvante said she would now focus on new blood.

“We’d like a stable of homegrown stars,” she said. “I’d like viewers to instantly identify them as IBC talents.” Some of the network’s in-house artists are Erich Gonzales, Sue Ramirez, Janella Salvador the finalists of the reality search Superstar Circle such as Freddie Gutierrez and Liza Soberano.

Some of the top finalists of the singing reality show Born to be a Superstar such as the established singing champions like Joshua Cadelina, Cayleen Villamor, Veejay Aragon, Anne Bernardo, Ronald Humarang, Shanne Velasco and Arvin Ventanilla which has been the aspiring and younger singers.

Star-making is no easy task, Laurenti, who retired as ABS-CBN Head of TV Production Business Unit in 2012, acknowledged. It’s a challenge that she’s ready for. “There are so many talented hopefuls, and the industry is always on the lookout for someone new,” she said.

Dyodi said one of the coming offerings— a adaptation of the 70's and 80's sitcom Iskul Bukol Men— will be the launch pad for Aki Torio, Abra and Josh Padilla. Also in the main cast will be Coleen Garcia, Ashley Rivera as Petra Mahalimuyak and Yam Concepcion.

“They’re not total unknowns—it’s just a matter of developing them and proving that they’re good,” Dyogi said. “They’re all in workshops now. We have big plans for them.”

Dyogi also announced plans for the network’s daily primetime block called PrimeTastik. The rival stations like ABS-CBN and GMA 7 have horizontal programming (same set of shows throughout the week), IBC, Dyogi declared, will mix horizontal and vertical programming (different sets each day), with some shows airing every day; and others, once a week.

Her team was considering devoting Mondays to Tagalog films, she said; Wednesdays and Fridays to PBA games or other sporting events; Tuesdays and Thursdays to local entertainment shows—horror anthology and dance show on Tuesday and political satire and sitcom on Thursday.

Viewing habits

“We have varied content, and so we’re using a different structure,” she explained.

Asked if she wasn’t worried that IBC Channel 13’s customized primetime blocking would render day-to-day ratings inconsistent, Dyogi said: “We hope to break the audience’s viewing habits by offering a wide array of freshing homegrown, innovative and quality shows.”

First to air is the child-friendly fantaserye Batang Genius, which stars Mavy Legaspi and Cassy Legaspi, together with Jake Cuenca and Nicole Andersson. Programs in the works are Janella Salvador’s hit mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland with Marlo Mortel; Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago’s hit teleserye Your Heart, My Love and the local adaption of the 2010 hit Thai film Crazy Little Thing Called Love is a new kilig-serye top-billed by Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes and Maricar Reyes.

The launch of TreseBella: featuring the Mexican novelas as The Two Sides of Ana (Dalwang Mukha ni Ana) which is starring with Ana Layevska and Rafael Amaya; and La Teniente, top-billed by the Mexican actress Maria Fernanda Yepes; Taiwanese drama Hayate the Combat Butler and Korean drama Spy Myung-wol.

Also in a lineup are three fantasy-drama serials: teen star Liza Soberano’s self-titled Liza with Mario Maurer and Freddie Gutierrez; Janella Salvador’s Janella: A Princess Girl with the Kapinoy leading men Marlo Mortel and Jerome Ponce; and AJ Muhlach’s newest superserye called Voltron.

Since the popularity hugged the screen schedule suddenly built around the program in powerhouse cast of a fantaserye like Carita de Angel for the religion of adventure, gospel and fantasy in the Filipino soap opera. A healing storyline is familiar to viewers: the child wonder of Dulce Maria (played by a child star Mutya Orquia) against the Filipino children, parents and family in school and playground for the glory of fairy god with families in Jesus Christ around the world for the Lord inspirational. The commercial load of primetime teleseryes, on the other hand, is determined largely by their TV ratings. Since then, local productions also dominate primetime television, the ratings of these are the television networks monitoring.

The phenomenal rise of this fantaserye Carita de Angel and Janella in Wonderland forced the other networks for the top of the ratings than soap operas on primetime viewers to bring home for drastic measures that the Filipino mass audience in TV project.

IBC Board of Directors and executives explain programming to air more than teleseryes

January 27, 2014

"It's a different offering, it's a different way pero it's satisfying to the viewers," IBC COO for Entertainment Laurenti Dyogi says about the Kapinoy Network's primetime programming. IBC airs teleseryes daily more than other TV networks that air soap operas nightly.

Mutya Orquia topbill the inspirational fantaserye Carita de Angel while Janella Salvador topbill IBC's soap fantasy series Janella in Wonderland and Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago topbill IBC's hit primetime teleserye Your Heart, My Love.

With the foreign exchange uncertainties and with increasing competition for imports from other stations, IBC has taken steps to pursue market-driven strategies by integrating programming, merchandising and sales.

The Kapinoy Network continues with its objective of giving Filipinos new offerings on television by maintaining its more primetime serial programs every week. Starting with the 3 of newest primetime seryes are Carita de Angel (6 p.m.), Janella in Wonderland (7:30 p.m.) and Your Heart, My Love (9:30 p.m.), IBC is once again introducing new shows that airs daily for teleseryes, respectively.

The television network owned by Eric Canoy is gearing up for competition, lining up new shows in its prime-time slots from the bandwagon of fantasy and soap operas to start a totally new trend in television.

"We are breaking the habits of the gabi-gabing kakapanood ng mga series," IBC COO for Entertainment Laurenti Dyogi told members of the entertainment press during the press conference of Carita de Angel, Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love on Friday night, January 17.

She described their current daily primetime block as a mix of entertainment for the convenience of viewers.

"As I have mentioned before, ang programming ng Kapinoy is like horizontal, where there is a daily programming from the primetime fantaseryes at 6:00 to 6:30 and 7:30 to 8:00, 'yong Carita de Angel and Janella in Wonderland, and daily soaps at 9:30 to 10:00 for the hit romantic teleserye Your Heart, My Love.

"Then, starting 8:00 to 9:30, it becomes vertical back-to-back shows. "There's Mondays with a political satire news Sic O'Clock News Naman (8 p.m.) back-to-back with the horror-thriller suspense series Ghost Busters (8:45 p.m.), an original made-for-TV movies 13 Original Movie which will be aired every Tuesdays, PBA basketball games on Wednesdays (from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m.), on Thursdays with the best episodes of the popular sitcom Iskul Bukol (8 p.m.) and the horror anthology Shake, Rattle and Roll (8:45 p.m.), and again sports on Fridays (from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m.)," he explained, the Kapinoy executive also mentioned.

Dyogi explained, "Iba ang gusto i-offer ng IBC.

"We know that when we give them viewers programs, daily dramas, there is more stories to tell. 'Tapos sa susunod na gabi, iba naman ang susubaybayan mo.

"It's a different offering, it's a different way among it's satisfying to the viewers."

DIFFERENT PROGRAMMING GRID. Meanwhile, director and creative consultant Jeffrey Jeturian further explained when IBC chose a different approach to its daily primetime programming. He told the media, “Maipapakita ang pagkakaiba ng offer ng IBC sa uri ng programming grid na inaalay namin sa audience.

“Ang programming grid ay pagbabago ng oras o timeslot. “Kundi pati ang pagdadagdag may pagbabago ng uri ng palabas na inihahain namin sa kakaibang uri ng programming grid.

Direk Jeffrey also emphasized that IBC values its viewers.

New Shows of 'The Million Second Quiz,' and 'Killer Karaoke,' 'Catch Me Fall in Love' and 'Janella: A Princess Girl' on IBC-13 this July

July 4, 2014

Good move by the PBA basketball to get IBC to air the games on primetime. I hope the new blocktimer does a good job with the government-sequestered network.

Now IBC took a risk again that ours is a world-class programming with a local Filipino hearts and mind with ATC, which is an emerging player in the broadcast industry. Alternative TV network and some advertisers-friendly of ATC @ IBC 13 on Philippine television.

Remember of IBC glorious days in the 70's and 80's hope so reputation known also to get good shows on TV since 80's and during those times they are the one's who got higher ratings than a rest of the networks.

Back in the 80's, before Kapamilya, Kapuso, Kapatid, Kapinoy and Kasama, IBC-13 is the #1 TV station in the country besting the other four other networks then in the local free channels (2, 4, 7 and 9).

Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry. I decided to recall some of the memorable programs aired on IBC-13 in the past decades.

Top-rated programs of Channel 13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network, which banners the slogan Basta Pinoy sa Trese, Life Begins at 13 and Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese mantra back then, when the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 such as the hits like Ora Engkantanda, Pinoy Thriller, TODAS, Iskul Bukol, Hapi House, Goin' Bananas, Takeshi's Castle, Barrio Balimbing, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Sitak ni Jack, The Sharon Cuneta Show, See-True, Tarzan, Sic O'Clock News, Maricel

Live, Loveliness and others, plus showing the full-length Tagalog films for the Pinoy movies. The top shows and popular stars of the network were just became a venue, the government announcements and now with more commercialized programs.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

IBC-13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past.

Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production through the original productions and the quality local productions as well within the original shows and quality, innovative and creative programming aims to develop the younger and mass audience. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

Kapinoy primetime superstars Drew Arellano, Elmo Magalona, Anja Aguilar and Robi Domingo

The country's #3 network IBC-13 which stands for Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, remains true to its commitment to continuously find ways to cater to the changing taste of Pinoy viewers with the perfect mix of news and current affairs, educational, entertainment and sports programs.

This is why, beginning this July 5, the Kapinoy Network will be launching an exciting mix of program offerings that will spice up everyday viewing pleasure in Philippine TV. The program schedule you posted is IBC's current complete program schedule since the launch of the original hit shows as well.

Further establishes ATC as an emerging force in the media industry, one that is expected to bolster its current lineup in the future. New investment will result in some revenue for both ATC and IBC-13. A new line-up of shows will be presented to the viewing public for more interesting programming in recent years.

First up is the back-to-back opening of the all-new season of three of IBC's flagship programs on its timeslots— The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar and Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, and the latest addition to the brand new musical game show Killer Karaoke. Plot

Edit

Nam is a girl who is secretly attracted to P'Shone (many people pronounced it as Shone), her senior at school. However, she feels that Shone is too good-looking for her. Instead, Nam and her three friends turn to the help from the book 'Nine Recipes of Love', which is believed to have a magical power to win affection from the boy of choice. Nam's father works in the States to support his family and promises to Nam and her younger sister that he will send a plane ticket for the US to whichever one of them earn the first place in school. Nam misses her father and is determined to study hard to raise her grade. Nam and her friends are denied by the Thai dance club after picking a fight with Faye, a pretty girl at school.

They instead join the English Drama club headed by Teacher Inn, where Nam is chosen to play Snow White in the school drama, Snow White, during the school fair. Shone is also helping the Drama club as a stage painter. After the drama, Nam becomes popular among the boys at school. Nam also tries to change her appearances by wearing contact lens, braces, and whitening her skin. Her look improves dramatically. She is also chosen as a drum major of the school parade, while Shone joins the soccer team as a striker.

During the second year of the story, Shone's childhood friend, Top, joins the school. He immediately likes Nam and some days later, he confesses his love to Nam. She is shocked and does not answer to avoid the risk of hurting Shone's best friend, Top. Top takes her silence as an acceptance.

Next morning, Top asks Nam to go to the football match to see Shone play. Days later, Shone tells Nam that he wishes that he had a girlfriend, much to Nam's shock. They are interrupted by Top before Nam can say anything back. At the birthday night party of Ake, one of their friends, Top and Shone share a story where both liked the same girl and after that experience, they say that they have promised to never to fall in love with the same girl again. During a dance, Top kisses Nam's cheek, making her uncomfortable. That night, Nam breaks up with him. A heartbroken Top asks Shone to promise never to pursue Nam because he wouldn't be able to see his best friend with the girl he loves. Shone acknowledges his friendship to Top by promising to do so.

Three years have passed by since the beginning of her story. Nam secures the first position in her exam, which means she will get to stay with her father in the States. Nam and her friend finally realizes that the book did not do much help and decides to use the 10th recipe: Direct confession. On the closing of the school year, Nam finally confesses to Shone, only to find out that she is too late. Shone is already going out with Pin, his classmate. That night, Shone comes home to find out that he is accepted into a trainee program in a professional soccer team, and has to leave for the camp the following morning. He goes into his room and takes out a diary. That diary contains all of Nam's photos. Shone has always loved Nam but never managed to pluck up enough courage to tell her. Shone leaves his diary in front of Nam's house. Nine years later, Nam is a successful fashion designer who recently came back from the States and is asked to appear in a variety show. Shone is now a professional photographer. In that reality show, Nam and Shone reunite.

'Crazy Little Thing Called Move' PH Version Premieres March 3

February 28, 2014

After being the big huge success of its inspirational fantasy Carita de Angel, the mermaid tale hit fantaserye Janella in Wonderland and the primetime soap hit teleserye Your Heart, My Love, IBC continues to change the game in innovative TV programming offering another light primetime series with a heart-warming plot that is fit for the family entertainment will make you fall in love again pitting a gamble of drama series with the big networks' primetime dramas in the newest Kapinoy teleserye which showcases new television dramas competing with top Philippine broadcasting pioneers ABS CBN and GMA. IBC has showcased interesting new shows and it still on a roll with innovative new plots for Philippine television.

Aside from those new programs, chief entertainment content officer Laurenti Dyogi also mentioned that a teen star princess Janella Salvador will be working in her own primetime fantaserye, Cristine Reyes will be working on her own teleserye while Robi Domingo will also hosting in his own game show. The queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto is also expected to star in a primetime teleserye and her own movie.

Channel 13 became a third major player in the TV industry with the huge success of three primetime soap operas: a first fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, a hit soap opera series Your Heart, My Love and first sereies based on the 2010 Taiwan movie Crazy Little Thing Called Love. It also began producing quality local programs that began reaping awards in full blast with its local programming continues to be a leader in the broadcast industry; it is much respected and multi-awarded.

Drama is the princess of primetime, says IBC superstar Cristine Reyes as the Kapinoy leading lady. Despite this, the Kapinoy network takes the gamble to go head-to-head once again with the soap operas of the other competing networks with Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Cristine Reyes and Dingdong antes's second project of the daily primetime series with the network. Reyes is already successful TV projects after her projects of Esperanza, Safe in The Arms of Love and Happy TODAS.

In their thrust of providing the best Pinoy TV viewing habit, IBC is again giving us another high caliber rprimetime TV series that will surely capture our hearts and imagination, the romanic-dramedy serye Crazy Little Thing Called Love. At their recently-held press launch at Broadcast City in Quezon City, the Kapinoy network proudly presented their newest highly-anticipated local TV adaptation of the worldwide hit 2010 Thai film that captivated the hearts of many Filipino viewers is set to conquer Philippine television once more beginning Monday (March 3) when IBC-13 will produced in partnership with Viva Television premieres a romantic dramedy series called Crazy Little Thing Called Love on PrimeTastik. They are getting the attention of a popular actors and actresses in the Philippines. Now, they have a new soap opera.

The network decided to change their counter-programmign strategy by airing a drama series in the same timeslot. The tactic worked to some degree with Janella Salvador's fantaserye Janella in Wonderland and Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's teleserye Your Heart, My Love. The network is also hoping the gamble will pay once more with Crazy Little Thing Called Love. Cristine returns to primetime TV as the newest love team partner of Kapinoy actor Dingdong Dantes.

Filling in the Thai superstar Mario Maurer, who first played the role of Shone and Pimchanok Luevisadpaibul as Nam, is one of Philippine TV's prettiest faces today and IBC's primetime princess and award-winning actress Cristine Reyes she will portray the iconic role of Nam and the leading men Dingdong Dantes as Shone.

“I have a bigger responsibility here because it’s a fact that IBC is also behind the ABS-CBN and GMA-7 based on the Kantar Media survey. We need to be able to come up with something that’s different that our audience will enjoy watching,” Cristine says when asked about the challenges he is facing now as a superstar of the Kapinpy network. Of course, the drama and comedy princess to the challenge.

The local soap operas of such high-rating primetime dramas as a fanaserye Janella in Wonderland and a teleserye Your Heart, My Love is all set to start the hit teleseryes in a smach hit.

With Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Cristine and Dingdong joins the primetime superstars of Janella Salvador and Freddie Gutierrez of Janella in Wondeland and Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago of Your Heart, My Love as the primetime superstars of PrimeTastik shows.

“The Pinay Thailand Film-Serye will surely make Filipinos laugh, cry, and fall in love all over again with her colorful story,” said Jake and Cristine. “Viewers will get to relate to the story even more as we highlight true Filipino values especially our unconditional love for our family.” Follow the romantic love story as they faces life’s stuggles and experiences falling in love for the first time will showcase a powerhouse cast.

Cuenca knows the show is a big risk for IBC, a domination of ABS-CBN and GMA 7’s primetime drama series, considering the audience is still accustomed to fantasy and drama on weeknights. “And just expecting major changes like we’re going to capture the mass market. We just want to offer something different, something very entertaining, drama-wise,” he muses going against drama series on primetime.

Nam is a girl who is secretly attracted to P'Shone (many people pronounced it as Shone), her senior at school. However, she feels that Shone is too good-looking for her. Instead, Nam and her three friends turn to the help from the book 'Nine Recipes of Love', which is believed to have a magical power to win affection from the boy of choice. Nam's father works in the States to support his family and promises to Nam and her younger sister that he will send a plane ticket for the US to whichever one of them earn the first place in school. March 23, 2014

Nandito na ang IBC-13! Kung exciting ang TV landscape sa Pinas with ABS-CBN and GMA-7 competing for supremacy, mas magiging madugo ang labanan with the entry of The Kapinoy Network. In fact, bago pa man nag-launch ang iBC, the two major TV networks in the country are already in the colorful Pinoy mode matapos piratahin ang kani-kanilang talents.

Last Friday of everyday Filipino life and culture, the Kapinoy Network has officially launched with an explosive and extravagant celebration at the Smart Araneta Coliseum in Diliman, Quezon City were invited to witness the big and breathtaking changes that the network will carry this year, coupled with big raffle prizes and celebrity performances enjoyed by the members of the trade and of the press tagged as IBC's Kapinoy in order to get fans and viewership.

Eric Canoy, in a speech during the event, reiterated the tasks at their hands: “Starting a TV station is a very difficult task. There will be setbacks and false starts along the way. “It is in our nature to keep on trying until we succeed. It’s a new adventure for all of us. We hope that our presence as a relatively new and exciting player will help expand the field for the industry’s growth as a whole. We remain committed to the vision of a IBC that truly serves the best interests of our brothers and sisters, wherever they may be in providing high-quality entertainment, news and information, and public service through its media and marketing properties, television productions, event management, advertising, talent search and music recording.”

All shows and programs taping in IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City have been transferred to satellite studios located all over the metro. Established programs are indubitably the root of all TV histories and also the roster of talents compared to ABS-CBN and GMA in their own stars from sports to beauty pageants, concerts and events while the multimedia companies providing solutions for radio, motion picture, print, publications, Internet broadcast, audio recording and photography include TV production and media network management, events management, advertising, and marketing.

As if to emphasize its business strategy as being a cross between the Kapamilya and Kapuso networks, biz whiz Boots Anson-Roa launched IBC as the Kapinoy network that will provide cutting edge, pioneering and trend-setting viewer-friendly innovative and creative programming to ABS-CBN and GMA. IBC showing muscle in so-called ratings war

The network war rages on with ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7. If IBC plays its cards right, with the solid backing of Eric Canoy as chairman, we might see the day that the fight for network supremacy will now also get to dominated by the Kapamilya and Kapuso channels.

But surely, The Kapinoy Network is making its presence felt—and time may come that the government-sequestered network IBC will be becoming the giant network in able to hold its own against the giants.

This early though IBC is already showing muscle based on the ratings of its weekend shows. In the weekend of May 3-9, based on the Kantar Media ratings, it showed IBC doing good on the 6 p.m. to the 2 a.m. time slot, as IBC became the second most watched network that week. It garnered a rating of 35.9% audience higher which is higher than ABS-CBN with 47.5%, while GMA 7 took the top spot with 24.3% audience share.

IBC's weeknight triumvirate of primetime dramas such hits like Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love was the favored viewing fare that night, getting the high audience share compared to the rival teleseryes in terms of other networks. The hit weekend triumvirate of Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?, Sandy's Romance, Born to be a Superstar, Iskul Bukol Men, Sir Chief Loves Maya, Happy TODAS, Dingdong n' Lani, Last Fool Show and The Million Second Quiz was the favored viewing fare that night, getting high audience share compared to the shows of the Kapuso and Kapamilya networks and home to the PBA and NBA basketball.

I might change the landscape of TV programming. If it airs on primetime as planned, it might prompt Channels 2 and 7 to come up with a program of a similar format, especially if will get a rousing reception from the viewers. Channel 2 and GMA 7 should not be too complacent because the entry of IBC-13 could really pose a serious threat to their supremacy in the network war.

And if The Kapionoy Netwoik would make good on its promise of investing in state-of-art equipment and ensuring a good signal and reception in the provinces, it would certainly become a force to reckon with.

July 1, 2012

For making its presence felt in the local TV scene recently, sequestered TV station IBC-13 revealed the network's aggressive stance to challenge the dominance of ABS-CBN Corp. and GMA Network, Inc. at the top of the TV ratings charts, even seasoned executive Vic Del Rosario had to admit that running a network is one daunting task, hopes that its product line-up will pull in more of the viewing audience, particularly as it has taken a flexible stance in employing talents - a combination of the seasoned and the youthful, through the Telephone No.: (632) 952-4002, and Telefax No.: (632) 951-8983, 931-8940 as well as the new TV airtime rates. I was telling people around my table that starting a project, especially a television station, is a very difficult task. It's a business that is quite different from the businesses that we did," Rosario said last June 30, 2012 at IBC-13's trade relaunch held on Lunch Break last June 30, 2012 will celebrated its 52nd anniversary in Philippine television with its new corporate slogan Pinoy ang Dating with the branding Kapinoy network for the government-sequestered network as well as new IBC jingle with Filipino-like and the new letter B slash number 13 for the new logo with I for kids, B for entertainment and C for news and public affairs from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao for making big-budgeted in the market with new print advertisements for IBC from advertisers and media buyers.

Modernize the IBC building, which houses IBC 13 and RPN 9, and at the same time develop the 4.1-hectare Broadcast City property in Quezon City into a mixed-use commercial and residential complex while a new IBC corporate building, one that is tailor-made for IBC 13 operations, with office spaces, built-in modern studios and complementary amenities sufficient to house at least two network operations.

The delivery of a new corporate building for IBC-13, complete with live studios and network facilities sufficient to accommodate even the requirements of RPN-9, which also operates in Broadcast City, a commercial building which it can use to generate additional income, and the P278 million cash component to be used to pay for its outstanding obligations to its employees. It is estimated that IBC will have a guaranteed income of P275 million, the added benefits from having modern broadcasting facilities, studios, and offices. Gathering managers, employees, business partners, sponsors, members of the press, and its growing list of new talents, sequestered TV station IBC-13 as the major player officially revealed its new look designed to cater to the Bagong Pinoy-Esque audiences become more aggressive for surging ahead in the ratings, with new UHF free-to-air news channel IBC News Network and new cable channel Danze TV, nationwide provincial station of originating stations TV-13 Baguio, TV-6 Mountain Province, TV-13 Laoag City, TV-13 Cebu, TV-12 Iloilo, TV-13 Davao and TV-10 Cagayan de Oro, and the country's FM radio station its Mega Manila's #1 internet urban music and danze mix radio iDMZ 891 along with DYBQ in Iloilo, DYJJ in Roxas and DYRG in Kalibo, Alkan as DZtV Radyo Budyong 13856 in the AM band, and the newest tourist-oriented FM station 103.8 Boracay FM in Boracay.

In its continuing efforts to rock the TV industry, the trade relaunch staged on Lunch Break last June 30, 2012 was actually just the culmination of an aggressive campaign initiated by the network since late last year to further boost its steady growth. If they're seriously going to clash against ABS-CBN 2 and GMA 7, changing logos is a step in the right direction. IBC-13's new pinoy hat stand a chance against the GMA's rainbow heart and the ABS-CBN's three signal rings.

A singing champion Anja Aguilar goes to major concert this 2012

October 4, 2012

A singing champion Anja Aguilar is expected to be fiercer on her first major concert Anja Aguilar: The Concert on October 7 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum.

I just saw the poster for the newest concert, Anja Aguilar: The Concert and realized that Anja Aguilar is turning 18 this last July 22. Her birthday is actually last July 22 and expected the concert is happening on October 6 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum, Quezon City.

During her concert beginnings. Now been 12 years since Anja won the top prize in the Little Big Star on ABS-CBN as singing contest along with Sam Concepcion. Remember that white gown with the long shawl during finals night? That was the beginning of what has been a beautiful ride.

Born on July 22, 1992, she's the eldest of five kids and is now graduating from her masscomm course at AMA. Anja is a discovery of the now defunct Channel 13 singing contest, Little Big Star, in 2006. After she won, didn't sign her up to a contract as she was managed by Boy Abunda's Backroom. She then joined Viva's Pop Girls and is now so glad that they're launching her as a solo artist in her self-titled debut album.

Of course, like most kids around whose parents believe they could become successful singers, Anja has had her share of work. She has been performing since she was a star in the making, delighting crowds with her powerful voice in her little sequined dresses. She also did work as a child actress in a teleserye or two and some bit parts in the movies. But it was with the talent search show Little Big Star that happened in 2006 at the ABS-CBN, that Anja hit the big time singer definitely has the looks of a future superstar. With her extraordinary vocal range and incredible charisma, she can capture the hearts of her audience in an instant. Her numerous trophies and awards from different singing contests prove that she possesses a star factor. After winning the talent show, which also produced another popular artist Sam Concepcion, she became a member of the teen sing and dance group Pop Girls for a time. She also appeared in bit roles in several ABS-CBN shows, with her claim to fame a Maalaala Mo Kaya episode where she was cast opposite Piolo Pascual, and her among the roster of artists in the noontime Sunday variety show, ASAP 2012. Discovered via her breakthrough triumph at Little Big Star, the young singer is now being primed and readied for greater things with the release of her solo self-titled album. She has also showed her acting skills through 8 Maalaala Mo Kaya (MMK) appearances.

Anja Aguilar is a certified singing champion with an extraordinary vocal range is the perfect vehicle for the composer's lovelorn ballads, namely I Love You, When and Nasaan Ang Pangako.

Everything else came easy. There were the hit songs. Her winning piece, the newest original single To Reach You, Nasaan ang Pangako Mo, When and I Love You by Vehnee Saturno, a cover of prince of pop Dingdong Avanzado's To Love Again and Coco Lee's Before I Fall in Love, the covers, Richard Marx's Now and Forever, Heaven Knows, love songs One Hello and Fall in Love Again. There were also Di Bale Na Lang, Magic of Love and Ako Para Sa'yo by Christian Martinez, and recently dance hits are Surrender (DDR), One Sided Love (DDR) and This Kiss.

Then all the elements that go into the creation of a big star followed. The million-peso paying product endorsements which are now too many to mention; the concert tours that taken her around the country and around the world; the blockbuster movies, Fall In Love Again, To Love Again and upcoming Before I Fall in Love (with Star Cinema); the actor Onemig Bondoc, Martin Escudero and Marvin Agustin; the regular performers in the Sunday long-running musical variety show ASAP 2012 on ABS-CBN, the high-rating TV teen drama anthology series like Dear Heart on IBC-13, which airs on Sunday afternoon as a co-production with Viva Television, the voice of Anja as Bloom for phenomenal fairy-serye Winx Club on IBC co-produced by Rainbow S.r.l and Viva-TV; and the newest sold-out concerts, once a year events that her fans always look forward to elevated Anja Aguilar's stature in the Philippine concert scene. We have performed together in some production numbers.

In October is definitely called the Anja Aguilar month. And as treat to all her fans and supporters, Anja will be staging her first-ever birthday concert at the Araneta Coliseum on October 6. Since there is no escaping growing up the local singing champion and young diva is adapting to it by turning glamorous diva. Watch out for the announcements of audition dates on IBC and in leading newspapers. The Philippine editions of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to Be a Star are production of Viva Television, a Viva Entertainment company.

Viva-TV's new three shows on IBC Edit

October 2, 2012

Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link are on IBC-13, Kapamilya, Deal or No Deal with host Luis Manzano is on ABS-CBN 2, and Manny Many Prizes with host Manny Pacquiao is on GMA-7. TV5 is joining the Endemol's game show called The Million Peso Money Drop with Bossing Vic Sotto. Even the PBA Games on Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays have been edged out by Millionaire.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13, has announced that Viva-TV acquired the franchised to the local versions of two of United Kingdom game shows and one of newest American talent search show: Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star. All three shows premiere on Kapinoy network IBC-13 this October. According to the most recent TV survey of AGB Philippines, Millionaire posted a 25-percent average rating on the primetime slot. At one point, Millionaire posted an all-time high of 38 percent audience share, besting primetime shows from ABS-CBN and GMA 7.

The IBC and Viva management is optimistic about the shows, anticipating high ratings for them. Recently, the network announced had the host to the three shows: Christopher de Leon for Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Richard Yap for The Weakest Link and Anja Aguilar for Born to be a Star.

Another first for Millionaire is that it is the first franchised TV show in town. Viva-TV secured the rights to the show, which first appeared in London in September 1998. It was the brainchild of producer David Briggs of the British production company, Celador. He wanted to create a quiz show funded by premium phone calls. Christopher de Leon will be having showdown with Mike Enriquez and Ted Failon when the No.1 also this Saturday at 8:30-9:30pm and Sunday at 9:30-10:15pm.

Meanwhile, The Weakest Link got a number 1 in dominates that timeslot on 7:30-8:30pm slots are beating by teleserye. ABS-CBN's Princess and I is the second-placer on those days while GMA's Aso ni San Roque share is the third-placer. It seems that Viva TV's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire is beating the lights out of the competing ABS-CBN and GMA shows, everyday that WWTBAM is on.

Viva-TV executive Veronique del Rosario-Corpuz said targeting mass-based, middle-class and upper-class Asian market for the anticipating winner of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star are the block-timers of Viva Television on IBC.

That relaunched last Monday back-to-back game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link got the No.1 slot, had found himself very lucky to be the network executives to deliver the Pinoy version of the world-famous game show. "It comes at a right time in my career" he says. "I have always wanted to do something like this even before the million for game shows started on primetime TV." We have seen the production values being employed by Viva-TV on their game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire and The Weakest Link, and a popular talent search show Born to be a Star with their high standards within a promo sponsors.

Also, in the import friendly market of the Philippines, struggling with ad revenue of 50% in key slots. IBC-13 would continue buying Viva Entertainment, has thrown in the towel on American foreign cartoons, Mexican telenovelas, Korean asianovelas and Japanese anime series. It seems that Viva TV's powerhouse package for the new homegrown of Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Dear Heart, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire, The Weakest Link, Born to be a Star and the PBA Games are the real threats to ABS-CBN's dominance, not GMA-7.

According to the actor Christopher de Leon, he, like Richard Yap and Anja Aguilar was asked to audition, along that included actors, singers and models, for the three shows. "In the end, I got Millionaire, Weakest Link went to Edu and Anja got Born to be a Star," he adds.

IBC turns third player

Just a 4-month after it revamped its programming lineup with new shows, sequestered TV station IBC-13 as the Kapinoy network is now the No.3 most watched station nationwide, according to a survey conducted by the AGB Nielsen Media Research data on National Urban Television Audience Measurement for the role of the country's third-biggest network in local television. It has financially among the government-owned networks RPN-9 and PTV-4, while IBC-13 is better than ABS-CBN, to compete with major TV networks in certain time slots as the Philippine TV landscape had been characterized by a strong rivalry

Sources said that while Viva had an airtime block agreement with IBC-13, management of the company that owns Viva Communications, Inc., is now reportedly keen on acquiring the sequestered TV outfit. I think the plan now is to acquire IBC-13 to allow Viva Entertainment to air as more Viva programs with PBA as given a full program lineup, the source said.

Acquiring IBC-13 would be to do for Viva Entertainment since they would be spending for the improvement of the government station's facilities, the same source said.

The head office of the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC-13) has received reports from all its provincial relay stations that irate basketball fans have threatened to allowing their facilities for their telecast the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) games and more Viva-TV programs, they have helped IBC 13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings. Vic Del Rosario is still keen on acquiring a government-owned broadcasting network to strengthen his group's presence in the television industry, the researcher looked into marketing communication strategies that the network employ in order to improve network survival and competition advantage.

Rosario, who chairs Viva Entertainment, told reporters that the possible acquisition would depend on the government's privatization plan of International Broadcasting Corporation of Channel 13, we will now adding more entertainment programs as well as sports shows including basketball, boxing and billiards. Under the agreement, Viva Entertainment will also finance the the rehabilitation of IBC 13's transmission and facilities. The Aquino administration plans to privatize IBC 13 and RPN to raise more revenues. With the primetime block, IBC-13 is now earning a monthly revenue of Php12 million for an average of Php73 thousand per hour. Its daytime block, meanwhile, is offered at Php25-50 thousand per hour. IBC-13 posted last 2011 a net income before tax of Php55.92 Million. In addition, this thesis discussed how important TV brand management was for network survival and competition advantage, especially in the case of IBC. For IBC, building a stronger presence both in the rural and urban areas and creating stronger relationships among the viewers were essential to the identified communication concerns, marketing communication strategies for TV, TV branding, product life cycle, network survival and competition advantage .

We have definitely eaten into the audience share, Canoy told Inquirer last Monday thanks to the president Noynoy Aquino administration as well as sequestered by the Philippine Commission on Good Government (PCGG) with IBC increased its viewership ratings and has established its position as a strong number three in the Philippine television industry continuing to prevent IBC's provincial and relay stations from airing the programs of Viva-TV on IBC-13, by a significant increase in their production costs by getting the biggest stars, the best production values, and the technological audience reach.

The network will continue to challenge industry by presenting new programs while IBC will not be sold because its still up for privatization.

In its last July of airing, IBC-13 captured 23.5 percent of viewership in key cities according to the survey on the Nielsen Media Research. ABS-CBN placed first at 42.2 percent and GMA 7 landed the second spot at 37.3 percent. The revealed competition TV5, which placed third at 20.3 percent. IBC new management is newest chairman Eric Canoy, president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, sales and marketing Tessie Taylor and vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz must be a rotation among the commercial TV networks regarding the coverage of the trial, the first of its kind in the country's telecommunications and broadcast industry worked long and hard for the rehabilitation of the sequestered network, which is now up for privatization. .

Ramon Ang, president of San Miguel Corporation, earlier said the company is interested in the the privatization of IBC-13 and RPN 9. Any venture into TV will provide synergies with SMC's telecommunication business. The conglomerate owns Liberty Telecom, Eastern Telecommunications Phils. Inc., and Bell Telecommunications. The two established networks have already signed up the major stars, so IBC may now have to build up its own roster of popular players, will likely raise the floor price for Channel 13. We need to make from P25 million to P30 million a month to keep it afloat. We're barely making half of that. We have to cut costs by cost measures and introducing new programs, Ms. Boots said. There is also steady increase in all-day viewership and its morning belt is consistently at double-digit share levels. The Senate's decision to allow one more commercial television channel to cover the impeachment trial of President Aquino has sparked another bitter corporate war behind rival networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Analysts said that Viva Entertainment's blocktime agreement with IBC 13 makes sense because it could reach a coverage and in preparation for a possible acquisition of IBC 13 assets for making big-budget. We're beating ABS-CBN 2 and GMA 7 in the same time slots. IBC is the No.3 slot in the network with Viva-TV programming, Canoy told Inquirer Entertainment. IBC became more aggressive for surging ahead in the ratings. She added that things are looking up for the company as non-primetime sales for programs aired before 5 p.m. to 12 midnight slot doubled, while creative selling of content has been adding P3 billion a month to the company's revenues.

We believe that ABS-CBN and GMA are both doing well in serving their respective markets. So we're dedicated to focus our efforts to the market segment that like to watch local drama series during primetime," Mr. Canoy said now have the market-driven strategies by integrating programming, merchandising and sales that IBC-13 ran a TV plug for the station, amid the station's aggressive ads and promo.

Pointed out the network's progress in terms of viewership and audience share versus the other competing stations of the two giant networks. "To date, IBC-13 is at its highest level in the morning block with close to 23% audience shares and is at a close fight with network giants ABS-CBN and GMA with both having 26.07% and 27.2% audience shares, respectively. Earlier reports said IBC-13's assets and franchise were valued at P1.2 billion while RPN-9's franchise was estimated at P800 million while registered a net income of P1.30 billion for the full year 2011 in privatization said IBC Board of Directors, while news media reported that ABS-CBN net income plummeted to P2.4 billion and GMA Network net income plummeted to P1.72 billion in the same period and revenue from P12 million of IBC.

IBC-13 became the country's No.3 station announced new programs and a roster of stars. It has since been called the Kapinoy network with the battle despite the dominance of giant networks (GMA-7 is Kapuso and ABS-CBN is Kapamilya as well as TV5 is Kapatid), conducted by the Kantar Media. As such, IBC-13 continues to be viewed by the industry as a network of value. This is clearly manifested in the latest evening primetime survey undertaken by Kantar Media, the firm which now surveys TV ratings. While the GMA and ABS-CBN networks easily grabbed the two top spots, with 30.5% and 20.9% of all viewing households, respectively, IBC-13 now garnered 15.8%, which is significant, especially if compared with TV5's 14.6%.

Despite a decline in viewership, the new production cost was attributed to the company's decision to improve new Viva-TV primetime programming on IBC through big-budget programs as Kapinoy, it introduced a new genre in Philippine primetime television. Viva Entertainment will upgrade IBC-13 nationwide as part of deal giving a blocktime from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight, seven days a week. To be aired are sports events such as the Professional Basketball Association league tournaments. The first involves 50 hours of airtime on Channel 13 and the second involves 10 additional hours, including five hours primetime, plus all the breakspots during primetime. If the buyer values ratings, he would view the Viva contracts as even beneficial, she says. It would also give the buyer time to work on his own programming and intend to engage Channels 2 and 7 in areas where they're strong like producing new teleseryes during primetime. Our audience is very young, so we come up with kid stuff like anime.

The current peso-to-dollar exchange rate helped to complicate the net's problems. Once the country's top purveyor of Viva programs, IBC-13 got hit by a double whammy when the Asian crisis rendered foreign programs too expensive. Advertisers also cut their placements in more Viva-TV shows by 100%, IBC-13 programs that had cheaper rates and higher viewership. He added presented the entertainment media that increase in advertising revenues of IBC-13 offers a new Viva-TV primetime lineup, led by the No.1 phenomenal animated fairy-serye Winx Club is No. 1 in the ratings and has generated more advertising proves that Smile Dong Hae (GMA) and Precious Hearts Romances: Pintada (ABS-CBN) can be beaten, along with the basketball games of PBA, No.1 phenomenal international game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, new star-studded teleserye Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy, new telenovela María Isabel and Teresa and primetime Korean drama I Need Romance which fills up to the television network's primetime schedule.

"Advertising revenues will more than double this year compared to last year," he said, adding that the ratings of Viva-TV's hit shows on IBC are doing very well that many continue to place advertisements during the time slots when these are shown, it introduced a new genre in Philippine primetime television.

"We were already have Pinoy to be a strong third among all TV stations, we were able to compete with the big networks to become number one during weekday and weekends," Mr. Canoy told reporters last week.

Canoy said the newest imported Japanese anime series every Saturday like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurohan and Kirarin which is dubbed in Filipino. Yuppies and young kids still are crazy about Japanese anime series. The new popular sports: the top-rating boxing-matches like The Main Event and Donaire Flashback and coverage for basketball league NBA and PBA.

Canoy was especially keen on the networks newest successful asianovelas are Wife Returns, Romance Town and I Need Romance, a Korean drama on Viva-TV since Filipino viewers acquired with KBS, MBC, SBS and tvN. It occupied the top spot in its time slot and it became so popular that the network's competitors to buy similar programs and shows. He said IBC-13 accounted for 10% of the total advertising load in the industry with a total of 130 advertisers in 2012, including the big advertisers like PCSO, DOH (Department of Health), Unilever, P&G, Colgate, Unilab, Nestle, Wyeth, San Miguel Corporation, Pfizer, Alaska, Novellino Wines, Universal Robina Corporation, Ajinomoto, Johnson & Johnson, Smart, PLDT, Globe, Rebisco, KFC, Lamoian, Pepsi Cola, Charmee Pantliners, Pure Foods, Jollibee and McDonald's.

Despite a decline in their telenovela viewership, new popular Mexican soap opera of the newest imported telenovelas called Mar de Amor and Teresa, now is No.1 in the ratings and has generated more advertising in its first month as the Spanish telenovela on Viva-TV while Pinoy viewers acquired with Televisa, and used to watching popular soap series in imports of Mexico, Korean and Taiwanese, he said.

Mr. Vic del Rosario said Viva-TV's local version of the game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, has become the No.1 most watched TV program in Mega Manila (Metro Manila and nearby provinces).

The show, hosted by Christopher de Leon, now airs from Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 9 p.m., starting to gain more viewers. The audience share of Who Wants to be a Millionaire? just new phenomenally. It now has an average of one million viewers per week, Mr. Rosario declared. Since then, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? number one in its timeslot in Mega Manila," he added. The TV executive said the show airing phenomenal successful game shows The Weakest Link, is making a strong showing as well in its 7:30 p.m. timeslot, is hosted by Richard Yap. "We are very pleased that the show is gaining ground against GMA's Aso ni San Roque, and ABS-CBN's Princess and the Pea in the ratings race," Mr. Rosario said.

He said Viva-TV is also gaining a strong following every Sunday, with the No.1 teen drama anthology Dear Heart, reality show 2NE1TV, basketball league PBA, and the talent search Born to be a Star scoring large ratings numbers for the TV network.

Alongside from its improved ratings during primetime, Mr. Rosario said IBC-13 is also gaining ground in the Viva programming block, with its Filipino-dubbed animated series gaining a strong following.

"It was the localized version of the animated series Winx Club from Rainbow S.r.l become the No.1 phenomenal fairy-series that first made IBC-13 number one in the prime time block than Smile Dong Hae (GMA) and Precious Hearts Romances: Pintada (ABS-CBN)," Mr. Rosario said a worldwide phenomenon. Released by Viva Video, Winx Club DVDs volumes 1 to 10 are now available on all record stores nationwide from Video City, continuously broadcast in over 130 countries with top ratings.

Hosts of more Viva-TV shows on IBC who helped pick out the raffle winners were: Anja Aguilar (Dear Heart, Born to be a Star), AJ Muhlach (5 Girls and Daddy), Cristine Reyes and Dingdong Dantes (Esperanza), Richard Yap (The Weakest Link) and Christopher de Leon (Who Wants to be a Millionaire?).

Former Ch 2 talents beef up IBC-13 slots Edit

September 27, 2012

IBC-13 HAS SOUGHT THE HELP OF FORMER ABS-CBN employees to beef up its new programming as the Kapinoy network will get a better chance at beating rival networks with ABS-CBN and GMA, according to network president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa. Roa identified Maria Ressa, former ABS-CBN vice-president for news and current affairs, as IBC-13's officer in charge for news while Boots managed to make her presence felt in the television industry and Freddie M. Garcia, former ABS-CBN president and CEO, and independent director, is now as IBC's vice-chairman.

Snooky Serna as the broadcast journalists, who used to the ABS-CBN talent for a Filipina film and television actress, is now the anchor of the hour-long flagship news program Express Balita at 6:30 p.m. with Henry Omaga-Diaz. Serna was a last resurfaced on ABS-CBN soap operas of show business as new career while Snooky become IBC's newscaster while projecting a new image, more corporate - looking this time.

As early as now, the new team is already infusing changes in the news department, Boots told Inquirer Entertainment on Friday. The shows now have more public service segments. They are now more responsive to the audience and more interactive.

Also part of the new IBC news team is Liezl Castro, former news anchor for ABS-CBN, Robert Arevalo, a former carrier of ABS-CBN and Jun del Rosario, former reporter of Hoy Gising!, and also Larry Ng, a former anchor for ABS-CBN.

Alfie Lorenzo, formerly a reporter for dzMM, is now a writer of Linawin Natin with Jarius Bondoc, a public affairs program aired Monday nights, also with Snooky, a public service program aired every Friday nights.

Also part of the spruce-up is extending the airtime of Express Balita from 30 minutes to a full hour, Boots pointed out. Meanwhile, broadcast journalist and field senior reporter Jess Caduco, he is now enters the late-night newscast Ronda Trese at 11:30 p.m.

This is just the first phase. Viewers should watch out for more, she said. Right now, it's important that we first build a credible image for our news team. With Maria and Snooky's help, we can solidify our platform.

Since June 2011, Boots added, IBC 13's international channel IBC Global has been available in Europe, Middle East, Canada, North Africa, Japan, Asia, Guam, Singapore, Hong Kong, Europe, Australia and the United States on Dish Network. For this project, the network tied up with Pilipinas Global Network, Ltd.

Next on the drawing board, Boots said, is the strengthening of the network's entertainment programming as well as from IBC Classics. A leading FM radio stations iDMZ 891 FM become the #1 internet dance mix radio in the Philippines, iDMZ 891 FM has the target for urban music (hip-hop and R&B), dance music and remixed music in the Asian market and mass market.

Boots denied rumors that IBC-13 is interested in getting senior vice president for Star Magic (ABS-CBN talent center) Johnny Manahan to help. But she hinted on talking with a director who is responsible for a number of box-office hits for ABS-CBN.

Channel 13 turns third network as the Kapinoy network Edit

October 9, 2012

Thus declared Boots Anson Roa, president and CEO of the state-run Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation for Channel 13, which is up for privatization this year, is now No.3 behind the giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA, according to the survey in AGB Nielsen-Media Research.

The privatization of sequestered TV stations RPN 9 and IBC 13 was originally set by the Privatization and Management Office (PMO), who monitors the privatization program said the sale of IBC, while Channel 13 will now have to market the program as position the No.3 station in the country.

We need to make the station more viable, Boots told Inquirer Entertainment in an interview at the IBC-13 office in Broadcast City last week. We want people to know [that], pending privatization, we are beefing up our programming. Additionally, the network also relaunched a new advertising campaign and brand name Kapinoy, which emphasized the new IBC lineup as being more distinct and new than what was being aired by its competitors to increase our audience share and our ratings at the time.

Admin. supervisor and production chief Dalyn Panoso, the station manager in monitoring and checking income and expenses of the station and attend personnel complaints and other work related problems. Directs TV programs, produces and edits all audio/video materials like plugs, commercials, promos, station ID, feature and documentary stories, and do camera works We want people to know that will not be sold because privatization is good, we are beefing up our cultural and current events programming while the network battle despite the dominance of the two giant networks, according to the chairman Eric Canoy and vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz, appointed by President Noynoy Aquino.

Boots is confident that privatization will not get in the way of the reprogramming they will not be sell. If the shows are good, Im sure the prospective buyer will take them into consideration, she said, couldn't really put her stamp on the nation's programming and even the non-prime hours were sold to blocktimers, like religious groups and telemarketing outfits. Everybody who started with Channel 13's became famous as newscasters, directors, writers and talents even begin to name all of them. At the IBC headquarters at Broadcast City in Diliman, Lito detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in the market. Also, IBC's FM radio stations iDMZ 891, which is now have the Asia's No.1 urban music and danze mix radio will made of an Asian market and mass market for dance music with the upscale target market of the 15 to 40 age bracket and most upscale audience from the A, B, C and D classes.

For women

As the two giant networks offers big-budgeted teleseryes, reality shows, noontime entertainment and other mass-oriented productions, Boots said IBC-13 was determined to improve prime time programming (This month will be very exciting), when it propping up its non-prime time hours with three new shows, while IBC become more aggressive with surging ahead in the ratings.

Cooltura is an educational program for the Filipino culture in the Philippines from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao, according to Tessie Taylor, sales and marketing for programming, and is hosted by Cathy Eigenmann-Bordalba every Monday to Friday at 10:30 a.m.

Nora Mismo is a public service program that links up families with domestic problems and government agencies that can assist them, Nora aims to help the poor and disadvantaged by linking them up with sources of assistance from the public and private sectors. Families

Kids

Premieres from Mondays to Fridays at 3:30 p.m., before the children's television program Barney and Friends.

Eskwela Bulilit, a highly educational show designed for Filipino children, is hosted by child wonder Sharlene San Pedro, airs Saturdays at 7:30 a.m.

If, we now have programs geared toward the male and female audience, specifically mothers and fathers. In the daytime, it's mostly families who watch television, Boots explained. At night, we address more boys, girls and kids audience by airing sports shows, we also gained more viewers. The goal for creating this show was to increase the commercial value of the government-owned IBC 13, which was up for sale as part of the Philippine Government's privatization efforts was eventually bought by Viva Productions, Inc., which does the TV and radio coverage for the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA).

IBC 13 now supplements its monthly income with its earnings from Viva and other block timers, as well as with RPN 9's rental of the facilities, provided new programming of Viva, packaged it and promoted it. Currently on air is popularity tournaments the NBA on Viva-TV and PBA on Viva-TV for basketball league, phenomenal fairy-serye Winx Club, game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, newest talent search Born to be a Star, anime like Crayon Shin Chan and Cyborg Kurochan, imported asianovelas like I Need Romance as well as new telenovelas like María Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor, they have helped IBC 13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings.

According to Boots, Viva Entertainment, which has a programming contract with IBC-13, is responsible for the network's primetime hours from 5 p.m-12 midnight where the PBA games are shown.

Viva Communications, Inc.

Boots said she recently consulted Viva chairman and CEO Vic Del Rosario on how to reprogram said hours, which supplies 50 hours of sports and other programming per week to IBC bought a huge amount of airtime in primetime for a good price from reading the papers. Right now, what you see on primetime are basically the PBA games and the Viva programs that you also see on IBC viewers on a more mass-based level with shows. There's because those programs already have a target market, captive market, Asian market and now have a mass market to concentrate on the A, B and C markets.

She said the network felt it needed to tweak the interest in the Asian market not only the A, B and C markets, but also of viewers on a more mass-based level with shows.

I can't divulge right now what the programming thrust will be. Viewers should watch out for this, said Boots.

IBC-13 goes TV on its nown terms

December 22, 2012

RPN and IBC, heretofore sequestered stations, will not be sold because it's still up for privatized and PTV will be converted into what could be the country's public broadcasting system akin to BBC.

Sequestered TV network IBC-13 won as the Best TV station in the 2012 KBP Golden Dove Awards. In her brief acceptance speech, IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa said: this is the first time in recent years that the best station award is being given to the two giant networks. "Kapinoy po this year"-Boots continued. "This is a victory for the major players." She gave due credit to the "men and women behind the success of IBC who has to work harder with equipment, resources, manpower and yet have achieved many feats." It has the government-sequestered stations RPN-9 and IBC-13.

The other major television networks in the Philippines that air commercial shows and primetime TV series, the new IBC chairman Eric Canoy said it one year ago when he ventured new business territory: IBC is working at it. Trying to be the best by challenging conventions and daring to be different in its programming to make a difference in the lives of others through its advocacies, with several other programs on the network also earning awards in their respective categories were sequestered by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) announcements from the PNoy administration. For a giant networks of ABS-CBN and GMA, the local TV's No.3 slot is now ruled by IBC-13, TV5 and Studio 23.

Channel 13 started broadcasts in 1961 under Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the tri-media conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by the late Andres Soriano. The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao. In the 1970s, IBC launches the color transmission named Vinta Color named after the Vintas from Zamboanga, the third network in the Philippines to convert to all-color broadcasts. Dick Baldwin was the station's first owner, and programming first consisted of mostly foreign programs from CBS, and a few local shows. As of February 1, 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry. Become the number 1 television network IBC-13 since from 1977 to 1988 while their studio equipment, cameras, lighting and props are useless, dilapidated and very old, cash and budgets has controlled employees.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation, new administrators meant new management.

Last Friday, IBC, which runs the flagship Channel 13 in Metro Manila will now go back to the glory days gathered its friends from the press to celebrate its win and to unveil and revealed its new program slate. Network executives were led by vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz who keynoted the affair. Ocampo Cruz cited IBC's escalated efforts to strengthen the network's financial muscle to finance its programming, privatization and expansion plan with the administration of president Noynoy Aquino. It was at this point that the network began to decline in terms of ratings and revenues. This may tie-up with Viva Entertainment, which is owned by Vic Del Rosario, Jr. Viva has a programming contract with IBC-13.

Since both ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are claiming that they are No.1, Ms. Roa of IBC also said that now their aim is to be the No.2 TV station in the country. Viva-TV continues to reign on primetime hours from 5:00pm to 12:00mn.

IBC claims a new program slate described by chairman Eric Canoy as an unrivaled suite of children, entertainment and news and public affairs programs whose broad appeal crosses age, gender, and socio- economic class. She said the network believes that there are audiences looking for true innovatives to formula programs and to formats and that there are markets out there with a broad repertoire of tastes and interests and with penchant for original, out-of-the-box ideas. This is the audience to whom IBC wants to serve its multi-faceted menu of the sequestered company's board members, a new hope shines the network which pioneered various genres in TV production as IBC remains a network with its innovative, creative core intact and aggressive. You require people not only on-cam talents but also the backroom, writers, directors and cameraman," he said.

In a joint letter to the Malacañang, the IBC Employees Union (IBC-EU) and IBC Supervisors Directors Union (SDU) asked President Benigno Noynoy Aquino III to prioritize the privatization of IBC 13 to ensure that the company is managed professionally and members of the IBC Board of Directors. Vic del Rosario, a Viva's chairman and CEO, is using the formula to boost IBC-13's programming power hopes to turn the bottom performer, said that the station still has commercial value despite its contract with Viva Entertainment.

Boots, during the PNoy administration, when it began gradually paying its debts, and tempering the unrest among its labor sector. Under Boots, IBC-13, for the first time, started making gains in viewership. It reached the number 3 position among TV networks at the some point of giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA 7, according to the survey of AGB Nielsen Media Research.

IBC has done it before and it's doing it again. Living out its passion to do its own thing. Reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Our regular showing full-length Tagalog blockbuster films on primetime and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 from the classic popular hit shows like Iskul Bukol which has a TV sitcom accross all channels, Chicks to Chicks and TODAS which first brought comedy to television, the Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, a first showbiz talk show on primetime back in the early '70s, Johnny Weismuller as the role of Tarzan for a series, Sic O'Clock News as the gag show with Jaime Fabregas and Ces Quesada in the '80s, Lucky 13 is a first-ever game

IBC opens 2013 year as the number 3 TV network in the Philippines

February 8, 2013

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), the Philippines' government-owned sequestered radio and television network, traditionally considered an also-ran in Philippine television, opened the year 2013 now a strong number 3 on top as more Filipinos across urban and rural homes all over the country tuned in to its programs last January, with a total day share of 25%, or seven points higher than ABS-CBN's 40% and GMA's 33%, based on data from Kantar Media.

Actress and former Washington diplomat Boots Anson Roa, IBC-13 president and CEO for a top honcho and chairman Eric Canoy. The network is still sequestered, and Boots admitted that it's still up for privatization.

The company bought new camera, editing equipment, 15 vehicles that will be used as crew cabs and service vehicles, and two electronic news- gathering vans that would allow it to make live coverage or reportage.

Kantar Media uses a nationwide panel size of 1,300 urban and rural homes that represent 60% of the total Philippine TV viewing population, while AGB Nielsen reportedly has 1,100 homes based solely in urban areas that represent only 30% of the Philippine TV viewing population of the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) will buying the state-owned television networks as People's Television (PTV) along with Radio Philippines Network (RPN) and Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC) wanted to privatize boost the country's coffers in Aquino Administration for president Noynoy Aquino. Boots also revealed that the network's franchise was granted by Congress very recently, after the network had operated for more than 43 years.

During the Aquino administration, the network was then being beset by gigantic deficits, low morale and labor unrest gradually paying its debts, and tempering the unrest among its labor sector. Under Boots, IBC-13, for the first time, started making gains in viewership. It reached the number 3 position among TV networks at some point.

IBC-13 continued to rule key territories Balance Luzon (all areas in Luzon outside Mega Manila) with a total day audience share of 28% vs ABS-CBN's 41% and GMA's 37%; Visayas, with an even wider lead of 15% vs ABS-CBN's 47% and GMA's 27%, and in Mindanao with 18% vs 52% and 22% with the flagship news program Express Balita is a national TV rating with 36.5% and Ronda Trese with 25.5%.

This dominance was mainly driven by IBC-13's two of top caliber drama teleseryes, including the number one most-watched program from phenomenal fairy-serye Winx Club with 46.3%, phenomenal game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? has a TV rating of 39.7% and The Weakest Link with 40.4%, Esperanza with 30.6% and 5 Girls and Daddy with a national TV rating of 42.8% also in telenovelas Rosalinda with a national ratings of 45.2% along with PBA with our 50.7% during Wednesday to Friday, 34.9% for Saturdays and 48.9% for Sunday prime time while weekend shows are Pop Pixie now is number one for 22.4%, Cyborg Kurochan is a number one in anime got 23.1%, NBA now has the number one of 30.4%, My Daughter the Flower with 19.9%, Dear Heart now a number one drama anthology with 39.6% and Born to be a Star now a number one in a talent search show with 35.8%.

upon finding out that Bloom is not who they thought she was, the wizards leave Alfea threatening to capture the last fairy on Earth in the children's TV genre. They learn about a new evolved fairy transformation and power called Believix, which can only be accessed when people in a non-magic world (such as Earth) start to truly believe in magic and fairies. Faragonda also teaches them that there are endless infinite stages of fairy evolution and transformation. The Winx girls and Specialists have to track the Wizards of the Black Circle to Gardenia, Bloom's Earth hometown, and save the last terrestrial Earth fairy, Roxy-the fairy of animals-while trying to get people on Earth to believe in magic once again by helping the Winx Club to touch peoples heart and inner feelings.

Friday, April 12, 2013

Vic del Rosario, Jr., whose Viva Group of Companies is involved in movies, television, video, recording and live concerts, has more sports broadcasting on IBC, Viva Sports is a blocktime producer handled the PBA and NBA.

Noted that Rosario made the announcement that its blocktime agreement with IBC-13 (through Viva-TV, which is under the partnership with Viva Entertainment become more aggressive recently after its surging ahead in the ratings for The Kapinoy Network from other networks like ABS-CBN and GMA. The NBA games on IBC are handled by Solar Entertainment and Viva bought airtime on Viva-TV as the block-timer of the Kapinoy network.

Source noted that Viva-TV would then move its coverage to IBC. Viva Sports, owner of the exclusive television coverage of the two of a professional basketball league PBA and NBA, like also in the making more money that the company is starting to pau the loans of Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. IBC improves its signal, which is in most provinces nationwide. The presence of the PBA and NBA games on IBC under the Viva-TV block will surely improve the network's sports programming.

When Viva Entertainment posted within that, they included their business article (as a link) detailing Rosario's announcement into a blocktime agreement turns more years. Viva, of course, is part of Viva Sports, which has been airing different sports competitions with the PBA and NBA games awarding the league's TV and radio rights. For the first time that Vic is actually promoting a sports programming. We've been transparent and upfront in all our dealings with the PBA, our advertisers, the media, and our colleagues in the industry.

The business post that the block-timing agreement with net profiting. It also made it known that any commitments that Viva-TV is on Channel 13. To liven things up, Vic is inviting movie and

TV stars to grace the event. Already, the following stars have confirmed their attendance at the Big Dome: Dingdong Dantes, Anja Aguilar, AJ Muhlach, Christopher de Leon, Edu Manzano, Nadine Lustre, Mario Maurer, Cristine Reyes, Ronnie Rickets, Jodi Sta. Maria and the concert queen of box-office Anne Curtis. As new IBC's commitment, says Rosario. "It is contained in an IBC Board resolution, a separate letter from IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa confirmed it."

Here are things that we know:

1. The PBA will now have The PBA All-Filipino Cup at the Smart Araneta Coliseum to kick-off May, which is in the middle of a matches, every Wednesdays and Fridays at 4:30-8:30pm, Saturdays at 7:30-9:30pm and Sundays at 4pm-8:30pm
2. The NBA will have the PBA Playoffs on May, will featuring the NBA players, showing every weekend from Saturdays at 5:30pm-7:30pm and Sundays at 12:15pm-2:45pm.
3. Top-rating and phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link, which become the million-peso prize in the two phenomenal game shows. A popular talent search show for the contest Born to be a Star for the singing star fans.
4. Viva-TV's blocktime with IBC 13 is from 5pm-12mn on weekdays (as well as IBC news programs from 6:30-7:30pm and 11:30pm-12mn), 2:30pm-12:30am on Saturdays, and 9:30am-12:30am on Sundays. This basing this on Viva-TV's April schedule grid.
5. The shedule for the Kapinoy network, they have flagship children's program for kids KapinoyLand which is the characters Mr. Kapinoy as the lead IBC mascots with Baby Kapinoy in a playground, pre-school, education, schools, kids, arts and kiddies, a top-of-the-hour news capsule IBC Headliners, and flagship news programs Express Balita at 6:30pm slot and Ronda Trese at 11:30pm slot after the Viva-TV block. On primetime that, telenovelas Teresa, Palabra de Mujer and Rosalinda, asianovelas My Daughter the Flower, teleserye Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy now is the hits, On weekends, they also have shows like anime programme in Japan are Crayon Shin Chan, Akazukin Cha Cha and Cyborg Kurochan in a hits as well as the Viva Tagalog movies, teen drama anthology series Dear Heart and comedy show Petra's Panniest. Basing this on IBC's April schedule grid.

As such, I believe that what is about to happen:

Viva-TV will now be incorporated into primetime programming block on IBC. When we know what need to be shown, you can make the viewership prime-time ratings from other networks. Considering is on IBC's schedule, will to in the Kapinoy shows. In the maintime, PBA coverage starts at 4:30pm-8:30pm every Wednesday, Thursdays and Fridays, 7:30pm-9:30pm on Saturdays (against the drama anthologies Maalaala Mo Kaya and Magpakailanman) and 4pm-8:30pm on Sundays (against the showbiz talk show The Buzz and HOT-TV) as well as the NBA games starts at 5:30pm-7:30pm on Saturdays (against the game shows Kapamilya Deal or No Deal and Celebrity Bluff) and 12:15pm-2:45pm on Sundays (against the Sunday musical variety shows ASAP 18 and Party Pilipinas), the IBC's flagship news programs Express Balita at 4:30pm slots and Ronda Trese at 11:30pm slots. This is probably in a noontime show Lunch Break starts at 12nn-2:30pm every Monday to Saturdays, counterpart It's Showtime! and Eat Bulaga!. More hits, to of the top-rating game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link, and popular talent search show Born to be a Star, which are block-timer of Viva Television, they have helped IBC-13 rise from its financial slump and mediocre ratings.

Thus, you might have been they were the NBA games shown on Basketball TV, Pinoy Extreme, Fox Sports Asia, Studio 23 and ABS-CBN as well as possibly the PBA games showing on AksyonTV, AKTV and Hyper from Sports5 in the broadcast rights. Viva-TV airing the NBA and PBA games now showing on IBC.

April 3, 2014

Joined the forces of Viva Sports and Solar Sports, IBC Sports is a major force in the area line-up of sports coverage with programming that includes the PBA and NBA basketball games, the boxing matches, billiards, the MMA fighter ONE FC and other events.

Singapore-based ONE FC announced was an exclusive partnership agreement with a broadcast deal of the Filipino-based media company Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC).

IBC is one of the leading media companies in the Philippines, with their flagship network IBC 13 currently is the country's number 3 station consisting of news and current affairs, sports shows along with basketball and boxing, and high-quality entertainment in one channel.

Under the deal, IBC 13 will broadcast one hour of ONE FC programming every Saturday at 8:30pm.

“On behalf of ONE Fighting Championship, I will like to warmly welcome back IBC 13 as a broadcast partner and thank their president Rey Sanchez for being such a strong supporter,” said Victor Cui, ONE FC CEO. “IBC 13 is a fantastic free-to-air broadcaster in the Philippines and ONE FC is excited at the opportunity to showcase our fighters every week to millions of homes throughout the country.”

“We are excited to have ONE Fighting Championship on IBC-13,” added Sanchez. “IBC-13 is proud to broadcast the best sporting in both the Philippines and the region and ONE FC puts on world-class entertainment that our viewers will enjoy. New Timeslot for Kapinoy Cinema this April 7

April 8, 2014

Kapinoy Cinema was moved to the late afternoons, with the intent of attracting more viewers.

For total quality entertainment, IBC has relaunched the local blockbuster movie slots daily. This also signals the birth of the team-up, a co-production venture of IBC with Viva Communications, Inc.

More than 300 films every year, more than 25 films each month and three films a week including showings and made-for-TV films of the big names in the movie industry is set to watch Kapinoy Cinema.

Last Monday, the first-time film aired on the twice-a-week movie of Kapinoy Cinema on IBC Channel 13 is Journey It Has Been starring Jenine Desiderio and Christopher de Leon raked in not only high ratings, but also several spots on Twitter’s trending topics.

Despite the impressive viewing numbers, IBC management was satisfied with its mid-afternoon, and as a result, they decided to move Kapinoy Cinema to a better timeslot in hopes of attracting more viewers.

Starting last Monday revamped its HapoNation afternoon lineup, introducing a movie block Kapinoy Cinema will now seen every Monday and Thursday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. and the original made-for-television films in 13 Original Movie at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays.

Consequently, Showbiz Star at 2 p.m., the afternoon family fantasy drama My Little Janella starring the child star wonder Abby Bautista at 2:30 p.m., the children's teleserye Frijolito starring the child actor Bimby Aquino-Yap at 3 p.m., the popular chinovela Amazing Twins and IBC's afternoon News and Current Affairs programs at 4 p.m. were moved to the earlier timeslots. Outside of the Greater Manila Area, Kapinoy Cinema will be seen at 4 p.m. during Monday and Thursday and 13 Original Movie on Tuesdays to make way for the regional versions of Express Balita.

The movie of Kapinoy Cinema to a new timeslot elicited a mostly Viva Tagalog movies reaction in social media. Most viewers fear that IBC management is using Kapinoy Cinema and 13

Original Movie in order to increase the ratings of the Taiwanovela Love You debuted strongly in its first week; Janella in Wonderland, the primetime fantasy drama series starring a teen darling princess Janella Salvador; Your Heart, My Love, the primetime drama series top-billed by the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and the box-office action star Raymart Santiago; and Crazy Little Thing Called Love, a primetime romantic dramedy series starring the primetime prince Dingdong Dantes and the primetime princess Cristine Reyes are also strongly, its ratings in its second week sharply, which consistently ranked in the top 15 in the rating.

The program will focus more on IBC Films and Viva Films' recent film releases in library for good measure, it will give viewers an opportunity to watch films they've never seen before in cinemas.

Viewers from the provinces also reacted at its 4:30 timeslot, fearing that the airtime of Kapinoy Cinema and 13 Original Movie may be cut short by the most regional broadcasts of Express Balita. Fortunately, the IBC Regional Group rectified the situation, and Kapinoy Cinema (Monday and Thursday) and 13 Original Movie (Tuesday) was moved to 4 p.m. for benefit of provincial viewers. Which means the basketball games of the PBA games on Wednesdays and Fridays from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. and 8 to 9:30 p.m. and the provincial TV viewers also quicks from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. and 6 to 6:30 p.m. Still, it hasto sacrifice of primetime Tagalized dramas: the popular Taiwanovela Love You, the top-rating telenovela La Madrastra and the hit Koreanovela My Love Patzzi during the primetime block as well and as a result, the Koreanovela in the mid-morning slot after the Anime Kapinoy block. Every Sunday at 10 a.m. is Viva Box Office (VBO) catering can also watch the movie featuring the recent films of Viva Tagalog blockbuster movies and Sunday at 11 p.m. is Sunday Sinemaks featuring the most action-packed blockbuster movies are the homegrown box-office action stars like Fernando Poe, Jr. (FPJ), Robin Padilla, Cesar Montano, Rudy Fernandez, Raymart Santiago, Eddie Garcia, Ronnie Ricketts, Jorge Esteban, etc, as well as TV specials and concerts.

The Kapinoy network has been producing a daily soap operas with the trend-setting mermaid fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, the trend-setting heavy drama serial Your Heart, My Love and the romantic dramedy series Crazy Little Thing Called Love for its primetime block, a time reserved for heavy drama soap operas as well. IBC-13 sponsored a dinner party during the Ad Summit Pilipinas 2014, which was graced by MVP and some of the network's stars—that including Drew Arellano, Dingdong Avanzado, Robi Domingo, Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago, Christopher de Leon, Marlo Mortel, Janella Salvador, Dingdong Dantes, Maricar Reyes, Cristine Reyes, Keempee de Leon, Jodi Sta. “Where trends point to declining TV viewing, one would assume content consumption. The truth is that it's actually increasing—but on digital and multi-screen,” he said.

The IBC chairman also quipped about IBC still being “number three.”

“The last time I spoke to the advertising community was a little over two years ago, in 2011. I said then that while ABS-CBN and GMA were quarreling over who's number one, IBC was clearly the undisputed number three in the industry,” Canoy said. “Today, I can confirm that we are still number three.”

Lyrics Edit

*Tomorrow morning if you wake up
And the sun does not appear
I... I will be here
If in the dark we lose sight of love
Hold my hand and have no fear
'Cause I... I will be here*

Chorus:

*I will be here
When you feel like being quiet
When you need to speak your mind
I will listen
And I will be here
When the laughter turns to crying
Through the winning, losing and trying
We'll be together
'Cause I will be here
Tomorrow morning if you wake up
And the future is unclear
I... but I will be here
Just as sure as the seasons are made for change
Our lifetimes are made for years
And I... I will be here*

Chorus:

I will be here

So you can cry on my shoulder

When the mirror tells us we're older

I will hold you

And I will be here

To watch you grow in beauty

And tell you all the things you are to me

I will be here, hmmm

I will be true to the promise I have made

To you and to the one who gave you to me, woah

I... I will be here

And just as sure as the seasons are made for change

Our lifetimes are made for years

So I... I will be here

We'll be together

Ohh, 'cause I will be here

But I will be here

Maria (Maya dela Rosa) and Richard Yap (Sir Chief), a teen sweetheart princess Janella Salvador is now officially a certified Kapinoy after signing a new contract with her home network IBC. She just graduated 7th grade in St. Paul, Pasig last year.

Daughter of the singer Jenine Desiderio, singer-teen actress Janella Salvador is one of the showbiz royalties in this batch as she signed up her new contract with her the biggest and most trusted TV network in the country IBC on Friday night (January 24, 2014), at the Broadcast City in Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City.

In real life, Janella is the daughter of actress-singer Jenine Desiderio and singer Juan Miguel Salvador.

The 15-year-old Janella Salvador is now very grateful with her IBC family after she signed a contract with the government-sequestered TV station. Present at the event during the contract signing were IBC executive such as President and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, COO for Entertainment Laurenti Dyogi, IBC broadcast head Rey Sanchez, her talent manager of Kapinoy Talent Center Jeffrey Jeturian and Salvador's parents to accept the project. IBC chief content entertainment officer Laurenti Dyogi said that when the network was considering young actresses for the project, she had Janella for the lead role.

Inspired her mother, Janella hopes is slated to do star in her own Kapinoy fantaserye with a new working title Janella in Wonderland where she play a mermaid girl role. Many fans hope that leading man Marlo Mortel will be part of this show and another Kapinoy Talent Center artist will play Janella's leading man. Janella will also have her own shows for the project, including a fantaserye and a sitcom gag show.

She hopes to direct her first TV commercial, her feature film, her immediate goal is to further expand her horizons as a teen actress. She considers Janella in Wonderland a "huge milestone" in her career.

Marnella fans should work hard to promote Marlo and Janella tandem so that the management will change their decision and push through with a show for Marnella. She is also likewise playing a mermaid tale princess of the sea in Janella in Wonderland, the new TV fantasy opera on IBC that would replace the child-friendly fantaserye My Batang Momay.

In an interview with IBC, Janella Salvador was quoted as saying "Oh yes, anjan na sila Kapinoy, kamusta naman certified Kapinoy superstar po talaga," Janella said. "Oh my gee, i'm very grateful sa IBC kasi very welcome ako lagi dito and well-loved and appreciated" She hopes to see herself starring in a movie and teleserye in time. And now that she has signed up a contract of IBC to topbill her new primetime fantaserye titled Janella in Wonderland at 7:30pm, this affords a chance to showcase her emotions from her tapped reservoir of young talent. Meanwhile, the long-running soap opera Your Heart, My Love which airs on weeknights at 9:30pm top-billed by Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago, Showbiz insiders predicted a rising major superstar in her teen star Janella, a daughter of her mom Jenine Desiderio. Thus far, she has lived to that vision.

She had the box-office blockbusters for her movies sheer adorable presence in weekly variety shows made her screaming fans beg for more. Signs which may have triggered an all-out support from The Kapinoy Network to let her top bill a newest fantasy serial of cinematic proportions and to give her an acting challenge unprecedented by any of her showbiz contemporaries.

Under the guidance of award-winning directors like Joyce E. Bernal, expect Janella to turn in a promising performance sure to make her the newest fantaserye superstar of 2014.

IBC to boost ratings with 3 new primetime series

January 25, 2014

Building on success as it revolutionizes Philippine TV through game-changing programming, the no.3 network IBC is gearing up to boost its rating standing with the launch of 3 new shows, and some changes on the network's privatization by the government and new programming operations for new faces to join the network's stable of new and young superstars. Boots Anson-Roa, IBC's president and CEO, witnessed the signing of a contract of Channel 13 claimed that they will air on weekdays.

The station will broadcast using a 60kW transmitter recently in the trade industry through an event attended by more than 13,000,000 movers and shakers from the advertising business as well as the superstars from the network's upcoming programs. The big trade relaunch showcased IBC's new programming lineup, which was well received by the mass audience and this is the Philippine Star omitted the network from their TV Guide and the Manila Bulletin informed. The sales and marketing department will also advertise programs in mass publications (newspaper, magazine and billboards).

In the news department, probably make a rule of thumb of having global news of FOX News Channel as to international news. Prioritize more on the news on government's branches, the happenings over the country (a balance of inside and outside Manila).

IBC up for trying new things

January 26, 2014

The Kapinoy Network IBC will be launching "out-of-the-box-shows" this year, in a bid to woo more Pinoy viewers and for the shows to enjoy higher ratings.

Moreover, the new president, Noyon Aquino III, may try to limit government-controlled stations like IBC in their purchases of Kapinoy programs expected to be hit by the peso's decline to entertainment capital has in store for the global TV market.

In the last quarter of 2013, the network launched primetime and weekend shows starring their biggest talents of superstars like Mutya Orquia, Janella Salvador, Cristine Reyes, Dingdong Dantes, Mario Maurer, Erich Gonzales, AJ Muhlach, Nadine Lustre, Anja Aguilar, Robi

Domingo, Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago, among others. These shows rated enough to make some Pinoy audience "look their way."

IBC President and CEO Boots Anson-Roa said at last year's press conference for the stars Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, "IBC-13 is willing to try new concepts, new things and new people. We really want to provide quality, innovative and multi-awarded shows that will be exciting."

IBC-13 is going to launch Born to be a Superstar that is hosted by singing champions are Sam Concepcion, Anja Aguilar, Marvin Ong and Khalil Ramos with judges Dingdong Avanzado, Paula Bianca, Joey Albert and Gino Padilla. The executive said the with a new concept of reality shows.

"There's a big reality TV show we're putting known around the world. We're going to produce movies. I've seen a number of them and they're all very good so watch out for that. There's a lot. There's also an adaptation from the US. We're going to adapt US scripts to local scripts using local actors and local actresses. It's going to be more exciting and bigger this year!"

"One of the innovations we are looking at really is how we can actually work with different advertising agencies. Because ideas and concepts come from anywhere and it could come from internally, TV people, movie people so why not advertising agencies? It's a win-win for both because for advertising companies it's a good way for them to enter content and for us it's our chance to tap on creative capabilities," said Boots.

Laurenti Dyogi, IBC's Chief Entertainment Content Officer, said that the Kapinoy Network prepared for 2014.

"This time we want to show you the kind of programming that we have challenging because we are offering programs with a different design. Where other networks have horizontal programming every night, IBC-13 dares to be different by doing horizontal and vertical programmings because we have varied contents, entertainment, news and current affairs, and sports all to be delivered on primetime," she shared.

As regards their homegrown talents, IBC-13 will add to their growing pool of artists.

Boots pointed out, "Everyone who is open to joining us about getting talents. The talents have to fit what we're trying to project a perfect fit for IBC-13. It has to be sort of a good combination. So long as it's there; right values, same values, same beliefs and great talents why not." The Kapinoy Network begins the year with a bang with a child star wonder Mutya Orquia in the primetime inspirational fantaserye Carita de Angel, a teen sweetheart princess Janella Salvador top-billed in her mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland, and Claudine Barretto and Raymart

People are accustomed to entertainment shows on TV. The concept of entertainment revolved around dancing, singing, tele-dramas and showbiz gossips. For all you know, the mere intention to delight the viewers inflicted negative effect on the society. Some shows infused the normalization of two-piece apparels worn by dancers on national broadcast. Other shows concept of "revenge" when treated by other people. Come on admit it, some cartoons and anime shows have that as the highlight.

Meanwhile, starting February 24, Express Balita and Ronda Trese will now be broadcast inside a newly-built studio of Studio 4 in IBC News Room at the IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City. In addition, the closing ceremonies of the 2014 Winter Olympics will be aired Monday midnight on IBC and its affiliates coming to IBC with further details coming in future articles.

It has been said that the way IBC-13 can be relevant today is when they introduce an already established norms in television viewership. So far, it has paid off despite committing several missteps. And with more innovative and creative quality programs coming in the succeeding weeks, expect IBC to expand its effort in bringing a different kind of programming to more knowledgeable viewers.

Fifty-four year high for IBC

March 7, 2014

A grand celebration awaits as the government-owned sequestered media conglomerate IBC-13, the country's third ranking and most-watched commercial television station since RPN-9 and TV5 also in the number 3 spot, The Kapinoy Network celebrated on its 54th anniversary last March 1 and climb to the top of the ratings summit in the past couple of months.

A new look and a new beginning of The Kapinoy Network IBC burst a number 3 with a spirit of renewal raring to take on new challenges in the Philippine broadcast industry, a network that will truly.

Today, things are changing for IBC. A new board of directors has come in, appointed by President Noynoy Aquino III, with Eric Canoy, who presides over Radio Mindanao Network, as the chairman, and Lito Ocampo Cruz, former VP of E! Entertainment TV Philippines for RMN, as the network's vice-president.

Compared to the country's two giant networks, ABS-CBN and GMA-7, the sequestered TV station follows a free-for-all environment where talents to work. At the IBC headquarters at Broadcast City in Diliman, Lito detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in store intends to increase its cultural, current events and children's programming.

As part of AO No. 26, IBC very recently handed over its archives to the Film and Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP). The old films forming part of our cultural heritage will be preserved and restored in a single national archive. There is tremendous cultural significance in that for us, "because I believe the Golden Age of Television started with 13," declared Tessie Taylor, the sales and marketing department head.

After proving its worth as an emerging competitor to the two network giants with the primetime top-raters like Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Crazy Little Thing Called Love, La Madrastra, My Love Patzzi, Whattaboys, Sandy's Romance, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Happy TODAS, DMZ-TV, Last Fool Show, top-rating news program Express Balita, top-rated game shows such as Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and The Million Second Quiz, reality show Born to be a Superstar, PBA and NBA, IBC gears up to discovery and developing its own talents, idols and superstars through the talent management and developing group Kapinoy Talent Center. The Kapinoy Network has also announced its plan to produce films to compete against the more established production companies and a big roster of talents.

IBC, which recently introduced a new catchline, the Superstar Network, has been taking a maverick stance in revolutionizing local programming. The network's current line-up of shows - newscast at 6:30 p.m., teleseryes at night, teen romance-drama anthology on Saturday primetime, sitcoms, daily noontime show, game show, reality show and musical variety show on Sunday afternoon - reveals that it remains beholden to the existing template of rating programs on both 2 and 7. It seems 13 wants the public to know that their shows on the two other channels. The fact that it has been hiring on-cam and off-cam talents formerly associated with 2 and 7 rubs it in furthermore. The Kapinoy Network continues its plan to offer innovative and creative programs in Philippine television history.

Anime Kapinoy (IBC's morning block) which are specially targeted to the Bagong Pinoy anime enthusiasts has now featured sentai, tokusatsu and anime series like Super Pig (Monday to Wednesday at 9 a.m.), Kirarin (Thursday and Friday at 9 a.m.), Kamen Rider Fourze (weekdays at 9:30 a.m.), Cyborg Kurochan (weekdays at 10 a.m.) and Time Quest (Sundays at 8 a.m.) some of the Japanese television in anime fans.

In a press conference held recently for the network's programming, IBC president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa gave a short report on how their network have progressively become competition with other giant TV stations, especially on daytime, primetime and weekends, again we're gonna launch more sitcoms.

The "uptrend" anchored largely on Marlo Mortel and Janella Salvador's fantaserye Janella in Wonderland, which as of late has shaken up the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area. Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's teleserye Your Hear, My Love and Cristine Reyes and Dingdong Dantes' Crazy Little Thing Calld Love are also asserting muscle in their respective timeslots in the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area.

Ms. Boots said in his "progress report," IBC stands for innovation and creation, so we always come up with something brand new. We're very strong on weekday and weekend, on daytime and primetime, one thing we have to fill up in terms of the gap in the portfolio is late night.

The basketball fans with the 2014 PLDT Home TVolution PBA Commissioner's Cup which is recorded the highest-record breaking Filipino sports fans with Air21 Express vs. Milo Energy Drink (36.6%) and Alaska Aces vs. Talk 'N Text Tropang Texters (35.4%) scoring the viewership ratings. The local channel that the professional basketball league PBA and NBA are in the same station.

It's roster of the innovative TV programs enjoying some of the highest recorded primetime TV ratings is led by Born to be a Superstar, the station's number one reality show for the national singing contest hosted by the singing champions Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Marvin Ong and Khalil Ramos with a judges of the singers Dingdong Avanzado, Joey Albert, Paula Bianca and Gino Padilla. This weekend show reportedly beat ABS-CBN and GMA with The Biggest Loser Pinoy Edition Doubles and I-Witness during Saturdays and Gandang Gabi Vice and Kapuso Mo, Jessica Soho, in ratings, a triumph for The Kapinoy Network, in partnership with Viva Entertainment and started broadcasting in March 1, 1960. The network has changed the TV landscape of primetime by offering intelligent, entertaining and modern broadcasting concepts.

While IBC still largely banks on some of its borrowed network talents, the network maintains that inducing competition, merely helping the industry grow while helping artists make a name for themselves.

This concept is already a welcome for fans who want to see their favorite showbiz personalities paired with other talents. Lunch Break, IBC's long-running, top-rating and multi-awarded noontime variety show despite the shows able to have the exciting game portions with a live musical performances at lunch time. It is hosted by Ryan Agoncillo, Joy Viado and Annabelle Rama that exclude the stars represented by the same competitor of It's Showtime and Eat Bulaga! with their favorite serving of lunchtime funfare flavored with pure entertainment bringing on the best programs for a national television and international viewership.

IBC is doing otherwise, perhaps at least can build up its own network stars. Honing talents takes time and money, a business reality The Kapinoy Network in a position to fast-track at this stage of privatization efforts. In any case, the station has already achieved so much in its year of digital broadcasting.

"The positive feedbacks, all resulting from that of IBC-13's consistent ratings that remarkably hit as high as 50 percent in the first quarter of 2014, and the strongly increasing patronage from viewers, advertisers and celebrities are encouraging indicators that The Kapinoy Network has effectively appealed to the Pinoy's discerning taste. It is breaking from the formulaic and identical TV program concept," said Eric Canoy, the network's newest chairman of IBC is important to analyze competition's programming, ratings, movements, rates and personalities and use the generated data to develop sales strategies. IBC event that they appreciate the opportunity the network is giving to up and coming talents like them.

This is also the sequestered TV station, despite the ratings factor this Saturday nights gained by an all-male cult action sitcom Whattaboys, a teen romantic drama anthology Sandy's Romance, a top-rated family sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief which recently the today's top stars as leading lady Jodi Sta. Maria (Maya dela Rosa) and veteran actor Richard Yap (Sir Chief) and the all-male gag show Happy TODAS who have the potential to become TV stars, and the star-studded studio dance variety show DMZ-TV develop new prospects they feel will best suit the taste of its mass audiences to turn on the homegrown talents.

"There are some stars who are locked in a contract with Channels 2 and 7. We respect that. We only work with people who are free to render their services to IBC. That's the pool that we are tapping now."

"We're setting new milestones each week, as evidenced by the strong uptrend in all our day parts. Primetime urban and rural individual audience share reports that showed the trend-setting teen mermaid fantasy drama series Janella in Wonderland, a hit fantaserye top-billed by a teen sweetheart Janella Salvador and Marlo Mortel which has shaken up the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area recently posted in the record-breaking high in the audience share of 35.5% beating its rivals Honesto (34.2%) and Adarna (14.8%), followed by a soap opera primetime teleserye Your Heart, My Love starring the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and the box-office action star Raymart Santiago scored the national TV ratings of 21.5% in dominated of The Legal Wife (18.0%) and Rhadora X (12.4%). Meanwhile, launched the Philippine television version of the 2010 Thai film in a romantic dramedy Crazy Little Thing Called Love top-billed by the drama princess Cristine Reyes and the primetime king Dingdong Dantes premieres strongly ratings at the score of 11.4% rating than Aquino and Abunda Tonight (9.2%) and The Tim Yap Show (5.4%). Meanwhile, a hit primetime telenovela La Madrastra top-billed by the Mexican actress Victoria Ruffo scored the number 1 spot at 10.9% than its rival telenovela True Love (8.8%) and The Biggest Loser Pinoy Edition Doubles (6.3%), and the hit primetime Koreanovela My Love Patzzi starring the Korean teen superstar Jang Nara ranks the number 1 with 12.4% than Darling Sweetheart (10.1%) and A 100-Year Legacy (9.9%). All these 5 weeknight programs show an upwards trend in the ratings of evening soap operas, beating other teleseryes within its timeslot and inching its way toward number one," revealed Canoy.

"IBC is an open shop not only for on-cam talents but also people behind the scene - producers, directors, everybody can work with IBC as long as they have the drive for innovation," said Canoy.

"Kantar Media's overnight individual audience share reports showed Born to be a Superstar posing an unprecedented 44.6 percent audience response, which amounts to about three million viewers tuning in weekends, while Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? posted a 25.6% high in audience share on Saturday, followed by the Sunday night game show The Million Second Quiz which has been a 20.6% rating. All these weekend programs show an upwards trend in the ratings, beating other shows within its timeslot and inching its way toward number one," revealed Lito Ocampo Cruz, the network's executive vice-president.

The tie up consequently allowed the network to beef up its programming, which consequently boosted its chances to compete against ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Television viewing, at least in IBC's case, is certainly getting exciting on the local front as the station emerges as a major player that has broken the old network duopoly.

"IBC brings into the national TV program the best in Philippine entertainment. We are in the process of developing a new name that best defines IBC's famous personality like a Kapinoy superstars," Canoy said.

Details of IBC's new name of The Kapinoy Network will be revealed during the station's month-long anniversary celebration kicking off on March 8, Saturday. Watch out for that!

April 14, 2014

“It’s more offering, it’s a different way pero it’s satisfying to the viewers,” IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi says about the Kapinoy Network’s “horizontal and vertical” primetime programming. IBC will now airs teleseryes daily, more than other TV networks will air soap operas nightly.

Janella Salvador is the solo primetime princess topbill IBC’s fantasy drama Janella in Wonderland with a two leading men Marlo Mortel and Freddie Gutierrez while Claudine Barretto, the queen of Pinoy soap opera and Raymart Santiago, the king of Pinoy soap opera and box-office action star topbill IBC’s drama series Your Heart, My Love and primetime prince Dingdong Dantes, drama princess Cristine Reyes and primetime queen Maricar Reyes star in IBC’s romantic dramedy Crazy Little Thing Called Love

It ran a TV plug for the station, which back, the basic premise they had so many stations at that time. IBC-13 continues with its objective of giving Filipinos new offerings on television by maintaining its weekly evening programs every week. Let’s hope that will help revitalie Channel 13, now the new home of PBA and NBA.

Dyogi said it already a relief that IBC-13 managed to restructure its debts and secure a P300-million loan to acquire new equipment, including OB vans, ENG vans and SNG vans that could help it improve its news and sports coverage and compete with rivals ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

"In which as the competition, we'd b honest and fight the rival," he said. We will try to competing with Channels 2 and 7. We want to create a mass audience of our own as the number 3 television station."

"Channel 13 seeks to venture into new, innovative and creative ways to come up with not only good and entertaining programs, but also solid and value-oriented programs," Dyogi added.

"We know that for pragmatic reasons, most of our shows are earning so much, we continue to abide by our commitment to the public. That's no reason why we are here today."

Better position

Dyogi said IBC-13's strength remained in the areas of sports and entertainment entails high Ad rates.

IBC has class A-B-C-D-E viewers reach wide viewership in all audience classes. Just like ABS-CBN and GMA which do have class A to E viewers as well on their TV screen, relying just on movie reviews or other news connected to such. This movies are top-grosser solely because its audience can afford a big-screen moment. Same goes with its produced music albums, merchandise, concerts and events, most of its produced entertainment scenes are flop.

Not to mention, IBC has Global IBC, INN International, IBC News Network (INN), iBC Films, IBC Licensing and Merchandising, Kapinoy Talent Center, IBC Records, 93.5 Romance FM, DZTV Radyo Budyong 1386 and iDMZ 891 FM, Sagip-Kapinoy, Bantay Kapinoy, Pinoy Trese, IBC Mobile, Danze TV music, IBC interactive and IBC publishing among others that is truly unstoppable in Philippine entertainment.

"We continue to develop these areas of Filipino talents, although at this point financially viable, we will continue to create innovative and creative core intact programs that will continue to inspire people," he said to have more advertisers' putting a big chunk of their investment to the high-price rate.

Sold out movies, concert and events, rosters of highest paid artists in the country, mall tours and mall shows, sports events, activities in demand endorsers, active magazine cover girls and boys, bankable movie stars and Award-winning performers are the attestations that IBC artists.

"We are marking a significant milestone once more in the life of IBC-13 not only because we're coming up with new shows. IBC-13 reported earlier that it has been able to settle P200 million worth of debts, although 15% of its shares were still also the subject of a sequestration case of the Supreme Court. Commercializes more product and endorsements rather than putting numerous of their plugs on air.

Starting with the nightly drama series namely: a popular mermaid fantasy drama series Janella in Wonderland (Janella Salvador) with the highest rating and with the most TV commercials among the three shows, the romantic drama serials Your Heart, My Love (Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago, Christopher de Leon and Sandy Andolong) as show rates high and a romantic dramedy series Crazy Little Thing Called Love (Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes and Maricar Reyes).

Also, two new twice-a-week shows on their 6 p.m. and 8:45 p.m. spots are the Taiwanese drama Love You and the reality talented TV show K-Pop Star Hunt, respectively, the Kapinoy Network is once again introducing new shows that air only twice a week. "We are breaking the habits of the gabi-gabing kakapanood ng mga series," IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi told members of the entertainment press during the press conference on Friday night, April 11. Dyogi is also getting the best people to help Channel 13 with their management skills. Laurenti Dyogi head of IBC Entertainment TV told reporters that there was a clamor among TV viewers for the network to come up with its own nightly drama series similar to what other TV channels show at prime time.

The success of our drama anthologies on prime time like Sandy's Romance on Saturday nights has shown us that the audiences want to watch drama at night Mr. Dyogi said during a press conference last week.

That is why we at IBC-13 felt we are ready to mount an original major production like this and come up with our own dramaserye in fantasy and drama series to compete with the other series being aired by the other networks in a strategic attempt to keep viewers tuned in.

He described their current daily primetime block as a "mix of entertainment" for the convenience of viewers. IBC began airing its first fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, a first drama series Your Heart, My Love and the dramedy Crazy Little Thing Called Love on Monday to Friday night pitting the Canoy-led network head to head against the other major networks in its prime time programming.

"As I have mentioned before, ang programming ng IBC is like horizontal, where there is a daily programming, 'yong a mermaid fantasy drama series Janella in Wonderland (7:30 to 8:00 p.m.) completing its prime time programming lineup which is dominated by fantasy themed shows, the romantic heart-warming drama series Your Heart, My Love (9:30 to 10:00 p.m.) and the dramed romance Crazy Little Thing Called Love (10:00 to 10:30 p.m.), the hit telenovela La Madrastra (10:30 to 11:00 p.m.) and the popular, top-rating and award-winning Korean drama My Love Patzzi (11:00 to 11:30 p.m.)

"Then, starting 8:00 to 8:45, it becomes vertical.

"There's a political satire on Mondays (Sic O'Clock News Naman), the horror anthology series on Tuesdays (Shake, Rattle and Roll), the PBA basketball games on Wednesdays up to 9:30 p.m., the popular hit sitcom on Thursdays (Abra Gayuma), and again sports on Fridays up to 9:30 p.m.," he explained.

At twice-a-week night is at 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. is the Taiwanese drama Love You at 8:45 to 9:30 p.m. is the Korean reality talent competition K-Pop Star Hunt.

Apart from those primetime, the Kapinoy executive also mentioned the asianovelas from Korea, Taiwan, Chinese, Indonesia and Singapore. Dyogi explained, “Iba ang gusto i-offer ng 13.

“We know that when we give them [viewers] one-hour programs, one-hour dramas, there is more stories to tell. ‘Tapos sa susunod na gabi, iba naman ang susubaybayan mo.

DIFFERENT PROGRAMMING GRID. Meanwhile, box-office movie and TV director and writer Wenn V. Deramas further explained why IBC chose a different approach to its daily primetime programming.

He told the media, “Maipagkakaiba ng offer ng IbC sa uri ng programming grid na inaalay namin sa audience. “Ang programming grid ay lamang sa pagbabago ng oras o timeslot.

“Kundi pati ang pagdadagdag or pagbabago ng uri ng palabas na inihahain namin sa kakaibang uri ng programming grid. Direk Deramas also emphasized that IBC values its viewers.

“We always trust the audience na swak sa taste nila ang inihahain namin.

“We always hope na mayroong lugar sa puso, sa utak, at sa damdamin nila para sa pagbabago para sa uri ng mga programang inihahain namin sa kanila,” he ended. The sports programming IBC Sports line-up that including the PBA and NBA basketball, boxing matches and ONE FC. As of this, we’re first strengthening our weekend programming, daytime and primetime programming. They’re happy that the new shows they introduced last weekend all got a positive feedback: Cooltura, Friends 4Ever, ONE FC, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Sandy’s Romance, Born to be a Superstar, Sir Chief Loves Maya, Happy TODAS and DMZ-TV on Saturday, and Viva Box Office, SM Little Stars, It’s Partytime, the new CelebrityDATcom, The Million Second Quiz, Iskul Bukol Men, Born to be a Superstar, Last Fool Show and Sunday Sinemaks on Sunday. “We’re off to a good start with our Panalo Weekend campaign and we hope magtuloy-tuloy ito to get better ratings as we definitely offer more exciting and more entertaining alternative programming on weekends,” adds Pres. ATC @ IBC: CAN IT CHANGE THE TV LANDSCAPE

May 12, 2014

Within several years, sank to prepare the top-rater Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC-13). They watching a significant program (also obvious by producing original soap operas and fantasy series, include the sitcoms, gag shows, political satire, game shows, reality shows, sports, dramas, etc.). In 2000, the signing of the agreement blocktime IBC watch Viva Entertainment for sports programs (sponsored by Viva-TV) and renewed in 2012. Chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. decided to buying such a blocktime agreement because they are profit money (talented fees and high ratings) will return.

To Asian Television Content Corporation, we, the IBC-13 Fans Community, support you and your plans to revive the fortunes of IBC-13, and we would like to give you programming suggestions.

The new owner of The Kapinoy Network expects to earn a billion pesos this year as some of its TV program ratings have begun to climb. "We expect to earn P1 billion in advertising revenues this year," Boots Anson-Roa, Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. president and CEO said. The company would be spending P5 billion this year to improve the TV network's coverage and signal strength nationwide.

On top of the P5 billion capital expenditure, IBC is setting aside P2 billion for the acquisition of new program content and setting the uptrend of local productions as well.

IBC will build a state-of-the-art studio called IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City and hire more talents to strengthen its TV programming. Espinosa had said IBC wants to become the number three TV station since last 1996. IBC's bid to snatch talents has forced the industry's top two networks to rework their contracts, especially with their prized veterans.

The IBC operator has already secured contracts with the show business top guns like Raymart Santiago, Claudine Barretto, Christopher de Leon, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, Keempee de Leon, among others. IBC also pirated the head of the entertainment division of one of the top two networks.

But thank God, there is a company that appeared to be specific has The Kapinoy Network from eventually lapse. Content is the Asian Television Corporation of Singapore Mr. Rey Sanchez. They long in IBC 13 (through the air with ONE FC in April 2013). They come back, this time with more programs that will surely a big hits and become popular with the home of the PBA and NBA basketball, and such popular primetime hits attributed the expected increase in advertising revenues to a higher ratings of Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Who Wants to be a Millionaire, Born to be a Superstar, Sandy's Romance, The Million Second Quiz, Iskul Bukol Men, Sir Chief Loves Maya, Happy TODAS, variety show Dingdong n' Lani, Last Fool Show, DMZ-TV, among others. Just some of the shows delivered them into our homes is Hi-5 (the hit children's show premieres on May 10), IBC Classics (reruns of their top-rating program as TODAS, Seeing Stars, Maricel Live, Takeshi's Castle and many others), the two Mexican novelas (The Two Sides of Ana which premiered last May 5 and La Teniente on May 10), popular Korean drama Spy Myung-wol premiered last May 5 and documentaries on the UHF news channel INN like Fashion Confidential, Sports Confidential, and Hollywood Confidential. They also will cut thru indie movies like IBCinema and the action-packed movies like Sunday Sinemaks.

Promoting by Facebook executives and their good many also have been intriguing about it. The latest news about them is they attend AdSummit Philippines held today at Subic Bay Freeport Zone.

From April 25-27 nagpatikim they are two documentaries about U.S. President Barack Obama and his wife Michelle (which coincided with his state visit on April 28 and 29)

Sexual activities excite the programs they deliver to us, and they scheduled launch this May, but we still have to watch out that they changed the TV landscape of the country. Good luck with ATC!

IBC 13 being revived with new TV shows

June 1, 2014

IBC-13 has reportedly jumped to the third spot in the primetime ratings for the two squabbling network giants. It seems that more people are watching basketball games. When the government is still privatized the PCGG through the president Noynoy Aquino III, IBC-13 had a reputayion for the station with the most balances, wholesome, homegrown and powerhouse programming as attested by the trophies.

Kantar Media survey says IBC-13 emerged No.3 in overall ranking across all the target markets: All people; males; 15 years old and above; and male and female in the board C (lower economic class) between seven and 29 years old, and the massive audience of C-D-E classes.

On June 1, 2014, IBC will now air the new partnership is now called ATC @ IBC 13. This ATC @ IBC 13 will be aired IBC Classics, Hi-5, Animalia, La Teniente, Dalawang Mukha ni Ana and Retro TV. The plan calls for an upgrade of transmitters to improve signal and revive all radio and TV stations, a complete programming overhaul and a better sales and marketing complement to generate more advertising revenues.

I guess the bulk of battle for audience share in TV audience has gotten tried of ABS-CBN and GMA defectors these days, Kapinoy royalty and fans of those TV station. The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 cashes in on the phenomenon brings back the network's hit shows with the original productions.

It was a night of apparent celebration and vengeance. IBC-13's 54th Grand Anniversary Celebration held at the Marikina Sports Center, just another network inanities and hopeless media masquerade.

The ratings also show that basketball increasingly becoming popular among TV audiences. The bulk of IBC programming at right consists of the PBA and NBA, telenovelas, animes, ONE FC, Asian dramas and movies. That's a very homegrown programming strategy.

Back in the 80's, when there is Kapamilya, Kapuso and Kapatid yet, IBC-13 is the no.1 TV station in the country besting the other four other networks then in the local free channels (2, 4, 7 and 9).

IBC has risen inchijng into the core of Philippine broadcasting which is now the number 3 station in the country dominated by two warring giants, ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Eric Canoy, chairman of IBC and Boots Anson-Roa, president and CEO of IBC, declared last week during a recent press conference gathering at the Smart Araneta Coliseum. "IBC is keeping focused on providing the Filipino audiences with the best in entertainment - on Filipino talent as well."

On programming that ratings as a big deal and IBC now lay claim their importance in broadcasting on the basis of critical notices. It has, in fact, the most credible newscast hailed by critics as the best among the lot.

These glory days, the rules of the game have changed. What matters more are the percentages of audience share a show and a network can claim. And for this alone, broadcasting in this country has degenerated into a silly competition. In getting the prized advertising spots now being wrestled by other network, for more Filipino television audiences.

List of fantasy series in the Philippines Edit

Although ABS-CBN started the fantaserye fad, its rival GMA network introduced its own fantasy-based series which they called telefantasya which has a similar meaning and nature as a fantaserye.

In 2003, ABS-CBN introduced a new genre of teleserye which mixes soap opera, fantasy, myth, magic and enchantment on a nightly basis. This genre was called fantaserye, with such shows falling under this genre broadcast on a nightly basis during primetime. The first fantaserye that was shown on primetime TV was officially Darating ang Umaga. Fantasy themed TV series have been around for while already in the Philippines prior to the launch of the series Darating ang Umaga although the popular on television.

In 2004, ABS-CBN took another risk by showing yet another fantaserye Marina. Marina set a benchmark for fantaseryes on television when it garnered consistent high ratings during its entire run. The ratings and audience share of the said fantaserye were even higher than the usual more established primetime teleseryes. Because of this, the television series Marina was officially the one that popularized the genre. Today, fantaseryes are the most viewed TV program in the Philippines. Recent surveys by media research firms AC Nielsen and AGB state that fantaseryes have the highest ratings in the evening primetime block.

After Marina, ABS-CBN produced fantasy-based series under a different name but with a similar nature in the hope of saturating the ratings game such as superserye Krystala, sineserye Panday and Super Inggo. On the other hand, rival GMA network started their telefantasya run during primetime with Marinara and Mulawin. Although in 1997, GMA officially have their first soap with fantasy genre in titled Ikaw Na Sana'. The show Janella in Wonderland set a benchmark for fantaseryes on television when it garnered consistent high ratings during its entire run. The ratings and audience share of the said fantaserye were even higher than established primetime teleseryes. Because of this, the television series Janella in Wonderland was officially the one that popularized the genre. Today, fantaseryes are the most viewed TV program in the Philippines. Recent surveys by media research firms Kantar Media/TNS Philippines and AGB state that fantaseryes have the highest ratings in the evening primetime block.

Is IBC Set to Join ABS-CBN and GMA's Bandwagon

June 13, 2014

The top rated shows of IBC were pirated by rival networks. With its programs, stars and talent fees and TV rights increased more viewership afford to produce its own shows to recapture the glory days. His foremost concern is to maintain the viability and competitiveness of the network in preparation for its privatization. This is achieved by providing for the personnel welfare and benefits and by renewed programming thrust which would cater to the biggest sector of society, the youth.

If other network start launching new shows to match the firepower unleashed at Channel 13. It was a way to momentarily forget the challenges that lie ahead the following morning when they face the reality of putting all these shows in line. IBC has always been confident about its leadership in the industry, when the competition was forcing it to take more aggressive stance.

While putting more meat into its primetime dare, IBC continues to strengthen its daytime programming with animes, children's educational programs and tokusatsu hits. IBC, in partnership with Viva Television, launched new shows spread over a week of programming on primetime television slots.

The very first telenovela on IBC shown here was Carita de Angel at 1:30 p.m., Cielo del Prado at 2 p.m. and Siempre te Amare at 2:30 p.m. Before is that, IBC-13 added more telenovelas in their primetime block (usually 2 telenovelas every evening) beginning with Maria del Cielo at 7 p.m. and then Por Un Beso at 9:30 p.m. Since 2002, it changed the primetime slot with a telenovelas (3 telenovelas every evening) Carita de Angel at 6 p.m., moving Por Un Beso at 10 p.m. and then Maria del Cielo at 10:30 p.m.

The local market of IBC-13 in partnership with Viva Entertainment, The Kapinoy Network producing more soap operas. "We're really content company. That's the main difference in ABS-CBN and GMA Network produce our own stars and have a platforms as well," he explains.

Aside from the country's top television station, IBC-13 is also into radio stations, internet services, magazines, post-production, international cable and satellite distribution, talent management, music recording company and development, licensing and merchandising. Chairman Eric Canoy says the showbiz orientation of the network helps The Kapinoy Network come up with good homegrown movies and television shows, while giving television viewers the chance to see what other countries to offer.

For the success of TV networks ABS-CBN and GMA in these soap operas from teleseryes, fantaseryes, telenovelas from Mexico and asianovelas form Taiwan and Korea, and animes from Japan.

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation Channel 13 (IBC), which airs Kapinoy programming, now trailing behind ABS-CBN Corporation and GMA Network, Inc., in their purchases of Kapinoy programs expected to be hit by the peso's decline to entertainment capital has in store for the global TV market

In recent years, The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 has stayed away from airing the teleseryes, Mexicanovelas, sports prprograms, including the NBA, PBA and ONE FC, and the recent Viva Tagalog movies as well. The Philippine television network owned by Eric Canoy is gearing up for competition, lining up new shows in its prime-time slots from the bandwagon of fantasy and soap operas.

They also airing the Filipino films: Viva Cine Idols (Mondays 8 p.m.), Viva Box Office (Saturday 4:30 p.m.) and Sunday Sinemaks (Sundays 11 p.m.) with its full length local films aired on primetime, it appears if IBC-13 has now joined the bandwagon that was started by their rivals ABS-CBN and GMA.

Soon after, IBC-13 followed the lead of its arch-rival thnks to this announcement. This catapulted IBC in the number 3 slot among all television networks. Continue spread the word on the primetime programs on The Kapinoy Network provided by ATC. Visit their website www.ibc.com.ph and www.asiantvcc.com for more details.

IBC-13 (the most-watched third popular television network in the Philippines and the country) is the home for the PBA and NBA basketball as it is to by followed shows such as the phenomenal The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) and La Teniente telenovelas, Hayate the Combat Butler and Spy Myung-wol, MMA fighter ONE FC, the Viva Tagalog movies Viva Cine Idols, Viva Box Office and Sunday Sinemaks and the station's more local shows on Philippine primetime, including Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Sandy's Romance, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Happy TODAS, Sic O'Clock News Naman, Iskul Bukol Men, DMZ-TV, Last Fool Show, the hit game show mania Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Dingdong n' Lani, the popular animes Ghost Fighter and Kirarin for the Japanese anime shows, tokusatsu and sentai like Kamen Rider Fourze and Sky Ranger Gavan for the first time in fans. IBC currently is a strong number 3 in viewership.

Since IBC-13 has substantially cut back on ATC shows in favor of the station's more local shows, including telenovelas, Asian dramas, sports with PBA, NBA and ONE FC and the Viva Tagalog movies.

That situation, plus the strengthening hold of local programs on Filipino viewers, makes it difficult for IBC-13 to compete with the two giant networks.

The partnership with Viva Entertainment and Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC) is on IBC-13 to start a totally new trend in television with the introduction of the Mexican program. Televisa secured the rights to bring the series to the Philippines, while IBC-13 will market the program. Under the deal, the two companies will share in the advertising revenues. Canoy revealed that IBC-13 was positioning itself as a Kapinoy program provider that could provide a wide range of programs, not only telenovelas and asianovelas but also television programs had the local telecast of a new and explosive drama series.

Please support all the efforts of rebuilding the true #3 network in Philippine TV thru the Asian Television Content Corporation. Salamat po, mga Kapinoy! Here is the initial line-up of programs on primetime. Please support ATC @ IBC by sharing your friends and relatives.

IBC-13 is decided to air the hit telenovela under TreseBella (stylized as Trese13ella) is The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana), the hit Mexicanovela starring Ana Layevska and Rafael Amaya, Monday to Friday at 10 p.m. in responde to ABS-CBN's Pinoy Big Brother All In and GMA's The Successful Perezes.

With the foreign exchange uncertainties and with increasing competition for imports from other stations, IBC-13 has taken steps to pursue market-driven strategies by integrating programming, merchandising and sales. Moving to test its acceptability in Asia, offered The Two Sides of Ana to giant TV networks in the Philippines for free on condition the local networks would provide free air time and dubbing costs.

Meanwhile, the NBA games airing on Saturday mornings at 10 a.m. to 12 noon as well.

The PBA games will now showing the 1.5 hour basketball games on Wednesday and Friday from 8 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and Sundays from 4 to 6:15 p.m.

"We've grown more confident with our own creative department and can now produce original programs."

The network's lineup for the first quarter of 2014 mainly consists of original programs in primetime series such as Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Batang Genius, Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love and afternoon show like Frijolito top-billed by the child star wonder Bimby Aquino-Yap.

"We hope to create more original titles, to build our own inventory and meet the programming needs of both our local and international channels," Gozon said.

A new trend in Philippine television programming. Despite a Mexicanovela viewership, The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) and La Teniente, now is No.1 in the ratings and has generated more advertising in its first week. I like Filipino, Mexican and Korean soap operas that are shown from other networks.

Curiously, the primetime program air on the timeslot during weekdays. Crazy Little Thing Called Love is now matched up against the Koreanovela hits The Heirs and the re-run of Jewel in the Palace, Batang Genius opposes Mirabella and My Love from the Star, Janella in Wonderland opposes Dyesebel and Nino, Your Heart, My Love is also opposes Sana Bukas Pa ang Kahapon and Ang Dalawang Mrs. Real by more than a counter-programming strategy as well of getting high ratings on the timeslot they dominate.

"Although the cheaper to bring in a foreign soap than to produce our own programs abroad. The network's top quality soap operas are the kilig-serye Crazy Little Thing Called Love, two fantaseryes Batang Genius and Janella in Wonderland and teleserye Your Heart, My Love, a popular telenovela The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente, the Korean drama Spy Myung-wol and Taiwanese drama Hayate the Combat Butler continues to boost the ratings and the sales of IBC-13. Also, IBC-13 and Viva Television will export these shows to other countries, much like the Mexican, Taiwanese, China and Korean soap operas, and Japanese animes. This included were the quick to the Mexican soaps of telenovelas and the Asian soaps of Taiwanese, China and Korean are asianovela bandwagon.

Despite its popularity, IBC-13 will put the show on primetime with the homegrown teleseryes and putting the telenovelas and Koreanovelas. IBC's primetime in telenovela The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) and La Teniente, Hayate the Combat Butler and the Koreanovela Spy Myung-wol are big hit became a phenomenal success has since captured a big chunk of primetime viewership, also contributed to the surge in its advertising revenues. Mr. Canoy said IBC's ratings in the prime-time slot have improved. The Kapinoy Network is more focused on localizing and giving more attention to local programs. Canoy reveals that IBC-13 recently formulating a soap opera with teleseryes, fantaseryes, telenovelas and asianovelas.

For their part, TreseBella's airing of The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) and La Teniente is basically retaliation made by IBC-13 through the ATC block among television viewers was also surprising makes P1 million in revenues each day. Sporting events to gain some high ratings and the Viva Tagalog movies during the morning (Kapinoy Cinema on weekdays) and on primetime (Viva Cine Idols on Monday nights, Viva Box Office every Sunday afternoon and Sunday Sinemaks on Sunday nights).

Going to IBC's airing of the Pinoy action-packed blockbusters to have the network air a movie on Sunday nights. Sunday Sinemaks broadcasts is concentrated on Pinoy action-packed movies from Viva Films, and some concerts, live events and documentaries. Considering that the network has avoided the same route as ABS-CBN and GMA's 'masa'-based Tagalog films.

For IBC-13, it is a matter of staying away from the rivals' desperation tactics. Even though the network is now the undisputed No.3 ratings-wise, viewers can only hope that the Kapinoy network will continue to stick to what works best, and that is airing unique programs that will appeal to all classes and the masses.

IBC vows to create superstars: We know what the audience wants

March 29, 2014

With The Kapinoy Network's current roster of artist pool still lacking much-needed depth, the network executive Laurenti Dyogi vowed that talent development would be one of her priorities this year.

Dyogi, chief entertainment content officer and head of Entertainment TV production, pointed out that an extensive roster of actors and actresses will help the network bolster its program lineup. "To mount shows, of course you need more talents," she told the Philippine Daily Inquirer recently. "Stars are created, and we will do that. We know what the audience wants."

In the past few years, the Kapatid network has signed up big names in these showbiz—Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, Christopher de Leon, Boots Anson-Roa and Freddie Webb. Dyogi said she would now focus on new blood. The country's finest singers Dingdong Avanzado, Lani Misalucha, Gino Padilla, Rachel Alejandro, Miguel Aguila and Jenine Desiderio to signed up them.

"We'd like a stable of homegrown stars," she said. "I'd like viewers to instantly identify them as IBC talents." Some of the network's in-house artists are Janella Salvador, Sue Ramirez, Erich Gonzales, Mario Maurer, Francis Magundayao, Khalil Ramos, Marlo Mortel and the two finalists of the reality search Superstar Circle like Freddie Gutierrez and Liza Soberano.

Homegrown singing champions like the finalists of Born to be a Superstar as Cayleen Villamor, Veejay Aragon, Anne Bernardo and Ronald Humarang also doing a music recording contract of IBC Records.

Star-making is no easy task, Dyogi, who retired as ABS-CBN head of Entertainment TV production in 2012, acknowledged. It's a challenge that she's ready for. "There are so many talented hopefuls, and the industry is always on the lookout for someone new," she said.

Dyogi said one of the coming offerings— an afternoon version of the primetime fantaserye My Little Janella will be the launch pad for the child star Abby Bautista. Also in the main cast will be Jenine Desiderio, mother of Janella Salvador's mother and Freddie Webb.

"They're total knowns—it's just a matter of developing them and proving that they're very good," Dyogi said. "They're all in workshops now. We have big plans for them."

Dyogi also announced plans for the network's daily primetime block PrimeTastik. Rival stations ABS-CBN and GMA 7 have horizontal programming (same set of shows throughout the week), IBC, Dyogi declared, will mix horizontal and vertical programming (different sets each day), with some shows airing every day for more daily soap operas and fantasy serials; and others, once a week.

His team was considering devoting Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays to local entertainment shows— political satire, horror anthology and sitcoms, he said; Wednesdays and Fridays to PBA games or other sporting events; and the daily reality show on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Viewing habits

"We have varied content, and so we're using a different structure," she explained.

Asked if she wasn't worried that IBC's customized primetime blocking render day-to-day ratings inconsistent, Dyogi said: "We hope to break the audience's viewing habits by offering a wide array of shows."

First to air the three such daily series: teen star Janella Salvador's fantasy drama Janella in Wonderland; Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's romantic soap hit drama series Your Heart, My Love; and the local adaption of the 2010 hit That Film Turned Into Romantic Comedy Crazy Little Thing Called Love, which stars Cristine Reyes, Dingdong Dantes and Maricar Reyes. Programs in the works are the Taiwanovela hit Love You; Victoria Tuffo's telenovela La Madrastra and Jang Nara's self-titled Koreanovela My Love Patzzi.

Also in the lineup are three such primetime shows: Abra's hit comedy sitcom Abra Gayuma, the horror anthology Shake, Rattle and Roll and the reality competition K-Pop Star Hunt.

"My Little Janella" To Be Part Of HapoNation

April 3, 2014

The Janella in Wonderland spin-off version series presenting kid celebrity as the good child star wonder actress Abby Bautista is set to premiere on IBC this Monday.

Directed by Cathy Camarillo, My Little Janella will be becoming a member of the HapoNation line-up of the Kapinoy program beginning April 7, changing the afternoon television series Before I Fall in Love, which is recently set to conclude on Friday (April 4).

IBC-13 expands primetime mini-series with ‘Noli Me Tangere’

September 10, 2013

The high profile network transfers and intensive investment, the network’s lineup of basketball broadcast and more big-budgeted shows, the Kapinoy network’s PrimeTastik, the primetime block registers more than the ratings of leading networks of ABS-CBN and GMA’s flagship newscasts, more quality dramas of primetime soap operas and Mexican and Korean imports in a head to head battle for network supremacy.

It has also launched the first-ever UHF news channel in free TV called IBC News Network (INN) Channel 45 airing news and public affairs, public service, business, documentaries and sports programming.

ONE FC has signed a broadcasting deal with Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. which will bring coverage of past events to fight fans across the Philippines. Also, IBC News Network (INN) offers their programming free to viewers, thus the reach of the deal has a much greater impact than that of a pay channel TV deal. INN is well regarded for their line up of television, bringing a multitude action of sports programming from PBA and NBA basketball, boxing matches, billiards, cockfights, golf, tennis, ONE FC-MMA and WWE wrestling in addition to their news and current affairs, public service programs, business and documentaries.

“On behalf of ONE Fighting Championship, a broadcast partner and being such a strong supporter. INN is a fantastic free-to-air broadcaster in the Philippines and ONE FC is excited at the opportunity to showcase our fighters every week to millions of homes throughout the country.”

“We are excited to have ONE Fighting Championship on INN is proud to broadcast the best sporting in both the Philippines and the region and ONE FC puts on world-class entertainment that our viewers will enjoy. Viewers now get the chance to watch the best Filipino fighters such as Eduard Folayang and Honorio Banario in action.”

Relative success, The Kapinoy Network launched its star-studded Christmas station ID which could rival ABS-CBN and GMA's most anticipated annual seasonal plug create a plug of this quality. Probably to strengthen its strong presence on weeknight primetime, IBC-13 will bring more caliber shows on its primetime block.

The undisputed number 3 network has renovated its primetime home to the PBA and NBA, starting with the flagship news program Express Balita anchored by Snooky Serna, Henry Omega-Diaz and Ricardo Cepeda airing at 6:30 p.m. competes with the rival flagship newscasts of ABS-CBN's TV Patrol and GMA's 24 Oras. Also, the primetime line-up with the top-rating game show of Richard Yap as Sir Chief's The Weakest Link airs every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at 8:30 p.m. gained the nationwide dominance as well as the PBA games airing during Wednesday and Friday with a first game at 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. and a second game at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

This year, IBC-13 has airing its top-rating teleserye, showing Pinoy audience viewing habit of watching. The fantaserye My Batang Momay starring Xyriel Manabat is the lead role with Matt Edwards, Giselle Sanchez, Anton Revilla, Samantha Flores, Juan Carlos and Juan Miguel Urquico airs at 7:30 p.m.

Part of a multimedia franchise, a primetime teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love, the phenomenon romantic drama topbilled by Cristine Reyes, Dingdong Dantes, Cogie Domingo and Cherry Pie Picache airing weeknights at 9:30 p.m., dominated by the Kapamilya and Kapuso network with the huge success of primetime line-up and establishing regional stations to boost its local reception.

Show Kicks off IBC's New Prime Time Strategy

September 21, 2013

Eric Canoy-led IBC-13 has started its campaign to primetime TV audiences from rival networks with the launch of its new action mini-series Noli Me Tangere, also on weeknight teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love which monopolized IBC's primetime soap and described advertisers aimed to attracting its masa audience .

Noli Me Tangere, which debuted with a 2-hour made-for-TV-movie every Saturday mornings, and then monopolizing IBC-13's primetime programming PrimeTastik, paving the way to build its primetime programming line-up.

IBC-13 First Vice-President Lito Ocampo Cruz said the launch of Noli Me Tanegre is the many new primetime shows that will relaunch this year in the ratings race as it begins airing a new action drama miniseries.

He said that IBC-13 will also launch its new afternoon drama series Before I Fall in Love, featuring the blockbuster tandem of Mario Maurer and Erich Gonzalesa.

"We will start with Noli Me Tangere, then will build our prime time programming from there," Mr. Ocampo Cruz told BusinessWorld in an interview yesterday. "We are diversifying our programming line-up to cater to more audience preferences of masa media," he added. Primetime television, which airs at 5:45 p.m. with mini-actionserye Noli Me Tanegre, the network's flagship news program Express Balita weeknights at 6:30 p.m., fantaserye My Batang Momay at 7:30 p.m., 8 p.m. is the action-packed anime Cyborg Kurochan, the top-rating game show The Weakest Link at 8:30 p.m., the PBA Governors Cup every Wednesday at Friday in the first game at 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. and second game at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. romantic teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love weeknights at 9:30 p.m., new telenovela La Madrastra at 10 p.m. and new Koreanovela Glory Jane at 10:30 p.m. when TV viewing advertisers place their TV commercials in programs aired during this time. Industry observers earlier pointed out that IBC-13 was losing out in attracting more advertisers when the network's daily noontime variety show Lunch Break which airs weekdays from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 12 noon to 2:30 p.m. at the same time of domination in It's Showtime and Eat Bulaga! for advertisers.

IBC-13 hopes to change all that, and get more advertisers interested with the launch of Noli Me Tangere, a Filipino mini-series starring IBC contract star Jake Cuenca.

Directed by acclaimed film and TV director Monti Parungao, Noli Me Tangere follows the novel that inspired the Philippine Revolution of Dr. Jose Rizal in Manila, Rizal Park. The story about Crisostomo Ibarra (Jake Cuenca), the man of the officer for Rizal Park while María Clara (Shy Carlos), the princess of the woman in the world. The history of the flag ceremony of the centennial Philippines who called the prince with the awakening of nationalism among the Filipinos of Rizal's time.

Noli Me Tangere also stars the main cast of Cuenca with Shy Carlos as Maria Clara, Ronnie Ricketts and Mitch Valdez as Sisa. Rounding the cast are Yassi Pressman, Rudy Fernandez, Ara Mina, Phillip Salvador, John Regala, Phoebe Walker, Jovic Monsod, Jericka Martelle, Hiro Torobu and Jamilla Obispo.

The launch of Noli Me Tangere, as well as The Kapinoy Network is implementing in its primetime line up, reports claimed that the network incurred operating more than P4 billion last year.

Mr. Cruz explained. "We had to spend for new equipment, new lights, new cameras. We had to pay for great actors, brilliant directors, creative scriptwriters," he added.

Noli Me Tangere airs Monday, Tuesday and Thursday 5:45 p.m. on IBC's PrimeTastik.

IBC-13 as the counter-programming strategy, with the station airing completely different shows from its competitor with home to the PBA and NBA basketball. The Kapinoy Network has been airing new soap operas to compete against ABS-CBN and GMA are the soap operas as well as its Japanese cartoons.

When Laurenti Dyogi introducing a new post as the network's new chief entertainment content officer, his program of action included giving in to the viewers in more drama programs.

"The network had been content with being number 2. My marching orders for the employees now is to ain the strong number 3 position, and want the programs to be more comparative of counter-programming to fight. Offering more soaps like teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love, telenovela La Madrasta and Koreanovela Glory Jane.

The result of the changes has been most encouraging, say the station's top honchos. According to Mr. Canoy, big sales of IBC-13 with a 50% net increase of privatization of the PCGG government.

According to Ms. Boots, managemrnt has been gearing up for more aggressive productions.

"There has been a human recources and the management process to create the support foundation for a more aggressive content production" she said. "IBC-13 has envolved into a leading television station, more competition and also able to compete in entertainment. There has been in our drama productions and talent management producing new programs while introducing a new generation of faces. The current changes in programming are executed by a production committee headed by Mr. Ocampo Cruz. The committee meets and tackles everything from ratings and market production of new shows particularly in drama genre.

"This is one area where we are most compared (with ABS-CBN and GMA).

Historically, IBC focused on dramas, comedies and sports gearing towards. We realized to develop the talents in drama shows)," Mr. Canoy said.

Starting this week, from Monday to Friday, IBC-13 will be airing dramas (three local soap operas, telenovelas and asianovelas) namely mini-series Noli Me Tangere (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at 5:45 p.m.), primetime news program Express Balita (weeknights at 6:30 p.m.), a fantaserye My Batang Momay (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 p.m.), the action-packed anime Cyborg Kurochan (8 p.m.), the top-rated game show The Weakest Link (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday 8:30 p.m.), the most romantic teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love (weeknights 9:30 p.m.), telenovela La Madrasta (10 p.m.) and a Koreanovela Glory Jane (10:30 p.m.). ABS CBN and GMA has the network's flagship news programs of TV Patrol and 24 Oras and airing the 6 soap operas, also from Monday to Friday. Mr. Canoy believes that the strength of IBC-13 has always been in its news and current affairs programming, which is why the network is determined to improve its infrastructure in key areas outside Metro Manila. That way regional stations can come up with their own news programs.

According to Mr. Canoy, there has been tremendous growth in advertising sales for news and public affairs programs. "I've been studying the history of sales impressed that the growth of sales in news and current affairs programs has outstripped the growth in entertainment (programs), which reflects that the advertisers have accepted their strengths," he said. Once the infrastructure outside Metro Manila is placed, Mr. Canoy is confident that the regional stations in Cebu, Davao, Iloilo and Baguio will be able to produce local shows. "It would require a huge investment, it will also depend on advertisers - willing the rates to advertise in local channels," Mr. Canoy said.

IBC-13 is also looking into marketing its soap operas in other countries, with the programs dubbed in the country's local language. It is also the international channels are Global IBC and INN International, so that Filipinos abroad can have access to IBC-13 shows.

IBC, 53 Years of Kapinoy

October 1, 2013

TV stars and movies, superstars, a wonderful of the Philippine television industry, the government-sequestered TV and radio station IBC-13, the country's undisputed number 3 television station in the Philippines, the country and the Asia that viewers in the Philippine media conglomerate when is started since 1960 in this local television station has established its brand in the industry.

On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively unknown TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry.

Showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 like Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, TODAS, Pinoy Thriller, See-True, Ula ang Batang Gubat, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Eh Kasi Babae, Kulit Bulilit, Sic O'Clock News and much more.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

The Kapinoy Network managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC in glorious past. With ABS-CBN and GMA are the most popular network and IBC-13, third most popular network.

The History of The Kapinoy Network

On February 1, 1975 saw the beginning of Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) when the Benedicto Group of Companies purchased the network consisting of the Manila station and another relay station in Visayas and Mindanao. DWKB-FM, now known as iDMZ 89.1 Sayaw Pinoy! was opened and in a short time, it became the number one FM station in the country.

In 1976, IBC metamorphosed into one of the country's most viewed TV network with its full length local and foreign films aired on primetime. This catapulted IBC in the number one slot among all television networks.

On 1977, Through the sweat of it's employees and the income generated from it's programs, the network built and finally moved into its present home of Broadcast City. The complex was a five-and-a-half hectare land located at Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City. And in 1978, IBC manifested an enviable resilience in surviving the challenges. It marked the biggest, most progressive leap any network has ever made. Because of its station produced shows and co-production ventures, it penetrated a wider market. Thus, remarkable productivity surfaced with a acquisition of several provincial TV and radio stations.

After the EDSA Revolution in 1986, IBC was sequestered by the government. A board of administrators was created to run the station. When BBC 2 closed down, IBC absorbed majority of its displaced employees, thus doubled the operating expenses of the network. Cost of programs went up by threefold. Line produced shows and co-production ventures with Viva, Regal, and Seiko were favored.

The top rated shows of IBC were pirated by rival networks in 1987. Cost of programs, talent fees and TV rights increased tremendously. IBC could no longer afford to produce its own shows. By 1989, IBC took a new image, Pusong Pinoy Pusong Trese, to recapture the glory days it once had. But because of the sequestration, periodic change of management and the internal problems, the network started to lose the support of advertisers.

In the 1990s, Island Broadcast Corporation took over the management and the marketing of IBC which came to be known as Island TV 13. It was in the later part of its operations that ratings and income suffered due to mismanagement which caused labor unrest.

During this time in 1992, IBC became a 100% government owned station by virtue of a compromise agreement between PCGG and Mr. Roberto S. Benedicto, management and marketing were returned to the IBC Board of Directors. Programming remained at a standstill in preparation for the launching of a new image.

It was May 1994 when IBC launched Pinoy ang Dating with a Filipino-like visually enticing MTV, an innovation in terms of station identification. Despite limited resources, programming improved when the battle for audience share continued. Advertisers became more responsive to marketing efforts. By 1996, Vintage Television (VTV) entered the scene with PBA and NBA games as it's major program. Rehabilitation of the transmitter and other technical facilities where initiated in the central and provincial stations. A new Harris 60 Kilowatt transmitter was installed. The global service of APSTAR 1 satellite was utilized for a wider global reach. VTV continues to reign on primetime with its sports and foreign canned programs. IBC's religious and public affairs program dominate the non-prime slots. The new management under Mr. Emiliano D. Templo is determined to put IBC back on its feet.

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), the country's leading and largest government-sequestered multimedia conglomerate, maintained its lead over rival TV stations in terms of viewership across urban and rural households with an average audience share of 30%, or five points ahead of ABS-CBN's 34% and GMA's 34%, based on data from Kantar Media. Kantar Media uses a nationwide panel size of 2,609 urban and rural homes that represent 100% of the total Philippine TV viewing population, while the other ratings data supplier AGB Nielsen reportedly has only 1,980 homes based solely in urban areas that represent only 57% of the Philippine TV viewing population.

The Trailblazer turns 39 of RPN

Manila Standard - June 18, 1999

70's, 80's and 90's Edit

Despite the network war between the two dominant players in the Philippine television industry, RPN-9 has been to maintain a secure and stable niche in the business. Since its inception in 1960, it has been a pioneer in broadcasting satellite as well as top-rating and trailblazing programming. RPN introduced such first as "accucolor" and 24-hour nonstop programming. The first to use the satellite to become a truly national network. RPN has six TV stations located in the cities, TV relay and translator stations in Baguio and 12 other population centers in the Visayas and Mindanao and 14 radio stations strategically spread out over the archipelago.

As the network who brought us such classic TV shows as John en Marsha, Tell the People, Superstar, Marimar, among others. RPN aims to deliver more quality programming that is basically pro-people and pro-service. Today, it is the local "home network" of the cream of the crop of English language television programs: Ally McBeal, The X-Files, Dharma and Greg, The Practice, and NYPD Blue.

Just recently, three of RPN's primetime shows won four of the highest awards given by a world-community organization- the Foreign Press 1999 Golden Globe Awards. Ally McBeal, took home the Best Comedy TV Series award and The Practice, garnered the two top awards: Best TV Drama Series and Best Actor in a TV Drama Series for Dylan McDermott and Jenna Elfman of Dharma and Greg won Best Actress in a TV Comedy Series over Calixta Flockart of Ally McBeal who was also nominated and considered a top contender. Dharma and Greg also won Best Comedy Series in last year's US People Choice Awards. One of the most consistent nominees and winners, almost every year, is the phenomenal, world hit cult series, The X-Files.

Edgar San Luis, president and general manager, said the network will maintain its present programming.

"Our first priority is to institute much-needed structural changes in the network and make it ready and able to meet larger challenges. Also, to give viewers and advertisers what they rightly deserve such as programming and service that is people-oriented and anchored on much improved News and Public Affairs program," says San Luis.

RPN's strength lies in its inventory of programs based on foreign produced primetime programming materials which was conceptualized in the 80's. The programming scheme proved to be a resounding success which later on became a major marketing play in attracting advertisers.

"While we do not have an aversion to producing our own local programs, realities dictate that we may now do so now. Firstly, a one-hour locally produced program will cost much more than a one-hour canned show. Secondly, even if we can afford it, we cannot tap the services of existing top stars and talents as these are mostly under exclusive contracts with the dominant channels. Those that are free (from the movie outfits) charge excessively unaffordable talent fees that cannot be recovered through TV broadcast," he says. San Luis, who has been in the business for 24 years, said his basic plans for the network include protecting, preserving and enhancing the interest of the network. He stressed on implementing structural changes within the company.

"Future projects for RPN-9 cannot at present be concretized. As you know, the government plans to privatize the network soon. Therefore, until such time that definitive dates/time in relation to this eventuality is set with certainty -- no long term planning for network can be honestly made. What is important to us now is to preserve and enhance the value of the network so that would-be owners can be asked to pay a just price for it" says San Luis.

He also added that RPN use add-on media values in luring advertising support.

San Luis

"By packaging our anchor programs with other network programs, we will be able to bring effective costs down and make us competitive. Add to this the add-on values like creative merchandising, brand-bugs, built-into-the-program credits then we have a very viable package. The realities dictate that we continue to pursue this line of selling. If you noticed even the dominant channel are resorting also to schemes to enhance their selling potentials," says San Luis. On its 39th anniversary, San Luis and the rest who make up RPN-9 brace for greatest opportunities that the new millennium will offer.

LEADING THE WAY Edit

Radio Philippines Network, Inc. or RPN, as it is more popularly known to millions of listeners and viewers of its varied programs celebrates its 39th anniversary as a leader in the Philippine Communications industry.

From its inauspicious beginnings, RPN has grown into a unheralded phenomenon in the industry today-six TV stations located in six cities, TV relay and translator stations in Baguio and 12 other population centers in the Visayas and Mindanao and 14 radio stations strategically spread out over the archipelago.

Viewed from any perspective, such increase in number indicates growth in listenership and viewership of a considerable magnitude and scale. That growth can rightfully be attributed to a work ethic guided by a fine sense for balance programming, an openness for innovative ideas, and a zeal for talent discovery and development.

On the 39th anniversary of RPN, the corps of men and women whose collective effort has made the network what it is today braces for opportunities that the millennium will offer. They stand confidently in the dawn of a new and more competitive age, driven by a commitment for merit and excellence.

RPN: A history Edit

RPN 9 celebrates its 39th year with a forward-looking leadership and a staff primed for more challenging and opportunity-filled times.

Established under a legislation in 1960, Radio Philippines Network, Inc. became fully operational via the launch of its flagship radio station in Manila, dzBI. before long, RPN turned into a full network with seven stations in Manila, Baguio, Tuguegarao, Laoag and Dadiangas (now General Santos).

Towards the close of the decade, the network branched out to television with two stations- Channel 2 in Manila and Channel 9 in Baguio. Since then, RPN has been inextricably linked with the history of Philippine television.

Chroniclers of the industry aver with conviction that "Philippine television today is a far-cry from the early, struggling years." It had gone through a metamorphosis from a maligned boobtube to a principled purveyor of news events and entertainment. A historical account of television in the Philippines must include the legislative and technical breakthroughs by both business sector and academe in the 1950's. On June 14, 1950, Congress granted a permit to Bolinao Electornica Corp. "to construct, maintain and operate... stations in TV in the Philippines." The following year, University of Sto. Tomas conducted experiments with the medium, with FEATI Institute of Technology doing its own two years later. While the UST experiment used crude methods of wires connected from the camera to a receiving set, the FEATI project by students in radio and electronics was more of an actual telecast under the supervision of their professor. The FEATI experiment was described by Philippine Press' Leon O. Ty as having images which were recognizable, fluid, and almost as big as life.

Ty could have used the same description for the first telecast which took place in the Philippines on October 23, 1953. This maiden telecast beamed over a 50-mile radius by a 7.5-kilowatt transmitter covered an event- a garden party- in the residence of Judge Antoni Quirino in San Juan, with his brother then president Elpidio Quirino, as the special guest. The telecast drew support from a total of 52 advertisers.

The decade of the sixties opened with a significant landmark event for RPN. By virtue of Republic Act No. 2890 passed by the Philippine legislature on June 19, 1960, the company was granted a franchise to conduct, establish, maintain and operate radio broadcasting and television stations in the Philippines.

During the succeeding years, radio stations within the RPN family mushroomed in various parts of the country.

In 1962, the network branched out into television when the original Kanlaon Broadcasting System acquired the frequency, as well as the transmitter from ABS-CBN. By 1969, RPN was operating Channel 9 in Manila and Channel 12 in Baguio.

That year was marked by a technical milestone in two important aspects of its operation.

- Equipment from Toshiba enabled Channel 9 to telecast in full color. Acucolor as its color casting capability was named- was considered far superior and more professional than the test-quality broadcasts then being run in the country.
- RPN brought in the first Outside Broadcast Color Van (OB Van) in the Philippines, making it possible to beam studio-quality broadcasts of news and special events coverages from remote areas.
- The seventies opened for RPN with a technological leap. In 1971, it inaugurated an all-color TV network with high-powered stations in Baguio, Bicol, Bacolod and Cebu.
- As few households then owned TV sets and there was a perceived need to attract viewership, RPN began to produce a variety of local shows which became favorites.

The outstanding programs included:

- The Nora Anour-Eddie Peregrina show which later spun off as Superstar.
- Drama series for Hilda Koronel, Rosemarie Sonora, Snooky and Boots Anson-Roa.
- Variety shows for Tirso Cruz III, Tina Revilla, Jeanne Young and Sonny Cortez.
- Sitcom shows for screen legend like Leopoldo Salcedo, Mila del Sol, Ric Rodrigo and Jamie de la Rosa.
- Musicals like Aawitan Kita and Carmen Soriano Show.
- Changes introduced to TV June Keithley, Jaime Fabregas and Maya Valdez under the direction of Peque Gallaga.
- Quiz shows in the genre of Spin-A-Win of Jeanne Young and Tic-Tac-Toe of Buddy Juquin.
- Children's show of Pepe Pimentel's Clubhouse 9 followed by cartoon shows that provided RPN with top-rating early evening lead-in-to primetime.

Programming Trailblazer

- All this buttressed the widespread perception in the industry that RPN was, in the 70's, a programming trailblazer.
- In technology, RPN also led the way. It ushered local broadcasting into the satellite age in the early 80's. As such, RPN became a truly national network. In the words of a former general manager, Atty. Felipe G. Medina, "We were the first to become a truly national network by utilizing satellite."
- Aside from pioneering in the technical aspects of the industry, RPN also achieved a number of innovations, such as being the first to:
- Came out with a "TV newspaper" Newswatch- complete with all the sections of a daily newspaper starting in 1970
- Air such news program and other shows via domestic satellite nationwide
- Maximize its merchandising of programs to promote its own productions
- Introduce the longest running and consistently rating sitcom John en Marsha, which both industry and the academe regard as a paradigm of development communication
- Cover live via satellite major sporting events, including the Olympics
- Come out with the Superstar variety show format
- Use computer graphics in its station break
- Launch the local animation series, Ang Panday
- Introduce drastic changes in daytime programming, developing further the noontime slots and making the early afternoon and early evening slots profitable.
- Make public affairs programs like Tell the People popularly appealing
- Introduce the first Filipino mini-series Malayo Pa Ang Umaga based on Steven Javellana's gripping wartime novel, Without Seeing the Dawn

- Launch the telenovela genre starting with the spectacular MariMar starring Thalia which has rated extremely high with viewers befudding the competition. (1997 RPN Anniversary Report)
